Act Three Questions. All questions are in order of events in Act Three.

Arthur Miller has expressed pride in The Crucible, which speaks about mass hysteria, social and political repression, and the tragic combination of the two. Deciding to present the play is often a response to similar circumstances. "I can almost tell what the political situation in a country is when the play is suddenly a hit there," Miller writes, "it is either a warning of tyranny on the way or a reminder of tyranny just past." (American Literature, Glencoe Literature, Columbus, Ohio, pg. 957)
