Susannah Lipscomb visits over fifty Tudor places from the famous palace at Hampton Court where dangerous court intrigue was rife to less well known houses such as Anne Boleyn's childhood home at Hever Castle or Tutbury Castle where Mary Queen of Scots was imprisoned. In the corridors of power and the courtyards of country houses we meet the passionate but tragic Kateryn Parr, Henry VIII's last wife, Lady Jane Grey, the nine day queen, and hear how Sir Walter Raleigh planned his trip to the New World. Through the places that defined them, this lively and engaging book reveals the rich history of the Tudors and paints a vivid and captivating picture of what it would have been like to live in Tudor England. The Spectator, 2011

Bryant & May's Peculiar London Christopher Fowler, 2022-07-14. As the nation's oldest serving detectives, we know more about London than almost anyone. After all, we've been walking its streets and impulsively arresting its citizens for decades. Who better to take you through its less savoury side? We'll be chatting about odd buildings, odder characters, lost venues, forgotten disasters, confusing routes, dubious gossip, illicit pleasures, and hidden pubs. We'll be making all sorts of odd connections and showing you why it's almost impossible to separate fact from fiction in London. With the help of some of our more disreputable friends, each an argumentative and unreliable expert in his or her own dodgy field, we'll explain why some streets have genders, why only two Londoners got to meet Dracula, how a department store and a prison played tricks on your mind when a theatre got stranded in the past, how a building vanished in plain sight, what excited Charlotte Brontë about the city, and where the devils hide in London. We hope to capture something of the city's restless spirit by wilfully wandering off course, and it goes without saying that we'll bluff and bamboozle you along the way, but that's all part of the fun. History is what you remember, London is what you forget, and we've forgotten a lot. So please do join us on this magical mystery tour of our city. Who knows where we'll end up. MotorBoating, 1939-07
