Mother's Way of Dying Well Dianne Porter, 2014-01-14 The unexpected collection of my parent's ashes from the crematorium opened the door to a new adventure in dealing my parent's death that I personally found very liberating for my soul It marked the beginning of a personal pilgrimage of faith I had no intention of taking I thought I was dealing with my parent's remains As time passed I realized I had no choice but to take this path this journey was the only way forward for me Surprisingly for me it actually strengthened my faith in God and his ways as taught in the Christian faith and it's hard to describe how Once I committed myself to the task I had to take action I plunged my hands into their ashes that first day even though for me it was like plunging my hands into my parent's dead bodies It was irksome and revolting to me the first time
