A History Of The World In 100 Objects:

A History of the World in 100 Objects Neil MacGregor, 2011 This book takes a dramatically original approach to the history of humanity using objects which previous civilisations have left behind them often accidentally as prisms through which we can explore past worlds and the lives of the men and women who lived in them The book's range is enormous It begins with one of the earliest surviving objects made by human hands a chopping tool from the Olduvai gorge in Africa and ends with an object from the 21st century which represents the world we live in today Neil MacGregor's aim is not simply to describe these remarkable things but to show us their significance how a stone pillar tells us about a great Indian emperor preaching tolerance to his people how Spanish pieces of eight tell us about the beginning of a global currency or how an early Victorian tea set tells us about the impact of empire Each chapter immerses the reader in a past civilisation accompanied by an exceptionally well informed guide Seen through this lens history is a kaleidoscope shifting interconnected constantly surprising and shaping our world today in ways that most of us have never imagined An intellectual and visual feast it is one of the most engrossing and unusual history books published in years A History of the World in 100 Objects Mark Kilfoyle, 2010 A History of the World in 100 Objects Neil MacGregor, 2012-07-31 Neil MacGregor's A History of the World in 100 Objects takes a bold original approach to human history exploring past civilizations through the objects that defined them Encompassing a grand sweep of human history A History of the World in 100 Objects begins with one of the earliest surviving objects made by human hands a chopping tool from the Olduvai gorge in Africa and ends with objects which characterise the world we live in today Seen through MacGregor's eyes history is a kaleidoscope shifting interconnected constantly surprising and shaping our world today in ways that most of us have never imagined A stone pillar tells us about a great Indian emperor preaching tolerance to his people Spanish pieces of eight tell us about the beginning of a global currency and an early Victorian tea set speaks to us about the impact of empire An intellectual and visual feast this is one of the most engrossing and unusual history books published in years Brilliant engagingly written deeply researched Mary Beard Guardian A triumph hugely popular and rightly lauded as one of the most effective and intellectually ambitious initiatives in the making of public history for many decades Sunday Telegraph Highly intelligent delightfully written and utterly absorbing Timothy Clifford Spectator This is a story book vivid and witty shining with insights connections shocks and delights Gillian Reynolds Daily Telegraph A History of Sport in Europe in 100 Objects Daphné Bolz, Michael Krüger, 2023-04-27 Modern sport originated in Europe During the age of Enlightenment gymnastics and athletics from Antiquity were rediscovered and changed into new cultural and educational forms which shaped both the body and the mind The industrialisation of Britain and Europe eventually introduced organisational patterns that gave sport not only a name but also a new structure This was a distinctive product of European civilisation which spread across the modern world The 100 objects that are collected here are both material objects and forms of communication which explore the transformation and diversity of sports games and physical education in Europe whether for training performing or as part of other forms of celebration or festivity This book is the first attempt to create a kaleidoscopic history of European sport through its rich material culture and emerged from a desire to develop transnational research in sports history 110 authors from 39 countries have participated in a genuinely pan European project introducing the reader to the fascinating range of people institutions and places which made up the world of modern European sport A History of the World in 100 Objects ,2018 My Life in 100 Objects Margaret Randall,2020-09-15 Traces the remarkable life of a feminist poet through the items and images that have have defined her experiences My Life in 100 Objects is a personal reflection on the events and moments that shaped the life and work of one extraordinary woman With a masterful poetic voice Margaret Randall uses talismanic objects and photographs as launching points for her nonlinear narrative Through each object Randall uncovers another part of herself starting in a museum in Amman Jordan and ending in the Latin American Studies Association in Boston Interwoven throughout are her most precious relationships her growth as an artist and her brave revolutionary spirit As Randall s adventures often coincide with important moments in history many of her objects provide a transcontinental glimpse into social upheavals and transitions She shares memories from her years in Cuba 1969 to 1980 and Nicaragua 1980 to 1984 as well as briefer periods in North Vietnam immediately preceding the end of the war in 1975 and Peru during the government of Velasco Alvarado In her introduction Randall states objects and places have always been alive to me Her history too is alive as much of a means to consider our own present as it is to glimpse her vibrant past A History of the World in 100 Objects ,2016 Peace Museums Peter van den Dungen,2024-12-31 This book is the first comprehensive study of the history nature and purposes of peace museums comprising twenty one essays by a leading authority in the field It presents a powerful argument for the need for this new kind of museum that informs and inspires visitors that a world of peace and nonviolence is both necessary and possible Whereas there are numerous museums about war and the armed forces museums about peacemaking and peacemakers are rare indeed the very concept of peace museums is still largely unknown This is a reflection of the traditional writing and teaching of history which is dominated by narratives of war and warriors with little or no attention being paid to the history of efforts to prevent and abolish war Peace museums are ideal instruments to bring the long fascinating and vitally important history of peace to life for a large public Among the essays included are histories of two forgotten and unknown yet heroic efforts to prevent World War I and then World War II through museums that educated and alerted visitors about the disasters ahead if war was not avoided and ways to steer a different course following the catastrophe that was the Great War At a time when a barbaric war in Europe continuing wars in Africa and ominous threats of war in Asia are raising the specter of nuclear war and World War III the need for anti nuclear bomb and anti war museums is greater than ever Such museums are essential for the development of a global culture of peace and nonviolence The book provides inspiration and hope for everyone interested in efforts to overcome an existential threat to civilization that is wholly man made Object Studies Cyrus Mulready, 2023-03-06 Object Studies Introductions to Material Culture is a textbook that introduces students to an interdisciplinary approach to material cultural study This text helps reveal how everyday objects from pens and coffee cups to our most cherished keepsakes help define our collective histories and personal narratives Object Studies is organized around accessible and engaging chapters on objects with model essays that present original projects designed to engage students with a series of concepts and research activities Each will demonstrate a key methodology tied to specific learning outcomes but all chapters will be intertwined in their attention to the project of developing the core skills of object studies careful viewing writing detailed descriptions setting out and testing research hypotheses and telling stories through material artifacts Aimed towards undergraduate students taking courses in material culture as well as postgraduate students embarking on independent research projects these chapter studies are practically oriented and demonstrate research projects that can be undertaken either in a course or even through personal study Chapters in Object Studies conclude with research questions suggestions on methodology and a discursive bibliography designed to help students pursue their own projects based on these examples Retailing and the Language of Goods, 1550-1820 Nancy Cox, 2016-03-03 In this book the author explores the various meanings assigned to goods sold retail from 1550 to 1820 and how their labels were understood The first half of the book focuses on these labels and on mercantile language more broadly how it was used in trade and how lexicographers and others approached what for them were new vocabularies In the second half the author turns to the goods themselves and their relationships with terms such as luxury choice and love terms that were used as descriptors in marketing goods The language of objects is a subject of ongoing interest and the study of consumables opens up new ways of looking at the everyday language of the early modern period as well as the experiences of trade and consumption for both merchant and consumer Work, Sex and Power Willie Thompson, 2015-02-20 This is the history of the world from the origins of the Cosmos to the present day seen through three major narratives work sex and power the forces that have done more than any other to shape the world as we see it now It expertly explores the foundations of our developing society by showing how these grand themes have recurred throughout the various phases of global history From communities of Palaeolithic hunter gatherers through feudalism and onto the capitalistic machine civilisation of recent centuries Willie Thompson takes us on a journey that is fundamentally opposed to mainstream histories which concentrate on monarchs politicians and military commanders At the centre of this book lies the interaction between humans and their environment By exploring history in this way it reveals a simple yet powerful materialist understanding of how we got to where we are today and opens a door to a different reading of our world Year Zero Christmas One Decio Martins de Medeiros, Carlos Fernando Carvalho de Castro, 2024-07-14 The book satisfies some curiosities about our calendar and some events that marked the beginning of year counting Does our calendar known as the Gregorian calendar have a year zero In December of year zero how old was Christ And had Herod already died before year zero as some historians claim How can we prove that our calendar is correct The book confirms the validity of the current calendar based on an unprecedented chronological research conducted in 2016 when it was possible to demonstrate synchronicity with 6 other events including 1 annual 2 specific and 3 millennial ones astronomical in March historical in 70 AD biblical in 2 BC Christian holidays in June and December and the Jewish circumcision ceremony The narrative is fictional but the chronological research is real The narrative tells in a light and enjoyable manner the adventure of Aline Enrico and Julia high school students who with the help of their mentor Gaspen successfully complete their mission to present the results of their research at the end of the school year Their research proves that at the end of year zero of the current calendar Christ was one year old They had crucial support from researcher João Carlos who paved the way

Museum Transformations Annie E. Coombes, Ruth B. Phillips, 2020-04-06 MUSEUM TRANSFORMATIONS DECOLONIZATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION Edited By ANNIE E COOMBES AND RUTH B PHILLIPS Museum Transformations Decolonization and Democratization addresses contemporary approaches to decolonization greater democratization and revisionist narratives in museum exhibition and program development around the world The text explores how museums of art history and ethnography responded to deconstructive critiques from activists and poststructuralist and postcolonial theorists and provided models for change to other types of museums and heritage sites The volume's first set of essays discuss the role of the museum in the narration of difficult histories and how altering the social attitudes and political structures that enable oppression requires the recognition of past histories of political and racial oppression and colonization in museums Subsequent essays consider the museum's new roles in social action and discuss experimental projects that work to change power dynamics within institutions and leverage digital technology and new media

Curating and the Legacies of Colonialism in Contemporary Iberia Carlos Garrido Castellano, Bruno Leitão, 2022-06 This book provides the first systematic genealogy of postcolonial and decolonial practices emerging from Iberian art spaces The title redefines Iberian Studies through a decolonial lens It expands current debates on curating and contemporary art by exploring how cultural programming has engaged with the legacies and continuities of colonialism in contemporary European societies

Art and Soul: Rudolf Steiner, Interdisciplinary Art and Education Victoria de Rijke, 2019-10-11 This book brings together Steiner's philosophical biodynamic and cultural contributions to education where spirit and soul are the creative elements in human evolution His thought is applied to selected examples of innovative artistic practice and pedagogy of the present This volume is intended for researchers in the arts and education with an interest in Rudolf Steiner's huge influence on educational thought and policy This is an urgent point in time to reflect on the role of arts in education and what it might mean for our souls An accessible yet scholarly study of interdisciplinarity imagination and creativity is of critical widespread interest now when arts education in many countries is threatened with near extinction

Ethnographic Experiments with Artists, Designers and Boundary Objects Francisco Martínez, 2021-11-01 Ethnographic Experiments with Artists Designers and

Boundary Objects is a lively investigation into anthropological practice Richly illustrated it invites the reader to reflect on the skills of collaboration and experimentation in fieldwork and in gallery curation thereby expanding our modes of knowledge production At the heart of this study are the possibilities for transdisciplinary collaborations the opportunity to use exhibitions as research devices and the role of experimentation in the exhibition process Francisco Martinez increases our understanding of the relationship between contemporary art design and anthropology imagining creative ways to engage with the contemporary world and developing research infrastructures across disciplines He opens up a vast field of methodological explorations providing a language to reconsider ethnography and objecthood while producing knowledge with people of different backgrounds

The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives
