How to be Loved Eva Hagberg,Eva Hagberg Fisher,2019 Hagberg Fisher spent her lonely youth looking everywhere for connection drugs alcohol therapists boyfriends girlfriends Sometimes she found it temporarily Then at age thirty an undiscovered mass in her brain ruptured and so did her life When her illness hit a critical stage it forced her to finally admit the long suppressed truth she was vulnerable she needed help and she needed true friendship for the first time Here she explores the isolation so many of us feel despite living in an age of constant connectivity and writes about the friends who taught her to grow up and open her heart adapted from jacket

The Possibility of Joy James Drey,2000 Grieving—The Sacred Art Lisa Irish,2018-04-03 For most people the pain of loss dominates their experience of grief Grief then becomes something to be avoided or completed as quickly as possible In her new book Lisa Irish presents grief as our ally in the Land of Loss and offers pathways and resources to navigate the confusing and challenging terrain She explores conscious grieving as she gathers the wisdom of bereavement experts spiritual leaders and everyday people walking their own individual paths Lisa encourages us to let seeds of hope find their way into our grieving hearts to allow self compassion during the journey and to trust grief's healing process Grieving The Sacred Art makes a space for love in our sadness and leads us into a Land of Hope History Anna Greenwood,2023-10-06 History has been a source of cultural fascination since ancient times however little attention has been paid to its potential as a positive force for health and wellbeing at least until now Presenting the benefits of historical engagement and practical tips for making the most of it Anna Greenwood considers the power this discipline has to spur better health outcomes A groundbreaking work for history buffs and healthcare providers alike this new instalment in the Arts for Health series by one of the leading scholars in modern health history advocates for history's ability to deepen sympathies broaden imaginations and create community beyond the customary restrictions of time and geography Rape Narratives that Paved the Way for #MeToo Marta Fernández-Morales,2025-08-12 This book examines a decade of rape memoirs produced by English speaking women around the emergence of MeToo as a global phenomenon It argues that their auto biographical praxis opened a crack in the long standing wall of silence that the 2017 online campaign and its echoes still resonating today are systematically eroding Jana Leo Joanna Connors Roxane Gay Myriam Gurba Chanel Miller Jeannie Vanasco Eve Ensler Thordis Elva and other survivors helped set and reaffirm the bases for the current zeitgeist around sexual violence characterized by a tsunami of stories in circulation and a growing audience that is more ready than ever to listen to the victims ethically and empathically This volume offers an in depth analysis of a literary corpus that contributes to the conversation about the narrative politics of the fourth wave of feminism and some of its key preoccupations such as consent accountability and justice Of particular value for academics and activists working on against sexual violence as well as for life writing and gender studies scholars it can also be useful to specialists in the fields of ethics affect theory trauma studies memory studies cultural studies phenomenology victimology or ethnic and minority studies Seeking Spirit Beyond the Bottle Helen Sherry,2004-06-29 We live in an addictive society in which compulsiveness has become an art form and most people have dependencies of some sort This book was written to help all dependent people learn ways to follow a spiritual path even if their dependencies might be one of those potentially less severe than alcoholism or drug addiction such as workaholism materialism excessive anxiety or relationship difficulties To quote from the author People these days talk seriously of addictions to television the Internet or to acquiring material possessions These are usually self involved occupations It's as though humanity knows somehow that joy is their natural state but they lack the ability to open enough to experience it They are seeking comfort and joy in all the wrong places This memoir tells the story of three generations afflicted with alcoholism and its effects on family and friends It chronicles the author's growing up with an alcoholic mother in the middle of the twentieth century and her own later development of the same illness despite her strong commitment to avoid this It describes the methods she has used to remain in recovery over twenty seven years and includes information learned from her twenty plus years of working as an addictions counselor and from her ongoing relationships with an alcoholic spouse and an emotionally disabled son This book speaks to issues of import to much of humanity such as abandonment the need for safety and security in an insecure world the need to give control back to a spiritual source the need for forgiveness of self and others and the primary need to find Spirit within and not without To quote again from Ms Sherry s words I no longer think of God as dwelling in heaven wherever that might be As a child heaven seemed to be a place above the sky However even though I now know more of the facts about our Universe I still can t identify a place called heaven Today I also acknowledge the fact that our Universe may not be the only one that exists Consequently I think of Spirit as being a power that exists not only beyond the Universe but at the same time exists and resides in us all The author clearly and humanly identifies the eclectic combination of spiritual tools she had put in place in her life Her message will speak to those with addictions but also to those who simply wish to avoid dependencies and to change grow and evolve Hopeful Healing Mackenzie Phillips,2017-02-07 As the daughter of lead singers of the 1960s band The Mamas and The Papas Mackenzie Phillips grew up in a dysfunctional environment and subsequently battled a near fatal drug addiction Now delivered with warmth and candor she presents the wisdom she gained from her own personal journey through addictions and her understanding of practical treatment from her work as a rehabilitation counselor Using her own life experiences as examples of proven recovery methods she shares the tools and holistic approaches that are available to help you on your journey to recovery Amazon com
