Revealing the immense beauty of devotion and poetry Osho speaks on the enlightened feminine mystic Daya Osho states The path of devotion is the path of the heart Only the mad succeed there only those who can laugh and cry with their whole heart those who are not afraid to drink the wine of the divine because when you drink that wine you will lose all your senses you will lose all control over your life The last morning star symbolizes all that is ephemeral in the world Daya reaches the truth through the intensity of her heart as she journeys on the passionate path of devotion Dignaga on the Interpretation of Signs R.P. Hayes,2012-12-06 Buddhist philosophy in India in the early sixth century C E took an important turn away from the traditional methods of explaining and systematizing the teachings in Sutra literature that were attributed to the Buddha The new direction in which several Indian Buddhist philosophers began to move was that of following reasoning to its natural conclusions regardless whether the conclusions conflicted with traditional teachings The central figure in this new movement was Dignaga a native of South India who found his way to the centre of Buddhist education at Nalanda studied the treatises that were learned by the Buddhist intellectuals of his day and eventually wrote works of his own that formed the core of a distinctly new school of Buddhist thought Inasmuch as virtually every Indian philosopher after the sixth century had either to reject Dignaga's methods or build upon the foundations provided by his investigations into logic epistemology and language his influence on the evolution of Indian philosophy was considerable and indeed some familiarity with Dignaga's arguments and conclusions is indispensable for anyone who wishes to understand the historical development of Indian thought Moreover since the approach to Buddhism that grew out of Dignaga's meditations on language and the limits of knowledge dominated the minds of many of the scholars who took Buddhism to Tibet some familiarity with Dignaga is also essential to those who wish to understand the intellectual infrastructure of Tibetan Buddhist philosophy and practice Sailing Through the 7 C's T. Naked Seeing Christopher Hatchell,2014 Buddhism is in many ways a visual tradition with its well known practices of visualization its visual arts its epistemological writings that discuss the act of seeing and its literature filled with images and metaphors of light Some Buddhist traditions are also visionary advocating practices by which meditators seek visions that arise before their eyes Naked Seeing investigates such practices in the context of two major esoteric traditions the Wheel of Time Kalacakra and the Great Perfection Dzogchen Both of these experimented with sensory deprivation and developed yogas involving long periods of dwelling in dark rooms or gazing at the open sky These produced unusual experiences of seeing which were used to pursue some of the classic Buddhist questions about appearances emptiness and the nature of reality Along the way these practices gave rise to provocative ideas and suggested that rather than being apprehended through internal insight religious truths might also be seen in the exterior world realized through the gateway of the eyes Christopher Hatchell presents the intellectual and literary histories of these practices and also explores the meditative techniques and physiology that underlie their distinctive visionary experiences The book also offers for the first time complete English translations of three major Tibetan texts on visionary practice a Kalacakra treatise by Yumo Mikyo Dorj The Lamp Illuminating Emptiness a Nyingma Great Perfection work called The Tantra of the Blazing Lamps and a B n Great Perfection work called Advice on the Six Lamps along with a detailed commentary on this by Drugom Gyalwa Yungdrung Art of Mindful Relaxation Ed Shapiro,2018-08-15 This expert guide takes a radically different approach to coping with stress Its in depth method of achieving relaxation leads to a natural state of ease helping readers to unlock their true potential The Resonance of Allah M.
