Henry James in Contemporary Fiction Bethany Layne, 2020-03-11 This book explores the extraordinary proliferation of novels based on Henry James s life and works published between 2001 and 2016 the centenary of his death Part One concentrates on biofictions about James by David Lodge and Colm T ib n and those written from the perspective of the key female figures in his life Part Two explores appropriations of The Portrait of a Lady The Turn of the Screw and The Ambassadors The book articulates the developments in biographical and adaptive writing that enabled millennial writers to engage so explicitly with James locates the sources of his appeal and explores the different forms of engagement taken Layne analyses how these manifestations of James's legacy might function differently for knowing versus unknowing readers and how they might perform the role of literary criticism Overarching themes include ideas of queering the concern with seeking redress and the frustrated guest for origin authenticity or the real thing Literature in Context Ágnes Zsófia Kovács, 2010 Metabiography Caitríona Ní Dhúill,2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre

The Legacies of Modernism David James, 2011-10-20 An engagement with the continued importance of modernism is vital for building a nuanced account of the development of the novel after 1945 Bringing together internationally distinguished scholars of twentieth and twenty first century literature these essays reveal how the most innovative writers working today draw on the legacies of modernist literature Dynamics of influence and adaptation are traced in dialogues between authors from across the twentieth century Lawrence and A S Byatt Woolf and J M Coetzee Forster and Zadie Smith The book sets out new critical and disciplinary foundations for rethinking the very terms we use to map the novel s progression and renewal enhancing our understanding not only of what modernism was but also what it might still become With its global reach The Legacies of Modernism will appeal to scholars working not only in the new modernist studies but also in postcolonial studies and comparative literature Ageing Masculinities in Irish Literature and Visual Culture Michaela Schrage-Früh, Tony Tracy, 2022-07-14 This book engages with ageing masculinities in Irish literature and visual culture including fiction drama poetry painting and documentary Exploring the shifting representations of older men from the early twentieth century to the present the contributors analyse how a broad range of literary and visual texts construct reinscribe or challenge perceptions of older age In doing so they trace a shift from depictions of authority figures often symbolising patriarchal dominance and oppression to more nuanced complex and heterogeneous explorations of older men s embodied subjectivities and vulnerabilities Exploring artists and writers such as Se n Keating I M Synge Teresa Deevy Marina Carr Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Derek Mahon Kate O Brien John Banville Colm T ib n Bernard MacLaverty Mike McCormack Anne Griffin and Claire Keegan the chapters in this book attend to the symbolic as well as social significance of older men in Irish cultural expression New Ways to Kill Your Mother Colm Toibin, 2012 In his essay on Tennessee Williams the author reveals an artist profoundly tormented by his sister's mental illness Through the relationship between W B Yeats and his father he examines a world of family relations and in Roddy Doyle's writing on his parents illuminates an Ireland reinvented From John Cheever's journals he makes fresh this darkly comic misanthrope and his intimates Educating an intellectual woman Cheever remarked is like letting a rattlesnake into the house In pieces that range from the importance of aunts and the death of parents in the English nineteenth century novel to the relationship between fathers and sons in the writing of James Baldwin and Barack Obama the author illuminates the intimate connections between writers and their families but also articulates the great joy of reading their work Fascination of Queer Stefano Ramello, 2020-05-06 Not Now, Voyager Lynne Sharon Schwartz, 2010-04-13 Ever since the explorations of Marco Polo and the travels of Montaigne a lively dialogue has persisted about the pros and cons of travel Lynne Sharon Schwartz joins this dialogue with a memoir that raises both serious and amusing questions about travel using her own experiences as vivid illustrations Not Now Voyager takes us on a voyage of self discovery as the author traces how travel has shaped her sensibilities from childhood through adulthood She makes an adolescent visit to Miami Beach where she confronts the powerful sensation of not belonging she goes to Rome as a young woman and ponders the difference between ignorance and innocence she ventures to Jamaica and witnesses political and social unrest and she takes a family road trip to Montreal and watches her daughters come to startling realizations of their own Schwartz's personal history takes on new shapes and her feelings about travel change as she shows us who she started out as and who she has become Above all this memoir exemplifies a mode of travel in and of itself the mind on a journey or quest pausing here and there sometimes by design sometimes by serendipity lingering occasionally backtracking but always on the move Unpacking My Library Leah Price, 2006-03-31 As words and stories are increasingly disseminated through digital means the significance of the book as object whether pristine collectible or battered relic is growing as well Unpacking My Library Writers and Their Books spotlights the personal libraries of thirteen favorite novelists who share their collections with readers Stunning photographs provide full views of the libraries and close ups of individual volumes first editions worn textbooks pristine hardcovers and childhood companions In her introduction Leah Price muses on the history and future of the bookshelf asking what books can tell us about their owners and what readers can tell us about their collections Supplementing the photographs are Price's interviews with each author which probe the relation of writing to reading collecting and arranging books Each writer provides a list of top ten favorite titles offering unique personal histories along with suggestions for every bibliophile Unpacking My Library Writers and Their Books features the personal libraries of Alison Bechdel Stephen Carter Junot Diaz Rebecca Goldstein and Steven Pinker Lev Grossman and Sophie Gee Jonathan Lethem Claire Messud and James Wood Philip Pullman Gary Shteyngart and Edmund White Biography across the Digitized Globe, 2025-02-27 This volume is dedicated to Professor Hans Renders founder of the Biography Institute of the University of Groningen the Netherlands Throughout his academic career Renders witnessed a reflexive turn in historical research biographers became more open about the limitations of their sources and the subjective nature of their selection Over this same period however the availability of digital sources has increased exponentially which has profound implications for biographical research and the transnational framework used to approach the genre Through its thirteen thought provoking essays this work seeks to make an intervention in Biography Studies by bringing the well developed reflexive tradition to bear on the pressing challenge of proliferating digitized sources Frederic Raphael, 2017-09-26 A sharp often surprising view of the classical world by a major classics scholar at Cambridge and author of The Glittering Prizes This book is the culmination of more than sixty years of a writing life during which Frederic Raphael has returned again and again to the literature and landscape of the ancient world In his new book Raphael deploys his renowned wit and erudition to give us a vivid mosaic of the complexities and contradictions underlying Western civilization and its continuing influence upon contemporary society Tackling a broad range of topics from the presumed superiority of democracy to the momentum behind today s gay rights movement Raphael s often daringly heterodox view of the Greek and Roman world will provoke surprise and at the same time entertain readers He shows how the interplay of fiction and reality rhetorical aspiration and practical cunning are threaded through modern culture
