A Life On Hold Living With Schizophrenia:

A Life on Hold Josie Méndez-Negrete, 2015-08-15 Méndez Negrete's powerful account is the first memoir by a Mexican American author to share the devastation and hope a family experiences in dealing with schizophrenia A Life on Hold Josie Méndez-Negrete, 2015-08-15 For more than twenty years Josie Méndez Negrete has endured the emotional journey of watching her son Tito struggle with schizophrenia Her powerful account is the first memoir by a Mexican American author to share the devastation and hope a family experiences in dealing with this mental illness Méndez Negrete depicts the evolution of the disease from her perspective as a parent and by relating Tito's own narrative illuminating the inadequacies of the US mental health system and the added burdens of addiction and blame Through the author Tito paints a vivid picture of his lived experiences and everyday traumas to show how his life and the lives of his loved ones have been impacted by mental illness Hispanic-Serving Institutions in American Higher Education Jesse Perez Mendez, Fred A. Bonner

II, Josephine Méndez-Negrete, Robert T. Palmer, 2023-07-03 This is the first book to exclusively address Hispanic Serving Institutions HSIs filling a major gap in both the research on these institutions and in our understanding of their approaches to learning and their role in supporting all students while focusing on Hispanic students Born out of the reauthorization of the Higher Education Act of 1992 and are classified as such if their enrollment of Latino students account for a quarter of their undergraduate enrollment the number of HSIs and their impact in higher education is growing Today there are approximately 370 HSIs 277 emerging HSIs and their numbers are steadily increasing Given the projected growth of the Latino population and HSIs record of advancing the success for Hispanic students in STEM fields as well as of graduating nearly a third of all Hispanic bachelor's degree recipients their work has important implications for higher education at large Written by leading and rising scholars on HSIs this book offers insight into the complexity of these institutions It not only addresses historic policy origins but also describes the experiences of various student populations served faculty issues i.e. governance diversity work life experience etc the impact of student affairs in advancing student development and considers funding and philanthropy efforts The book also critically examines challenges that many of these institutions face disjointed mission statements regarding support of their Latino a student populations governance structures that support the status quo and the financial incentive to achieve HSI designation that may not correlate with enhancing the climate for Latinos This book touches on the many facets of HSIs painting an organic mosaic of institutions in position to advance Latino postsecondary progress both chronicling the contemporary challenges that these institutions face while also looking to their future Testimonios of Care Natalia Deeb-Sossa, Yvette G Flores, Angie Chabram, 2024 The first English language collection of Latina x caregiving testimonios this volume gives voice to diverse Chicana x and Latina x caregiving experiences Bringing together thirteen first person accounts of how Latinx people deal with serious health conditions as caregivers these testimonies highlight tragic flaws in the health care system how woefully undervalued caregiving is and how as care recipients and caregivers they have been harmed by the for profit health care system      Fathers, Fathering, and Fatherhood Adelaida R. Del Castillo, Gibrán Güido, 2021-04-29 Bringing together a unique collection of narrative accounts based on the lived experience of queer Chicano Mexicano sons this book explores fathers fathering and fatherhood In many ways the contributors reveal the significance of fathering and representations of fatherhood in the context of queer male sexuality and identity across generations cultures class and Mexican immigrant and Mexican American families They further reveal how father figures godfathers grandfathers and others may nurture and express love and hope for the queer young men in their extended family Divided into six sections the book addresses the complexity of father queer son relationships family dynamics the impact of neurodiverse mental health issues the erotic unsafe and taboo qualities of desire encounters with absent estranged or emotionally distant fathers and a critical analysis of father and queer son relationships in Chicano Latino literature and film      Teacher Education in the 21st Century Maria Jose Hernández-Serrano, 2021-06-16 In the face of unprecedented disruption from the COVID 19 pandemic and the rapid acceleration of digital technologies it is necessary to rethink the competences required by teachers for meeting new and flexible learning demands Teacher training is an area constantly evolving along with emerging social challenges that are transforming educational institutions and agents This book provides teachers with skills innovative solutions cutting edge studies and methodologies to meet education and training system demands In our changing world preparing teachers worldwide for the challenges and shifts of this era involves the opportunity to exchange theories practices and experiences such as those contained in this book      Activist Leaders of San José Josie Méndez-Negrete, 2020-10-20 The community of San José California is a national model for social justice and community activism This legacy has been hard earned In the twentieth century the activists of the city's Mexican American community fought for equality in education and pay better conditions in the workplace better health care and much more Sociologist and activist Josie Méndez Negrete has returned to her hometown to document and record the stories of those who made contributions to the cultural and civic life of San José Through interview excerpts biographical and historical information and analysis Méndez Negrete shows the contributions of this singular community throughout the twentieth century and the diversity of motivations across the generations Activists share with Méndez Negrete how they became conscious about their communities and how they became involved in grassroots organizing protest and social action Spanning generations we hear about the motivations of activists in the 1930s to the end of the twentieth century We hear firsthand stories of victories and struggles successes and failures from those who participated Activist Leaders of San José narrates how parents both mothers and fathers were inspired to work for the rights of their people Workers and education rights were at the core but they also took on the elimination of at large elections to open city politics labor rights domestic abuse and health care This book is an important record of the contributions of San José in improving conditions for the Mexican American community      Life Writing and Schizophrenia Mary Elene Wood, 2013-09-05 How do you write your life story when readers expect you not to make sense How do you write a case history that makes sense when face to face with schizophrenia your ability to tell a diagnostic story begins to fall apart This book examines work in several genres of life writing autobiography memoir case history autobiographical fiction focused either on what it means to live with schizophrenia or what it means to understand and treat people who have received that diagnosis Challenging the romanticized connection between literature and madness Life Writing and Schizophrenia explores how writers who hear voices and experience delusions write their identities into narrative despite popular and medical representations of schizophrenia as chaos violence and incoherence The study juxtaposes these narratives to case histories by clinicians writing their encounters with those diagnosed with schizophrenia encounters that call their own narrative authority and coherence into question Mary Wood is the author of The Writing on the Wall Women's Autobiography and the Asylum University of Illinois Press 1994 and has published articles on autobiography case history literature and psychiatry and narrative ethics in Narrative British Journal of Medical Ethics Journal of Trauma and Dissociation and American Literary Realism She teaches in the English Department at the University of Oregon
