A Manual For Cleaning Women Selected Stories:

A Manual for Cleaning Women Lucia Berlin, 2015 Berlin invites her reader into a rich itinerant life one of beauty pain laughter drink and surprising moments of grace In Mexico Chile and the American southwest in laundromats hospitals motels and bars she crafts miracles from the everyday with a voice that is irresistible Book Club Kit Lucia Berlin, 2016 A Manual for Cleaning Women Lucia Berlin, 2015-10-08 The New York Times bestseller This selection of 43 stories should by all rights see Lucia Berlin as lauded as Jean Rhys or Raymond Carver Independent Introduced by Lydia Davis Lucia Berlin's stories in A Manual for Cleaning Women make for one of the most remarkable unsung collections in twentieth century American fiction With extraordinary honesty and magnetism Lucia Berlin invites us into her rich itinerant life the drink and the mess and the pain and the beauty and the moments of surprise and of grace Her voice is uniquely witty anarchic and compassionate With Lucia Berlin we are very far away from the parlours of Boston and New York and quite far away too from the fiction of manners unless we are speaking of very bad manners The writer Lucia Berlin most puts me in mind of is the late Richard Yates LRB 1999 Candeğer Furtun Selen Ansen, Süreyya Evren, 2022-02-01 From the 1960s onwards Candeğer Furtun has produced ceramic works informed by problematics relating to life philosophy history society and politics featuring an original approach in terms of both form and material Published on the occasion of the artist's first retrospective exhibition 16 09 2021 17 04 2022 held at Arter this book provides a visual and conceptual record of Furtun's production throughout the years while granting visibility to the pioneering contributions she made to the art of ceramics as well as the multiple facets of her artistic practice sustained by an unmediated relationship with the earth Opening with a curatorial introductory text whereby Selen Ansen broaches the artist's work under the aegis of the three year long preparation process of the exhibition along the concept of bark the book features in addition to an extensive conversation with the artist by Hanife İmez which sheds light on the experiences that shaped both Furtun's life and her artistic journey a text written by Freya Koral for Furtun in 1994 which is presented to the reader for the very first time in this publication While a text written by author Latife Tekin specifically for this occasion is followed by an art historical exploration by Deniz Artun ceramic artists Christie Brown Phoebe Cummings Sakine İl and Yasemin Zcan also provide a written account of their encounters with Furtun's work Poet Francis Ponge's Unfinished Ode to Mud texts by Melike Abas Yanık Kurti Ayda Arel Gottfried Borrmann and Seyhun Topuz focusing on various periods and layers of Furtun's production as well as archival photographs reflecting the artist's educational experiences seminal in her ceramic journey past exhibitions and production processes in her studio help further broaden the scope of this monography Designed by Emre Kınolu the book also features exhibition and reproduction photographs by Hadiye Cangık and flufoto Bar Aras and Elif Akralar Kinship as Fiction Anindita Majumdar, Yoko Taguchi, 2024-10-25 Bringing together emerging ethnographies on kinship in South Asia this book explores the idea of kinship as fiction in intimate relationships Fictions and fictive kinship within anthropology are contested ideas Increasingly research suggests the idea of intimate relationships has to extend beyond the biological assumption of kinship relations The idea of fiction is also not free from the biological imagination or the persistent dichotomy of nature culture nurture nature This edited volume resurrects the idea of fiction and fictive ness to understand how intimate relationships may use these particular labels translate into practices or create an experiential understanding around relationships The chapters in this book reengage the idea of fiction by exploring the ambiguity within household relationships the process of making and engaging with a craft and skill and the intricacies of making children through IVF and third party involvement They challenge societal norms of marriage and being married by reframing shared substances and the relationality they carry and by remembering deceased ties through acts of resurrection Through vivid illustrations of life and living in South Asia each chapter contributes to an understanding of how fiction and reality are mutually creating each other This book will be beneficial to students academics and scholars of anthropology particularly those interested in kinship and the sociology of the family The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary South Asia

The Pineapple from Domestication to Commodification Victoria Avery, Melissa Calaresu, 2025-10-15 The pineapple s discovery by European colonisers in the late fifteenth century and its remarkable global trajectory from an early modern object of rarity desire and horticultural innovation to a cheap canned consumable and fair trade logo today is a story of modern globalisation The Pineapple from Domestication to Commodification is a wide ranging interdisciplinary volume intended to provoke timely debate and generate radical rethinking of an overly familiar fruit with associations from luxury to kitsch It deliberately problematizes the pineapple by investigating understudied tensions between its representational power and the historical and political contexts of its worldwide production and consumption This connects the global and local at the heart of contemporary debates about the nature and origins of our food It will have cross disciplinary appeal for scholars of politics economics history plant sciences food and material culture as well as for broader audiences interested in food gardening the environment and visual arts

Love, Loosha Lucia Berlin, Kenward Elmslie, 2022-11-01 At the time of her death in 2004 Lucia Berlin was known as a brilliant writer of short stories beloved by other writers but never achieving wide readership or acclaim That changed in 2015 with the publication of A Manual for Cleaning Women a collection of some of her best work Almost overnight Lucia Berlin became an international bestseller Love Loosha is the extraordinary collection of letters between Lucia Berlin and her dear friend the poet and Broadway lyricist Kenward Elmslie Written between 1994 and 2004 their correspondence reveals the lives work and literary obsessions of two great American writers Berlin and Elmslie discuss publishing and social trends political correctness and offending others and being offended They gossip They dish They entertain Love Loosha is an intimate conversation between two friends one in which we are invited to participate and one that will give fans of Lucia Berlin and Kenward Elmslie much pleasure and fresh insight into their lives and work

The Writer's Portable Mentor Priscilla Long, 2018-09-15 Designed to mentor writers at all levels from beginning to quite advanced

The Writer's Portable Mentor offers a wealth of insight and crafting models from the author's twenty-plus years of teaching and creative thought. The book provides tools for structuring a book, story, or essay. It trains writers in observation and in developing a poet's ear for sound in prose. It scrutinizes the sentence strategies of the masters and offers advice on how to publish. This second edition is updated to account for changes in the publishing industry and provides hundreds of new craft models to inspire, guide, and develop every writer's work.

Handbook of the American Short Story Erik Redling, Oliver Scheiding, 2022-01-19 The American short story has always been characterized by exciting aesthetic innovations and an immense range of topics. This handbook offers students and researchers a comprehensive introduction to the multifaceted genre with a special focus on recent developments due to the rise of new media. Part I provides systematic overviews of significant contexts ranging from historical political backgrounds, short story theories developed by writers, print and digital culture to current theoretical approaches and canon formation. Part II consists of 35 paired readings of representative short stories by eminent authors charting major steps in the evolution of the American short story from its beginnings as an art form in the early nineteenth century up to the digital age. The handbook examines historically, methodologically, and theoretically the coming together of the enduring narrative practice of compression and concision in American literature. It offers fresh and original readings relevant to studying the American short story and shows how the genre performs American culture.

Thinking Design Through Literature Susan Yelavich, 2019-08-28 This book deploys literature to explore the social lives of objects and places. The first book of its kind, it embraces things as diverse as escalators, coins, skyscrapers, pottery, radios, and robots and encompasses places as various as home, country, cities, streets, and parks. Here, fiction, poetry, and literary non-fiction are mined for stories of design, which are paired with images of contemporary architecture and design. Through the work of authors such as Carson, A. J. A. Nicholson, Baker, Lydia Davis, Orhan Pamuk, and Virginia Woolf, this book shows the enormous influence that places and things exert in the world.

Where I Live Now Lucia Berlin, 2017-04-01 The New York Times bestselling author of So Long contemplates the human condition in this short story collection for fans of Grace Paley, Alice Munro. The elusive nature of happiness is a compelling theme in Where I Live Now. The survivors in these stories, many of them society's marginal or excluded people fighting alcohol or drug addiction, bearing emotional scars, recognize it all too well. They mourn the lost dreams of youth, the roads not taken. They suffer the damage life inflicts: the ache of loneliness, the pain of separation, the fear of death. Set mainly in Los Angeles, Lucia Berlin's gritty working-class stories bridge the gap between the Americas' rich and poor, North and South, Anglo and Hispanic. While her style has been compared to Raymond Carver's, and her dream and drink-addicted characters to Richard Yates's, her fictional territory and fatalistic humor are hers alone. Praise for Where I Live Now: Berlin's literary model is Chekhov, but there are extra-literary models too, including the extended jazz solo with its surges, convolutions, and asides. This is writing of a very high order. August Kleinzahler, London Review of Books. This remarkable collection occasionally put me in mind of Annie Proulx's Accordion.
