The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction: 1980-2018 Peter Boxall, 2019-06-27 Gives a comprehensive critical picture of the development of British fiction from the election of Thatcher to the present

A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters Julian Barnes, 2011-06-15 A playful witty and entertaining book The New York Times Book Review that offers an exhilarating vision of the world starting with the voyage of Noah's ark and ending with a sneak preview of heaven from the bestselling Booker Prize winning author of The Sense of an Ending It's a hilariously revisionist account of Noah's ark narrated by a passenger who doesn't appear in Genesis It's a sneak preview of heaven It encompasses the stories of a cruise ship hijacked by terrorists and of woodworms tried for blasphemy in sixteenth century France It explores the relationship of fact to fabulation and the antagonism between history and love In short A History of the World in 10 Chapters is a grandly ambitious and inventive work of fiction in the traditions of Joyce and Calvino from the author of the widely acclaimed Flaubert's Parrot

Stories of the Middle Space Deborah C. Bowen, 2010 Postmodernism's critics often accuse the movement of being dangerously amoral because of its apparent wariness of concepts such as truth ethics and justice Stories of the Middle Space explores the possibility of postmodernism with a conscience and examines a variety of British and Canadian postmodern fiction to show how twentieth century critical theory can be brought into fruitful dialogue with a faith based perspective Highlighting the wide variety of ethical concerns considered by writers such as Timothy Findley Thomas King Carol Shields Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Salman Rushdie Deborah Bowen makes the case for a new category of postmodern realism and shows how contemporary stories about the real and the good are constructed Applying theoretical insights from Emmanuel Levinas and Mikhail Bakhtin Bowen investigates categories of postmodern realism such as magic realism parody and metafiction while laying the groundwork for Christian readings of a medium that is often perceived as largely irreligious An illuminating study of well known contemporary writers Stories of the Middle Space is a critically nuanced and methodologically innovative work that reads the postmodern from a faith based perspectives to create new literary insights Deborah Bowen addresses the ethical concerns of a wide variety of postmodern fiction from a faith based perspective that engages with the decentred discourses of post structuralism She suggests that a focus on the middle space between language and the world not only provides new insights into the construction of the real and the notion of a good story but also resituates the possibility of Christian reading in a largely post Christian era

Experiencing Narrative Worlds Richard Gerrig, 2018-02-23 What does it mean to be transported by a narrative to create a world inside one's head How do experiences of narrative worlds alter our experience of the real world In this book Richard Gerrig integrates insights from cognitive psychology and from research linguistics philosophy and literary criticism to provide a cohesive account of what we have most often treated as isolated aspects of narrative experience Drawing on examples from Tolstoy to Toni Morrison Gerrig offers new analysis of some classic problems in the study of narrative He discusses the ways in which we are cognitively equipped to tackle fictional and nonfictional narratives how thought and emotion interact when we experience narrative how narrative information influences judgments in the real world and the reasons we can feel the same excitement and suspense when we reread a book as when we read it for the first time Gerrig also explores the ways we enhance the experience of narratives through finding solutions to textual dilemmas enjoying irony at the expense of characters in the narrative and applying a wide range of interpretive techniques to discover meanings concealed by and from authors

Imaginary Homelands of Writers in Exile Cristina Emanuela Dascalu, 2007 The effects of the displacement of peoples their forced migration their deportation their voluntary emigration their movement to new lands where they made themselves masters over others or became subjects of the masters of their new homes reverberate down the years and are still felt today The historical violence of the era of empire and colonies echoes in the literature of the descendants of those forcibly moved and the exiles that those processes have made The voices of its victims are insistent in the literature that has come to be called post colonial Although the term post colonial is insufficient to capture fully the depth and breadth of those writers that have been labeled by it for it is itself something of a colonial instrument ghettoizing writers in English who are still considered to be foreign there is a common bond among the works of those novelists who understand the process of exile and see themselves as exiles both from their homes and from themselves In this eloquently argued book with meticulous theoretical groundwork Dr Cristina Dascalu presents a most lucid and concise examination of exile In addition to her negotiation of the term exile what is most original and significant about Imaginary Homelands of Writers in Exile is the selection of authors Reaching across national in terms of country of exile and ethnic in terms of region religion of birth boundaries Dr Dascalu elegantly shows the persistent relevance of the experience and implications of exile to the writing of fiction in the world today Rushdie Mukherjee and Naipaul are very distinct authors whose works are not often discussed together in this context Using Benedict Anderson's notion of unimagined communities among other critical lenses she makes significant connections between the way exile functions as a theme and as a condition for their writing pub desc

Deconstructing Reaganism Douglas E. Forster, 2014-06-02 As in so many other areas of American society the political legacy of Ronald Reagan had an imposing presence in many contemporary American films particularly between 1980 and 2000 Six films which collectively represent the spectrum of Reaganism's most popular tropes demonstrate quite compellingly that in celebrating nostalgically the blissful pleasantries of family stability and social order so essential to Reagan's political philosophy an unsettling and unsatisfying mythology has been created about a period in which many Americans were acutely aware that something was missing even if they could not pinpoint it at the time This leads the critical viewer to largely unacknowledged subtexts in all six films that begin to reveal the contradictions incoherencies and paradoxes rooted in popular Reaganesque portrayals Utilising a detailed qualitative case study methodology this book incorporates theoretical foundations that expand upon Fairclough's path breaking research on media discourse and Todorov's broadly articulated framework of fantasy in order to explore 1 Which elements of Fairclough's framework for critical discourse analysis can be applied to explore the discursive structures within these American fantasy films 2 How far do the films follow Reaganist concepts of a new American society 3 How far do notions of the fantastic and postmodern concepts break with common patterns of Reaganism reflected in these films While many critics rightly cite the numerous elements in these films that appear to reinforce fundamental message points underlying Reaganism this study demonstrates how the films' characters and plot lines also serve to reveal the inherent and irreconcilable incoherence of the sociopolitical and sociocultural tenets of Reaganism

Recounting past events is intrinsic to the storytelling function as most fiction assumes the past tense as the natural means of narrating a story Few narratives draw attention to this process yet others make the act of remembering a primary part of the narrative situation Ranging in its focus from poetry to novels autobiographical memoirs and biopics from the ostensibly fictional to the implicitly real this volume discusses the extent to which such fictional acts of remembering are also acts of rewriting the past to suit the needs of the present How seamlessly does experience yield to the ordering strictures of narrative and what is at stake in the process What must be omitted or stylised and to what ideological end In making an artefact of the past what role does artifice play and what does this process also tell us about history making

Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism Toril Moi, 2006

Henrik Ibsen 1828-1906 is the founder of modern theater and his plays are performed all over the world Yet in spite of his unquestioned status as a classic of the stage Ibsen is often dismissed as a boring old realist whose plays are of interest only because they remain the gateway to modern theater In Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism Toril Moi makes a powerful case not just for Ibsen's modernity but also for his modernism Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism situates Ibsen in his cultural context emphasizes his position as a Norwegian in European culture and shows how important painting and other visual arts were for his aesthetic education The book rewrites literary history reminding modern readers that idealism was the dominant aesthetic paradigm of the nineteenth century Modernism was born in the ruins of idealism Moi argues thus challenging traditional theories of the opposition between realism and modernism By reading Ibsen's modernist plays as investigations of the fate of love in an age of skepticism Moi shows why Ibsen still matters to us In this book Ibsen's plays are shown to be profoundly concerned by theater and theatricality both on stage and in everyday life Ibsen's unsettling explorations of women men and marriage here emerge as chronicles of the tension between skepticism and the everyday and between critique and utopia in modernity This radical new account places Ibsen in his rightful place alongside Baudelaire Flaubert and Manet as a founder of European modernism

Cultures and Literatures in Dialogue Elena Bollinger, 2022-12-30

This book addresses the narrative construction of Russian cultural memory in the work of Julian Barnes It investigates how Barnes's texts tend to display a memory process as a transcultural mode of the creation of English and Russian national identities Examining a need to revisit Russian canonical works the detailed discursive analysis of the selected English texts exposes an intertextual remembering by duplication thus contributing to the prevention of forgetting through the recuperation of still misrecollected cultural meanings By creatively incorporating Russian intertextual elements into his work as a novelist the author seems to insist on sweeping across and beyond national boundaries revealing how frail the invention of tradition is when leading to the illusion of a solid collective memory and its political legitimation The book considers not only a constructive dialogue between Barnes s fiction and Russian classical literature but also this writer s interpretative mostly imaginative integration of Russian literature and culture into his work as a novelist Exploring the double meaning of a literary metaphor as a mnemonic image of memory and a product of imagination it offers a comprehensive analysis of Barnes s texts which play with intertextuality as an efficient tool of displacement of official memory providing a deeper understanding of historical and cultural processes related to the constantly moving architecture of transcultural memory

Contemporary Narrative and the Spectrum of Materiality Marco Caracciolo,2023-07-04 How do physical things differ from non things human subjects animals abstract ideas or processes Those questions which are as old as philosophy itself have inspired contemporary debates in ecocriticism thing theory and in the interdisciplinary field of new materialism This book argues that contemporary narrative is well placed to map out and work through the spectrum of the material and the philosophical questions that underlie it This is because narrative does not resolve the tensions at the heart of conceptions of materiality but rather reframes them envisioning their implications and exploring their relevance to concrete contexts of human interaction This monograph is structured around a number of novels experimental fiction films and video games that imagine the inherent agency of things but also interrogate the affective and ethical significance of materiality in human terms Its aim is to demonstrate the power of formal narrative analysis to foster conceptually and ethically sophisticated ways of thinking about thingness in times of ecological crisis that is times in which stuff can no longer be taken for granted
