Cook, 2012-12-17 Wendy Cook s fascination with nutrition began during her war time childhood In the midst of deprivation and food rationing the rich abundance of her mother's organic garden made a profound impression. In her twenties married to Peter Cook she discovered the artistic and magical effects that food could have in creating a convivial atmosphere. During this period she cooked for many well known names including John Lennon, Paul McCartney, Dudley Moore, Peter Ustinov and Alan Bennett. But it was only later through her daughter falling ill that she came to study and understand deeper aspects of nutrition and in particular the effects of different foods on human health and consciousness. In Foodwise Wendy Cook presents a remarkable cornucopia of challenging ideas, advice and commentary informed by the seminal work of the scientist Rudolf Steiner. She begins the volume with biographical glimpses relating to her experience of food and how it has influenced her life. She then presents an extraordinary perspective on the journey of human evolution relating it to changes in consciousness and the consumption of different foods. In the following section she considers the importance of agricultural methods, the nature of the human being, the significance of grasses and grains, the mystery of human digestion and the question of vegetarianism. In the next section she analyses the building blocks of nutrition looking in some detail at the nutritional or otherwise qualities of many foodstuffs including carbohydrates, minerals, fats and oils, milk and dairy products, herbs and spices, salt and sweeteners, stimulants, legumes, the nightshade family, bread, water and dietary supplements. She ends with practical tips on cooking, planning menus, children's food, sharing meals and some mouth watering recipes. Foodwise presents a treasure of wisdom and experience for anybody with a concern for the content of the food they eat or a desire to discover more about the physical, soul and spiritual aspects of nutrition.

Salt & Silver Johannes Riffelmacher, 2016-04-26 Two surfers look for Latin America's best waves and best food. Part travelogue, part cookbook and all outstanding, an epic trip that's well worth taking. Publishers Weekly starred review. This book traces the journey of surfers Johannes Riffelmacher and Thomas Kosikowski as they make their way through Central and South America reporting on the best surfing locations, chronicling the stories of local surfers and restaurant owners and compiling recipes representative of each area. The narrative begins in Cuba with beautiful images of the city and the beaches as well as stories related to the Cuban surfing community and a discussion of popular Cuban dishes. Next is a tour of Mexico, first with street tacos, a trip through Mexican markets and a day spent in the urban graffiti scene of Guadalajara, then with Tostadas de Pulpo, Octopus Crackers, Shrimp and Portobello Burgers and a glimpse into life in the remote surfing town of San Pancho. The Mexican leg of the journey draws to a conclusion with seven meter waves, BBQ and Tajine in Rio Nexpa as well as a perfect righthander barreling of a point in scenic La Ticla. Then the two men make their way through Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Ecuador, Peru and finally Chile, exploring the beaches as well as the kitchens of each location. Interspersed throughout are more than ninety regional recipes, over 250 stunning photographs and a wide array of tips and stories ranging from social commentary to pointers on how to rent a Hamaquera in La Ticla for three dollars a night. The recipes are real, the photography is breathtaking and the tales of full immersion are inspiring. Nick McGregor
