Approaches To Teaching Defoe's Robinson Crusoe Approaches To Teaching World Literature:

Approaches to Teaching Coetzee's Disgrace and Other Works Laura Wright, Jane Poyner, Elleke Boehmer, 2014-01-01 The novels of the South African writer J M Coetzee won him global recognition and the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2003 His work offers substantial pedagogical richness and challenges Coetzee treats such themes as race aging gender animal rights power violence colonial history and accountability the silent or silenced other sympathy and forgiveness in an allusive and detached prose that avoids obvious answers or easy ethical reassurance Part 1 of this volume Materials identifies secondary materials including multimedia and Internet resources that will help instructors guide their students through the contextual and formal complexities of Coetzee's fiction In part 2 Approaches essays discuss how to teach works that are sometimes suspicious of teachers and teaching The essays aim to help instructors negotiate Coetzee's ironies and allegories in his treatment of human relationships in a changing South Africa and of the shifting connections between human beings and the biosphere

Teaching the Eighteenth Century Mary Ann Rooks, 2009-10-02 Inspired by the conversations of like minded professors interested in promoting eighteenth century literature through informed innovative teaching this collection began as a series of presentations at the South Central Society for Eighteenth Century Studies Conference Covering a range of texts and strategies from a genre based approach to early novels to an argument for student teacher collaboration engaging Shen Fu's Six Records of a Floating Life the collection aims to participate in larger conversations about the best practices of teaching eighteenth century texts in the undergraduate classroom With an eye toward energizing further pedagogical dialogue about this important period the authors share a wealth of experience and practical advice about the joys and pitfalls of teaching Western and non Western texts to students relatively unfamiliar with early modern literature The Cambridge Companion to 'Robinson Crusoe' John Richetti, 2018-04-26 Explores a major eighteenth century narrative and the power of the Crusoe figure beyond the pages of the original book Cultural Politics in Derek Walcott's Prose and Poetry Naglaa Saad M. Hassan, 2021-04-29 This book offers a new reading of the Caribbean Nobel Laureate Derek Walcott by not only focusing on his totally neglected essays but also introducing him as a postcolonial theoretician Probing into Walcott's writings the study singles out a set of concepts that parallel support and sometimes precedes most of the seminal views in postcolonial theory

Wedding theory to practice the book takes the reader on a scholarly trip whereby Walcott's theoretical views are applied on his poems Acts of Visitation María J. López, María Jesús López Sánchez-Vizcaíno, 2011 Preliminary Material Critical Appropriations and Hermeneutic Resistance Penetration Dusklands and In the Heart of the Country Resistance Waiting for the Barbarians Parasitism Life and Times of Michael K and Age of Iron Visitation Disgrace Secrecy Foe Un belonging Boyhood Youth and Summertime Intrusion The Master of Petersburg and Slow Man Fidelities Elizabeth Costello and Diary of a Bad Year Works Cited Index Local Natures, Global Responsibilities ,2010-01-01 In the New Literatures in English nature has long been a paramount issue the environmental devastation caused by colonialism has left its legacy with particularly disastrous consequences for the most vulnerable parts of the world At the same time social and cultural transformations have altered representations of nature in postcolonial cultures and literatures It is this shift of emphasis towards the ecological that is addressed by this volume A fast expanding field ecocriticism covers a wide range of theories and areas of interest particularly the relationship between literature and other texts and the environment Rather than adopting a rigid agenda the interpretations presented involve ecocritical perspectives that can be applied most fruitfully to literary and non literary texts Some are more general holistic approaches literature and other cultural forms are a living organism part of an intellectual ecosystem implemented and sustained by the interactions between the natural world both human and non human and its cultural representations Nature itself is a new interpretative category in line with other paradigms such as race class gender and identity A wide range of genres are covered from novels or films in which nature features as the main topic or protagonist to those with an ecocritical agenda as in dystopian literature Other concerns are nature as a cultural construct gendered natures and the city country dichotomy The texts treated challenge traditional Western dualisms human animal man nature woman man While such global phenomena as media old or new tourism and catastrophes permeate many of these texts there is also a dual focus on nature as the inexplicable elusive Other and the need for human agency and global responsibility The Eighteenth Century ,2004 Defoe's Writings and Manliness Stephen H. Gregg, 2016-05-13 Defoe's Writings and Manliness is a timely intervention in Defoe studies and in the study of masculinity in eighteenth century literature more generally Arguing that Defoe's writings insistently returned to the issues of manliness and its contrary effeminacy this book reveals how he drew upon a complex and diverse range of discourses through which masculinity was discussed in the period It is for this reason that this book crosses over and moves between modern paradigms for the analysis of eighteenth century masculinity to assess Defoe's men A combination of Defoe's clarity of vision a spirit of contrariness and a streak of moral didacticism resulted in an idiosyncratic and restless testing of the forces surrounding his period's ideas of manliness Defoe's men are men but they are never unproblematically so they display a contrariness which indicates that a failure of manliness is never very far away The Scriblerian and the Kit-Cats ,2004

Critical Companion to Jonathan Swift Paul J. DeGategno, R. Jay Stubblefield, 2014-05-14 Provides a comprehensive alphabetical reference to the life and work of Jonathan Swift

Robinson Crusoe After 300 Years Andreas K. E. Mueller, Glynis Ridley, 2021-04-16 This wide ranging collection brings together eleven scholars who suggest new and unfamiliar ways of thinking about the 1719 publications The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe and The Farther Adventures of Robinson Crusoe and who ask us to consider the enduring appeal of Crusoe more recognizable today than ever before

Teaching the Transatlantic Eighteenth Century Jennifer Frangos, Cristobal Silva, 2020-05-15 The central axiom of Teaching the Transatlantic Eighteenth Century is that the classroom functions as a site for research and collaboration not only as a space that reflects the research of individual teacher scholars but as a generative site to put ideas theories and methodologies into play Whereas transatlanticism has transformed research practices over the last decade the present collection is concerned with exploring what this transformation looks like in the classroom and how the classroom continues to shape research practices in the field Contributors address issues such as how the traffic in ideas people and commodities between Europe Africa and the New World are considered in classroom settings how inter and intra departmental collaborations reshape our approaches to teaching the eighteenth century how and why Transatlantic Studies can function as an introduction to college study and how it can help more advanced students to revise their notions of nation place and identity By now there are a number of anthologies available to help instructors determine what transatlantic material to teach but none that engage why and how to teach it or what teaching it can do for us our students and our profession Rather than simply providing reading lists or a collection of anecdotes about lesson plans Teaching the Transatlantic Eighteenth Century emphasizes theorizing critical engagements with interdisciplinary focus on and the transformative potential of Transatlantic Studies The primary market for Teaching the Transatlantic Eighteenth Century is university college and community college professors researchers and students with three specific subgroups 1 Teachers new to Transatlantic Studies Teachers coming to Transatlantic Studies for the first time will find both suggestions for materials or topical units to be integrated into existing courses e g a unit on transatlantic exchange that could figure in an eighteenth century literature survey course and ideas for developing new courses altogether 2 Teachers already teaching and or researching in the field of Transatlantic Studies Such scholars will find material to broaden their approach to familiar courses and subjects inter or cross disciplinary focus new texts successful clusterings of texts or themes or approaches and ideas for team teaching or linking courses with other faculty 3 Teachers involved in Transatlantic Studies programs especially those that focus on contemporary Post WWII context e g at the University of Dundee the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and the University of Birmingham Teaching the Transatlantic Eighteenth Century will provide historical context for current geopolitical studies perspective on the dynamics and historical and political forces occurring in the eighteenth century and contributing to 19th 20th and 21st century politics nations and paradigms Choice ,2005

Eighteenth-Century Thing Theory in a Global Context Ileana Baird, Christina Ionescu, 2016-04-29 Exploring Enlightenment attitudes toward things and their relation to human subjects this collection offers a geographically wide ranging perspective on what the eighteenth century looked like beyond British or British colonial borders To highlight trends fashions and cultural imports of truly global significance the contributors draw their case studies from Western Europe Russia Africa Latin America and Oceania This survey underscores the multifarious ways in which new theoretical approaches such as thing theory or material and visual culture studies revise our understanding of the people and objects that inhabit the phenomenological spaces of the eighteenth century Rather than focusing on a particular geographical area or on the global as a juxtaposition of regions with a distinctive cultural footprint this collection draws attention to the unforeseen relational maps drawn by things in their global peregrinations celebrating the logic of serendipity that transforms the object into something else when it is placed in a new locale

Didactics and the Modern Robinsonade Ian Kinane, 2019 Didactics and the Modern Robinsonade examines modern and contemporary Robinsonade texts written for young readers looking specifically at the ways in which later adaptations of the Robinson Crusoe story subvert both traditional narrative structures and particular ideological codes within the genre This collection redresses both the gender and geopolitical biases that have characterized most writings within the Robinsonade genre since its inception and includes chapters on little known works of fiction by female authors as well as works from outside the mainstream of Anglo American
