wanted to write a book that would de mystify the Phoenix program which was a controversial CIA assassination program during the Vietnam War I wrote Colby a letter and sent him my first book The Hotel Tacloban He was all for it 2 I was able to interview the people who created the Phoenix program and they loved having a journalist who was sympathetic to soldiers listen to them and understand what they were saying 3 I interviewed members of the CIA and they cooperated because Colby had sent me to them I never asked them if they had killed anyone or done any illegal things and they were confident I was de mystifying the program because they trusted me 4 There is a Douglas Valentine Collection at the National Security Archives at George Washington University which contains interviews with close to 100 CIA officers and military officers involved in the Phoenix program
