Crystal Brittany Diaz, 2015-04-10 I didnt need this I was living a great life Maybe it was a little boring but I didnt care It was my own life and I would have done anything to go back to the way things were Of course I couldnt because only in a perfect world do we get what we want Instead Im sent off on a crazy desperate idea to live in a house where my worst nightmare had come true Living there was a constant reminder of what I lost The ghost in the walls didnt seem to make it any easier I tried to stay strong I kept my head high and never moped around I even met someone But it wasnt enough I was losing a battle I had not realized I was fighting The house wasnt the only thing that made things hard The house was a burn in my heart more than it was evil It was this place this town It was the thing that lurked in the shadows behind every sad soul that walked around there It was hiding and toying with all of us It was after blood And no matter how hard it was to believe or how unreal it had all seemed to me whether or
