Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert Hélène Cuvigny, 2021-08-21 A detailed archaeological study of life in Egypt's Eastern desert during the Roman period by a leading scholar Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert is a two volume set collecting Hélène Cuvigny's most important articles on Egypt's Eastern Desert during the Roman period The excavations she directed uncovered a wealth of material including tens of thousands of texts written on pottery fragments ostraca Some are administrative texts but many more are correspondence both official and private written by and to the people mostly but not all men who lived and worked in these remote and harsh environments supported by an elaborate network of defense administration and supply that tied the entire region together The contents of Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert have all been published earlier in peer reviewed venues but most appear here for the first time in English All of the contributions have been checked or translated by the editor and brought up to date with respect to bibliography and some have been significantly rewritten by the author in order to take account of the enormous amount of new material discovered since the original publications A full index makes this body of work far more accessible than it was before This book assembles into one collection thirty years of detailed study of this material conjuring in vivid detail the lived experience of those who inhabited these forts often through their own expressive language and the realia of desert geography military life sex religion quarry operations and imperial administration in the Roman world

Modern Architecture in Latin America Luis E. Carranza, Fernando Luiz Lara, 2015-01-05 Modern Architecture in Latin America Art Technology and Utopia is an introductory text on the issues polemics and works that represent the complex processes of political economic and cultural modernization in the twentieth century The number and types of projects varied greatly from country to country but as a whole the region produced a significant body of architecture that has never before been presented in a single volume in any language Modern Architecture in Latin America is the first comprehensive history of this important production Designed as a survey and focused on key examples paradigms arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this volume covers a myriad of countries historical social and political conditions and projects developments that range from small houses to urban plans to architectural movements The book is structured so that it can be read in a variety of ways as a historically developed narrative of modern architecture in Latin America as a country specific chronology or as a treatment of traditions centered on issues of art technology or utopia This structure allows readers to see the development of multiple and parallel branches historical strands of architecture and at times their interconnections across countries The authors provide a critical evaluation of the movements presented in relationship to their overall goals and architectural transformations
