Service-Learning in the Computer and Information Sciences Brian A. Nejme, 2012-06-07 Offering a truly global perspective this book serves as a road map for service learning partnerships between information science and nonprofit organizations. It introduces for the first time an essential framework for service learning in CIS addressing both the challenges and opportunities of this approach for all stakeholders involved: faculty, students, and community nonprofit organizations, NPOs both domestic and abroad. This volume outlines numerous examples of successful programs from around the world, presenting practical working models for implementing joint projects between NPOs and academia. Handbook of International Research in Mathematics Education Lyn D. English, David Kirshner, 2010-04-02 This book brings together mathematics education research that makes a difference in both theory and practice, research that anticipates problems and needed knowledge before they become impediments to progress.
