The Space Between Us By Thrity Umrigar:

The Space between Us Ryan D. Enos, 2017-10-02 The Space between Us brings the connection between geography psychology and politics to life By going into the neighborhoods of real cities Enos shows how our perceptions of racial ethnic and religious groups are intuitively shaped by where these groups live and interact daily Through the lens of numerous examples across the globe and drawing on a compelling combination of research techniques including field and laboratory experiments big data analysis and small scale interactions this timely book provides a new understanding of how geography shapes politics and how members of groups think about each other Enos analysis is punctuated with personal accounts from the field His rigorous research unfolds in accessible writing that will appeal to specialists and non specialists alike illuminating the profound effects of social geography on how we relate to think about and politically interact across groups in the fabric of our daily lives

The Space Between Us Thrity Umrigar, 2009-10-13 This is a story intimately and compassionately told against the sensuous background of everyday life in Bombay Washington Post Book World Bracingly honest New York Times Book Review The author of Bombay Time If Today Be Sweet and The Weight of Heaven Thrity Umrigar is as adept and compelling in The Space Between Us vividly capturing the social struggles of modern India in a luminous addictively readable novel of honor tradition class gender and family A portrayal of two women discovering an emotional rapport as they struggle against the confines of a rigid caste system Umrigar's captivating second novel echoes the timeless intensity of Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God Betty Smith's A Tree Grows in Brooklyn and Barbara Kingsolver's The Poisonwood Bible a quintessential triumph of modern literary fiction

Postcolonial Servitude Ambreen Hai, 2024 Domestic servitude is a widespread phenomenon in countries like India Pakistan Sri Lanka where even lower middle class homes rely on domestic workers mostly women and children While social scientists have begun to study this unregulated and exploitative informal sector literary critics have not paid attention to servants in South Asian literatures or examined their political or literary significance Postcolonial Servitude argues that a new generation of writers has begun to rethink this culture of servitude and to devise new forms of writing designed to prompt change in normalized ways of seeing and being It is the first to offer a sustained exploration of servitude and servants in South Asian English literature from the early 20th century to the present

The Postcolonial City and Its Subjects Rashmi Varma, 2011-08-05 This book considers twentieth and twenty first century literary and cultural formations of the postcolonial city and the constitution of new subjects within it Varma offers a reading of both historical and contemporary debates on urbanism through the filter of postcolonial fictions and the cultural fields surrounding and containing them In particular she presents a representational history of London Nairobi and Bombay in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and engages three key theoretical frameworks the city within postcolonial theory and culture its troubled salience in the construction of postcolonial public spheres and identities from local rural ethnic tribal and regional to national cosmopolitan and transnational subjects and spaces postcolonial fictions as constituting a new world literary space and as a site of the articulation of contending narratives of urban space global culture and postcolonial development and postcolonial feminist citizenship as a universal political project challenging current neo liberal and post neo liberal contractions and eviscerations of public spaces and rights

Nadine Gordimer's Fiction Syeda Faiqa Mazhar, 2023-12-15 Nadine Gordimer's Fiction is a major study of the life and writings of Nadine Gordimer a towering figure in the literary and cultural life of South Africa in the late 20th and early 21st centuries recognised for her fiction through several prizes most notably the 1991 Nobel Prize for Literature It has the makings of a guide taking the reader through the complexities in Gordimer's life literature and society backed by academic research doctoral and postdoctoral and informed by Dr Mazhar's study visit to South Africa including a face to face interview with Gordimer The reader gets a rich picture mediated by the author's own intellectual journey from Pakistan the country of her birth and the United Kingdom Dr Mazhar maps the complexities of colonialism in South Africa and beyond in different forms most notably in the legislated discrimination based on race ethnicity Apartheid 1948 1994 Covering the literary writings and political activism of Gordimer both during and after Apartheid the book provides the reader with a detailed account of individual works of fiction and vistas of critical thought and action that serve as their source and backdrop Dr Mazhar draws on the cultural theories of Homi Bhabha especially on the notion of The Third Space a fictional space borderland between social and political polarisations which allows for reflection refinement and re action that is transformational and psychologically uplifting She demonstrates that Gordimer takes her characters through such spaces which allow for a transformational experience that leads to perspectives realisations that were missing as a result of constraints that were externally imposed by law and tradition and interiorised as a survival mode Dr Mazhar concludes that Gordimer gracefully articulates her vision for a world free of complexities which one must strive for Although the book presents the academic analysis of Gordimer's fiction and the memoir as separate parts there are organic connections between the two which link the social ethos political struggles varied ideological perspectives and ethnic and trans ethnic identities from which Gordimer draws her subjects and their lives and depicts them through appropriate narrative techniques Nadine Gordimer's Fiction is a welcome addition to books on author studies literary criticism and South African culture and society It offers excellent material for both academic and non academic readers The style of writing used in the book is clear and simple yet powerful This can help the reader to appreciate the enormous achievement of Gordimer which has established her as a major literary figure in South Africa and beyond Dr Balasubramanyam Chandramohan PhD Shef FHEA Senior Research Fellow Institute of Commonwealth Studies School of Advanced Study University of London

Everyday Transgressions Adelle Blackett, 2019-04-15 The book's breadth and grounding in labor law make it most accessible and useful to a professional audience but even nonspecialists and lay readers will appreciate Blackett's insights about law and domestic work and provocative issues such as social stratification and immigration. Choice Adelle Blackett tells the story behind the International Labour Organization's ILO Decent Work for Domestic Workers Convention No 189 and its accompanying Recommendation No 201 which in 2011 created the first comprehensive international standards to extend fundamental protections and rights to the millions of domestic workers laboring in other people's homes throughout the world. As the principal legal architect Blackett is able to take us behind the scenes to show us how Convention No 189 transgresses the everyday law of the household workplace to embrace domestic workers' human rights claim to be both workers like any other and workers like no other. In doing so she discusses the importance of understanding historical forms of invisibility, recognizes the influence of the domestic workers themselves and weaves in poignant experiences infusing the discussion of laws and standards with intimate examples and sophisticated analyses. Looking to the future she ponders how international institutions such as the ILO will address labor market informality alongside national and regional law reform. Regardless of what comes next Everyday Transgressions establishes that domestic workers' victory is a victory for the ILO and for all those who struggle for an inclusive transnational vision of labor law rooted in social justice.

The Space Between Us Thrity Umrigar, 2007-02-06 Captures the delicate balance of class and gender in contemporary India as witnessed through the lives of two women: Sera Dubash, an upper middle class housewife, and Bhima, an illiterate domestic worker hardened by a life of loss and despair.

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Cognitive Studies Jan Alber, Ralf Schneider, 2025-07-31 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Cognitive Studies offers a comprehensive survey of cognitive approaches to literature, introducing the influential theoretical tools and latest developments in this vigorously multi-disciplinary field with leading scholars illuminating the cognitive, affective, and bodily dimensions of literary reading. Comprised of three main sections, this Companion oversees the history of the field, core issues and topics, and the vital new debates of cognitive theory. This volume introduces readers to the many new tools and methodologies in the field, including the context of the first generation of cognitive literary studies, mental representations and information processing paradigms, critical debates and developments, including cognitive cultural studies, 4E cognition and literature, as well as empirical investigations of cognitive processes. Approaches to a variety of literary genres and media. This comprehensive Companion provides an important reference work for upper level students and researchers delving into the interdisciplinary approaches to literature and cognitive studies.

First Darling of the Morning Thrity Umrigar, 2008-10-21 First Darling of the Morning is the powerful and poignant memoir of bestselling author Thrity Umrigar tracing the arc of her Bombay childhood and adolescence from her earliest memories to her eventual departure for the United States at age twenty-one. It is an evocative, emotionally charged story of a young life steeped in paradox: of a middle class Parsi girl attending Catholic school in a predominantly Hindu city, of a guilt-ridden stranger in her own land, of an affluent child in a country mired in abysmal poverty. She reveals intimate secrets and offers an unflinching look at family issues once considered unspeakable as she interweaves two fascinating coming of age stories one of a small child and one of a nation Plain Dealing: Cleveland Journalists Tell Their Stories Dave Davis, Joan Mazzolini, 2018-08-21 Plain Dealing is a book of essays by 25 accomplished Cleveland area journalists It s a book of stories many never told before It s a first person account of journalism in Cleveland life in the newsroom the issues and events these journalists covered and the characters they worked with and met The stories begin in the 1950s and go up to 2013 covering the post World War II era through the days when Cleveland was a three daily newspaper city then two then one The book ends with the mass layoffs and resulting decline that ushered in the digital first age Freedom Inc.: Gendered

Capitalism in New Indian Literature and Culture Mukti Lakhi Mangharam, 2023-06-15 While globalization is often credited with the eradication of traditional constraints tied to gender and caste in reality the opening up of the Indian economy in the 1990s has led to a decline in freedom for many female Dalit and lower class Indians This book explores the contraction of what it means to be free in post liberalization India examining how global capitalism has exacerbated existing inequalities based on traditional femininities and masculinities while also creating new hierarchies Freedom Inc argues that post 1990s literature and culture frequently represents and reinforces the equation of free market capitalism with individual freedom within the new idea of India However many texts often also challenge this logic by pointing to more expansive horizons of autonomy for the gendered self Through readings of texts as diverse as Dalit women s life writing pop fiction realist novels self help regional film and Netflix TV shows Mangharam investigates how notions like free trade entrepreneurship and self help are experienced embodied and challenged by disadvantaged peoples and by women differently than men In the process Freedom Inc explores how different literary forms illuminate alternative and buried pathways to fuller freedoms Beyond Human Maryanne L. Leone, Shanna Lino, 2023-10-02

Chronicling sixteenth century Spain to the present day Beyond Human aims to decentre the human and acknowledge the material historicity of more than human nature The book explores key questions relating to ecological equity justice and responsibility within and beyond Spain in the Anthropocene Examining relations between Iberian cultural practices historical developments and ecological processes Maryanne L Leone Shanna Lino and the contributors to this volume reveal the structures that uphold and dismantle the non human human dichotomy and nature culture divide The book critiques works from the Golden Age to the twenty first century in a wide range of genres including comedia royal treatises agricultural reports paintings satirical essays horror fiction and film young adult and speculative literature poetry graphic novels and television series The authors contend that Spanish cultural studies must expose the material historicity that entangles today s ecological crises and ecosocial injustices with previous future and contemporary entities The book argues that this will require the simultaneous decentring of the human and of the Anthropocene as an ecocritical framework By standardizing ecosocial analysis and widening avenues for ecopedagogical approaches Beyond Human participates in the ecocentric transformation of Hispanic cultural studies

India Today International ,2006-04 Postcolonial Studies Pramod K. Nayar,2015-09-28 This new anthology brings together the most diverse and recent voices in postcolonial theory to emerge since 9 11 alongside classic texts in established areas of postcolonial studies Brings fresh insight and renewed political energy to established domains such as nation history literature and gender Engages with contemporary concerns such as globalization digital cultures neo colonialism and language debates Includes wide geographical coverage from Ireland and India to Israel and Palestine Provides uniquely broad coverage offering a full sense of the tradition including significant essays on science technology and development education and literacy digital cultures and transnationalism Edited by a distinguished postcolonial scholar this insightful volume serves scholars and students across multiple disciplines from literary and cultural studies to anthropology and digital studies Silent Hearts Gwen Florio,2019-10-22 For fans of A Thousand Splendid Suns a rich haunting immersive story of cultures at the crossroads Jamie Ford bestselling author of Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet that follows two women in Afghanistan an American aid worker and her local interpreter as they form an unexpected friendship despite their utterly different life experiences and the ever increasing violence in Kabul In 2001 Kabul is a place of possibility as people fling off years of repressive Taliban rule This hopeful chaos brings together American aid worker Liv Stoellner and Farida Basra an educated Pakistani woman still adjusting to her arranged marriage to Gul the son of an Afghan strongman whose family spent years of exile in Pakistan before returning to Kabul Both Liv and her husband take positions at an NGO that helps Afghan women recover from the Taliban years They see the move as a reboot Martin for his moribund academic career Liv for their marriage But for Farida and Gul the move to Kabul is fraught severing all ties with Farida s family and her former world and forcing Gul to confront a chapter in his life he d desperately tried to erase The two women brought together by Farida s work as an interpreter form a nascent friendship based on their growing mutual love for Afghanistan As the bond between Farida and Liv deepens war scarred Kabul acts in different ways upon them as well as their husbands Silent Hearts is highly recommended especially for fans of Khaled Hosseini Library Journal starred review India Today ,2006

Linking Global Trade and Human Rights Daniel Drache,Lesley A. Jacobs,2014-03-20 This book introduces the idea of policy space as an innovative way to reframe recent developments in global governance It brings together a wide ranging group of leading experts in international law trade human rights political economy international relations and public policy who have been asked to reflect on this important development in globalization City Fictions of the New India Alex Tickell,2025-04-24 How does Indian fiction imagine urban transformation India s cities were once maligned as places of economic stasis and deprivation but in the era of the so called New India 2000 present centres like Delhi and Mumbai have been recast as engines of economic growth and reshaped by prestige infrastructure Yet the provision of core infrastructures for all remains a major challenge for urban governance City Fictions is the first study of its kind to read anglophone Indian writing infrastructurally by taking account of the centrality of water utilities waste processing residential architecture and road rail and telephonic networks in contemporary representations of urban citizenship In a detailed historicized account of India s changing cities City Fictions analyses selected literary works in relation to key governmental and political discourses from early nationalist ideas of command economy infrastructure and mid century town planning to futuristic visions of the Heritage Cities Smart Cities and new urban satellite developments It also plots changing ideas about civic identity shaped by the rise of a consumerist middle class and the consolidation of a popular Hindu majoritarian politics In the process City Fictions develops an interdisciplinary literary critical approach that draws on eco criticism urbanism and new materialism Covering key fictions by Arundhati Roy Aravind Adiga Vikram Chandra Raj Kamal Jha and Githa Hariharan as well as literary journalism by Katherine Boo and Saumya Roy graphic fiction by Sarnath Banerjee and television drama by Richie Mehta this book shows how fiction discloses vital issues of collective rights equality and resourcing that are immanent in the infrastructure of India s cities
