Critical Theory and the Authoritarian Personality Geoff M. Boucher, 2025-01-31 The worldwide resurgence of authoritarianism has sparked renewed interest in the Frankfurt School theory of the authoritarian personality not as a topic of academic debate but as an urgent political factor Critical Theory and the Authoritarian Personality brings Theodor Adorno's critique up to date in light of new forms of authoritarian politics recent kinds of authoritarian propaganda and current findings about authoritarian personalities Drawing on the work of Slavoj Žižek and the psychoanalysis of Jacques Lacan this is the first sustained application of psychoanalytic theory to the problem of the authoritarian personality since the classical work of the Frankfurt School It explores a pressing problem the resurgence of the radical Right and proposes new solutions grounded in the idea of an affective approach to authoritarian politics as something based on transgressive fantasies and political anxieties Throughout the book illustrates its theoretical claims with reference to new kinds of authoritarian literature which today forms an important part of right wing propaganda

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1995 Happiness Randy Alcorn, 2024-06 Christians are supposed to be happy In fact we are supposed to radiate joy peace and contentment that is so unmistakable and so attractive that others are naturally drawn to us because they want what we have And yet in today's culture the vast majority of Christians are perceived as angry judgmental people who don't seem to derive any joy from life whatsoever So why aren't we happy Unfortunately many Christians are taught early on that God doesn't want us to be happy he wants us to be holy In fact many Christians are laboring under the false notion that God himself is not happy But nothing could be further from the truth God does want us to be happy The Bible is filled with verses that prove that ours is a happy joy filled God who not only loves celebrations but also desperately wants his children to be happy Why else would He go to the lengths He did to ensure our eternal happiness in His presence We know that we will experience unimaginable joy and happiness in Heaven but that doesn't mean we can't also experience joy and happiness here on earth In Happiness noted theologian Randy Alcorn dispels centuries of misconceptions about happiness and provides indisputable proof that God not only wants us to be happy He commands it The most definitive study on the subject of happiness to date this book is a paradigm shifting wake up call for the church and Christians everywhere The Cambridge Companion to George
