500 Teapots Suzanne J. E. Tourtillott, 2002 Contains color photographs and brief descriptions of five hundred contemporary teapots each including the title of the work and the name of its creator

500 Teapots Jim Lawton, 2013 The breathtaking 500 Teapots launched a bestselling series and it remains hugely popular Now comes a gorgeous follow up that documents the continued vitality of the form and of a new group of top international artists Ranging from classically beautiful to wonderfully witty to wildly imaginative and ultramodern these teapots will inspire ceramicists collectors crafters and enthusiasts

Eric Serritella: Walking with Softer Steps Jason Jacques Gallery Press, 2013 Serritella describes his new work for the exhibition Walking With Softer Steps at Jason Jacques Gallery as an evolution towards the quieter side of trees and form In my early works there was often an overabundance of branches and thus competing lines within the form In simplest terms the sculptures were often busy While they fit the context of the pieces at the time my philosophies about what I was trying to express evolved As my work matured I found that texturing the details was becoming second nature and I began focusing more attention on the form I realized that my goal was to get people to walk with softer steps on this planet It was this statement that resonated with me so strongly that I then set out to have it reflected in the work Serritella aims to create work that beautifully flows with rhythm and grace Hidden within the overall form and the incredible level of realistic detail there is a subtle quietness A flow A rhythm A peace
