Animal Death Of A Poacher:

Antony E. Green, 2015-10-19 A poacher operating in Northern Kenya out of Sudan tracks a lone bull elephant the biggest seen one in a generation The specific goal is killing it and removing his enormous tusks When the elephant turns the tables on the poacher and rampages through the poacher's camp killing his son a chain of events is unleashed The bloodlust slaughter of hundreds of animals the attempted murder of a conservationist the murder of his wife and the soldiers sent to rescue them is the beginning For fourteen years the poacher sought the elephant the Devil Beast and the conservationist sought the poacher And then comes the cyber expert who changes everything far more than he ever set out to do Crime Scene to Court Niamh NicDaeid, Peter C White, 2024-09-27 The captivating field of modern forensic science can be challenging to understand Written for those with little or no scientific knowledge this book covers the three main areas of an investigation where forensic science is practised at the scene of the crime in the forensic laboratory and in court The fifth edition of this popular book has been fully updated including new chapters and authors With practitioners once again providing these chapters readers are able to gain information on the forefront of current practices across the forensic science disciplines Ideal for anyone studying forensic science or law this book details how crime scene and forensic examinations are conducted in the UK courtroom procedures and the role of the expert witness It is an excellent source of information for anyone with a role in an investigation including the police and crime scene investigators Review of the 4th Edition This is an excellent book which I wholeheartedly recommend to anyone with an interest in forensic science from the experienced practitioner to the curious layman Dr Alan Greenwood Coventry University UK Animal Death Jay Johnston, Professor Fiona Probyn-Rapsey, 2020-03-01 Animal death is a complex uncomfortable depressing motivating and sensitive topic Crime Scene to Court Peter C White, 2020-08-28 The fascinating field of forensic science can be challenging to understand Written for non scientists or those with limited scientific knowledge this book covers the three main areas of an investigation where forensic science is practised at the scene of the crime in the forensic laboratory and at court The fourth edition of this popular book features a new chapter on identifying an individual including biometrics and a new chapter covering digital crime The book has been updated throughout keeping readers at the forefront of current practices across the forensic disciplines Ideal for anyone studying forensic science or law this book details how crime scene and forensic examinations are conducted in the United Kingdom courtroom procedures and the role of the expert witness It is an excellent source of information for anyone with a role in an investigation including the police and crime scene investigators Art Historical Perspectives on the Portrayal of Animal Death Roni Grén, 2024-04-22 This study concentrates on the discourses around animal death in arts and the ways they changed over time Chapter topics span from religious symbolism to natural history cabinets from hunting laws to animal rights from economic history to formalist views on art In other words the book asks why artists have represented animal death in visual culture maintaining that the practice has through the whole era been a crucial part of the understanding of our relation to the world and our identity as humans This is the first truly integrative book length examination of the depiction of dead animals in Western art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history animal studies and cultural history Lost Kingdom: Animal Death in the Anthropocene

Wendy A. Wiseman, Burak Kesgin, 2024-03-12 The authors in Lost Kingdom grapple with both the catastrophe of mass animal extinction in which the panoply of earthly life is in the accelerating process of disappearing and with the mass death of industrial animal agriculture Both forms of anthropogenic violence against animals cast the Anthropocene as an era of criminality and loss driven by boundless human exceptionalism forcing a reckoning with and an urgent reimagining of human animal relations Without the sleights of hand that would lump humanity into a singular Anthropos of the Anthropocene the authors recognize the differential nature of human impacts on animal life and the biosphere as a whole while affirming the complexity of animal worlds and their profound imbrications in human cultures societies and industries Confronting the reality of the Sixth Mass Extinction and mass animal death requires forms of narrativity that draw on traditional genres and disciplines while signaling a radical break with modern temporalities and norms Chapters in this volume reflect this challenge while embodying the interdisciplinary nature of inquiry into non human animality at the edge of the abyss historiography cultural anthropology post colonial studies literary criticism critical animal studies ethics religious studies Anthropocene studies and extinction studies entwine to illuminate what is arguably the greatest crisis for all creatures in the past 65 million years Forensic Osteoarchaeology: Unveiling Secrets From Bones Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-26
