

HEAVEN'S VERY SPECIAL CHILD

A meeting was held quite far from earth
"It's time again for another birth,"
Said the angels to the lord above,
"This special child will need much love."

His progress may seem very slow
Accomplishments he may not show.
And he'll require extra care
From the folks he meets way down there.

He may not run or laugh or play
His thoughts may seem quite far away.
In many ways, he won't adapt
And he'll be known as handicapped.

So let us be careful where he's sent
We want this life to be content.
Please Lord, find parents who,
Will do a special job for you.

They will not realize right away
The leading role they're asked to play.
But with this child sent from above
Comes stronger faith and richer love.

And soon they'll know the privilege given
In caring for this gift from heaven.
Their preccious charge, so meek and mild
Is Heaven's Very Special Child.

A Very Special Child:

A Very Special Journey of Grief, Grace, and Gratitude Julie Clark Ames, 2020-10-16 In No They Are Not Okay but It's Okay: A Very Special Journey of Grief, Grace, and Gratitude Raising Special Needs Kids Julie shares with readers the full experience of raising special needs children from birth through puberty with an emotional honesty that is both real and raw. Julie helps others understand the hardships and the joys. Her goal is for parents to know they are not alone in their personal journeys or in the roller coaster of blame, doubt, and frustration they feel when they are struggling to understand why their child isn't perfect. Emotional acceptance does come, but that doesn't mean the struggles that fill daily life get easier. Parenting under the best of circumstances is hard; parenting children with special needs requires an entirely different set of skills, and patience is the most important and the easiest to forget when bad days come. This book is more than a memoir; it is a story that provides guidance, hope, and education to parents and professionals who have or work with special needs children. Since her daughter's diagnosis, Julie has become very proactive within the schools to help create the best possible environment for all special needs children in the community. Because of her involvement with the schools' extensive experiences, both good and bad, with the medical community and an unfortunate encounter with social services, Julie can give readers the guidance they need to navigate their own way through the educational, medical, and legal waters that special needs families find themselves drowning in. Julie's knowledge and experience is a lifeline to other moms and dads facing the same challenges. Every parent has to know how to be their own child's strongest advocate. They need to know what questions to ask, when to demand answers, and when to walk away from advice they don't trust. This book will provide these tools. Julie's story is about more than a mother and two challenged daughters. It is about more than autism. This story is about love, faith, and family. It is about learning to accept something that cannot be changed and to embrace the gifts we are given despite perceived imperfections. We cry. We adapt. We reflect. We rejoice. Most importantly, we continue to live, love, and grow together every day. It is indeed a special journey.

A Sensory Curriculum for Very Special People Flo Longhorn, 2011-09-12 This uniquely valuable book arose from the author's work with profoundly disabled children in a special needs school. The sensory impairment of the children meant that they were unable to learn from traditional teaching methods as they were unaware of the world around them. Our very first awareness of our surroundings and ourselves comes through our senses of smell, touch, taste, sight, hearing, and movement, and without them we are isolated. To benefit from the normal school curriculum, children with sensory impairment must learn to develop each of their senses individually and in combination, a process the non-handicapped child goes through spontaneously and unconsciously. This book outlines a curriculum for each of the senses in turn, using stimuli that can be varied to suit the age of the child or young person. Demonstrating how these can be combined to create a multisensory experience and how this newly developed awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum. This book was developed from the author's work with profoundly disabled children; their sensory impairment meant that traditional teaching was unsuccessful as they were unaware of the world around them Flo Longhorn sets out a curriculum for developing each sense both individually and in combination using stimuli that can be varied according to the age of the child This book shows how these techniques can be amalgamated to create multisensory experiences and how this new awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum Designed for teachers and parents of children with profound multiple disabilities combined with sensory and physical impairment this has become a classic work Parent Grief Paul C.

Rosenblatt,2016-02-04 Explores what couple and individual stories say and do not say about the child s dying and death and about parent grief The author uses narratives as his tool for the introduction and exploration of the many facets of parental grief Red Letter Days Jeanne L.
