Caught in the Act Cyril Julie, Lorna Holtman, Charles R. Smith, 2019-12-11 The research reported in Caught in the Act draws together the insights gained from a continuous professional development initiative for high school mathematics teachers teaching in low socio economic status and socially challenged environments in South Africa The chapters show the possibilities for enhancing achievement in school mathematics if a strength based approach is adopted to develop teaching with teachers and when their concerns are taken seriously The book demonstrates that the ecological relevance fitness for the context in which teachers are teaching of the goods developed and distributed by initiatives should be a major consideration to offer hope for sustainable implementation to improve school mathematics education The book is of interest to mathematics teachers school leaders mathematics curriculum advisors policy makers and researchers

The Passionate Economist Sally Sheard, 2014 Brian Abel Smith was one of the most influential figures in the shaping of social welfare in the twentieth century A modern day Thomas Paine the British economist and expert advisor was driven to improve the lives of the poor working with groups like the World Health Organization International Labour Organization and the World Bank to help bring health and social welfare services to millions across the globe The Passionate Economist is the first biography to chronicle his life and the many programs he helped create Sally Sheard details Abel Smith's work as an economist and advocate setting it against the backdrop of the larger history of health and social welfare development since the 1950s She analyzes these developments and the effects that long running welfare debates have had on both poverty and state responses to it She compares welfare implementation in different developing countries and examines how it was administered by the agencies for which Abel Smith worked The result is an accessible book on a leading humanitarian and through him a history of exactly how we have cared for each other in the globalized era
