The Stoning Of Soraya M By Freidoune Sahebjam:

The Stoning of Soraya M. Freidoune Sahebjam, 2011-04-27 Soraya M's husband Ghorban Ali couldn't afford to marry another woman. Rather than returning Soraya's dowry as custom required before taking a second wife, he plotted with four friends and a counterfeit mullah to dispose of her. Together they accused Soraya of adultery. Her only crime was cooking for a friend's widowed husband. Exhausted by a lifetime of abuse and hardship, Soraya said nothing and the makeshift tribunal took her silence as a confession of guilt. They sentenced her to death by stoning, a punishment prohibited by Islam but widely practiced. Day by day, sometimes minute by minute, Sahebjam deftly recounts these horrendous events, tracing Soraya's life with searing immediacy from her arranged marriage and the births of her children to her husband's increasing cruelty and her horrifying execution where, by tradition, her father, husband, and sons hurled the first stones. A stark look at the intersection between culture and justice, this is one woman's story, but it stands for the stories of thousands of women who suffered and continue to suffer the same fate. It is a story that must be told.

Summary of Freidoune Sahebjam's The Stoning of Soraya M. Everest Media, 2022-06-21T22:59:00Z Please note: This is a companion version, not the original book. Sample Book Insights 1. In 1951, Soraya was born in the village of Kupayeh, near the city of Kerman in southwestern Iran. She had come into the world on the Shah's wedding day and was named after his bride, Princess Soraya. 2. When Soraya was ten, her parents took her to the city to apprentice with the arbab, the wealthy landowner. The children who apprenticed there were given food and lodging but they received no salary. They worked fifteen hours a day and slept little. 3. When Soraya returned to Kupayeh, she was almost a young woman; she was 13, and it was decided that she should be given in marriage to Ghorban Ali, who was 20, in exchange for several head of cattle, a plot of land, and several rugs. 4. The village of Chador in Iran was the location of the wedding ceremony. The bride was prepared by her aunt who perfumed her and washed her completely. The bride remained silent throughout the night, and her husband spent the night with her.

With Intent to Maim: An Autobiographical Narrative Kalman Dubov,2020-10-06 This book describes my experiences being subjected to and living with abuse during my childhood and early adult years in the Lubavitch Chabad community in Brooklyn New York I discuss the effects this physical emotional and psychological abuse had on my development and life which resulted in my leaving this community and lifestyle When I grew up in this community the topic of abuse was either denied or spoken about in whispers Generally even if abuse of a child was known it was not reported to law enforcement and the child was not protected from further abuse The topic of reporting such crimes to the law enforcement authorities for eventual criminal prosecution is referred to as mosur a term of revilement Such a person regardless of the crime's committed is protected by the Jewish community and the victim is forced to face the abuse by himself herself without the benefit of communal embrace for resolution Moreover Jewish law excoriates a mosur informer by exclusion from normative communal membership These exclusions are embodied in codes of Jewish law which formalizes the process by vilifying the informer The victim thereby faces a double attack The first is by the predator and the second by the code of silence forced upon the victim

The primary focus of this book regards the physical attack I endured at the hands of my mother She was angered by my non diligence in religious study motivating her to try to break my arm I was eight years old at the time And she was following the actions of another mother who broke the arm of her son for the same perverse reason this attack was a life changing event It forced to identify my mother and others as persons who represented a great danger to me necessitating measures that resulted in distance and eventual examination of the fundamentals of this religious life and identity I describe the other Jewish family that similarly abused a child Similar to my own circumstance no investigation or prosecution was ever conducted I remain convinced other families from these ultra Orthodox Charedi Jewish communities experienced similar or worse violence but such violence was muted and not reported My father was aware of the attack but did not intervene I discuss the details of the abuse as well as its aftermath and the larger concatenates these events caused in my life I conclude my narrative by stating that these acts and especially community refusal to acknowledge and respond is shameful and indefensible A few persons reviewed this material prior to publication While I remain grateful for their comments and recommendations the publication reflects my own insights and I remain responsible for any errors or oversights

Adultery Deborah L. Rhode, 2016-03-14 Despite declining prohibitions on sexual relationships Americans are nearly unanimous in condemning marital infidelity Deborah Rhode explores why She exposes the harms that criminalizing adultery inflicts including civil lawsuits job termination and loss of child custody and makes a case for repealing laws against adultery and polygamy

The Root Causes of Terrorism Mahmoud Masaeli, Rico Sneller, 2017-01-06 Fifteen years after the tragic events of 9 11 bombs are still exploding and innocent people are being killed by terrorist groups in both western and Islamic societies Most of these sinisterly threatening events are motivated by religious claims or are taking place in religiously affected places Is religion the main cause of terrorism or does terrorism still arise because of leaders who brainwash and coach future terrorists so that they kill under the banner of religion The religious imagination seems to hold here an influential power in the creation of delusion to orient the bigot believers toward fulfilling their religious duty against those who are religious in a different way or are not religious at all Religion in this sense is tightly allied with political aspirations In spite of the religious justification of the act of killing enlightened religious leaders and religious minded people believe and argue that religion is a source of love and affection Therefore the sacred texts of religious tradition must be read from a humanist perspective because the ultimate message of religion is about the appreciation of the principle of humanity This is a growing attitude among many religious people today who believe that God is merciful and compassionate and never orders resentment violence and killing of innocent people In addition no true religious tradition appreciates self serving interpretations promoting violence against others If religion disregards love affection and compassion as its essence it drops into the dire vortex of ideological dogma as it is in the case for the Taliban ISIS Boko Haram and Al Shabab Therefore any interpretation that admits violence and killing would be a mere provincial reading of the religious texts agitated by purposeful intentions aimed at political goals This book investigates and addresses the root causes of terrorism from a religious studies perspective The themes analysed and discussed here mainly include a range of religious and philosophical issues such as religious violence in scriptural monotheism radical interpretations of religious texts militancy and sacrifice apocalypticism and terrorism and religious terrorism today The book brings together new approaches adopted by the authors to not only trace the causes of terrorism in various religious interpretations and realms but also reach a common definition of the main religious causes beyond diverse perspectives and advance solutions against religious inspired terrorism

How to Talk to a Borderline Joan Lachkar,2011-01-07 In How to Talk to a Borderline Joan Lachkar introduces Borderline Personality Disorder BPD and outlines the challenges and difficulties it presents to clinicians She expands current understanding of BPD by outlining eight different kinds of borderline personality disorders and how each of these requires specific communication techniques and methods Case examples are offered throughout the text and in some cases describe the kinds of partners borderlines attract This book offers new approaches to communicating working with and treating borderline personality disorders while integrating more contemporary treatment methods United in Hate Jamie Glazov, 2009 United in Hate analyzes the Left's contemporary romance with militant Islam as a continuation of the Left's love affair with communist totalitarianism in the twentieth century Just as the Left was drawn to the communist killing machines of Lenin Stalin Mao Pol Pot and Castro so too it is now attracted to radical Islam Both the radical Left and radical Islam possess a profound hatred for Western culture for a capitalist economic structure that recognizes individual achievement and for the Judeo Christian heritage of the United States Both seek to establish a new world order leftists in the form of a classless communist society and Islamists in the form of a caliphate ruled by Sharia law To achieve these goals both are willing to wipe the slate clean by means of limitless carnage with the ultimate goal of erecting their utopia upon the ruins of the system they have destroyed

Criticism and Compassion: The Ethics and Politics of Claudia Card Robin S. Dillon, Armen T. Marsoobian, 2018-04-30 Criticism and Compassion The Ethics and Politics of Claudia Card offers a unique perspective on the range of issues explored by Card during her distinguished career in philosophy Investigates her work as an early leader in the development of feminist philosophy challenging many preconceptions about the society's norms regarding gender marriage and motherhood Crossing many disciplinary boundaries her concept of social death has come to play a significant role in multidisciplinary field of genocide studies This volume combines many of Claudia Card's important essays with recently commissioned essays by leading philosophers whose work has been influenced by Card The full scope of Card's philosophy is presented here both in her own words and those of her critics and interpreters "Off the Straight Path" Elyse Semerdjian, 2008-12-08 The legal treatment of sexual behavior is a subject that receives little scholarly attention in the field of Middle East women's studies Important questions about the relationship between sexuality and the law and about the societies enforcing that relationship are rarely addressed in the current literature Elyse Semerdjian's Off the Straight Path takes a bold step toward filling that gap by offering a fascinating look at the historical progression of the treatment of illicit sex under Islamic law Semerdjian provides a comprehensive review of the concept of zina i.e sexual indiscretion by exploring the diverse interpretation of zina crime as presented in a variety of sources from the Qur'an and hadith to legal literature She then delves into the history of legal responses to zina within the specific community of Aleppo Syria Drawing on a wealth of shari'a court records Semerdjian provides a realistic view of Syrian society during the Ottoman period With vivid detail she describes specific women's lives and experiences as their cases are presented before the court Semerdjian argues that the actual treatment of zina crimes in the courts differs substantially from sentences prescribed by codified Islamic jurisprudence In contrast to the violent corporal punishments dictated in the Islamic legal code the courts often punished crimes of sexual indiscretion with nonviolent sentences such as removal from the community Employing exceptional insight Off the Straight Path presents a powerful challenge to the traditional view of Islamic law enabling a richer understanding of Islamic society
