Shadows Gray Shadows 1 By Melyssa Williams:

Shadows Gray Melyssa Williams, 2012-05-24 Sonnet Gray has problems and not just those of a typical 18 year old Her family is one of the Lost time travelers who have no power over their journeys Hopelessly old fashioned and yet more modern than most girls Sonnet speaks several languages and takes care of her motley crew back home by working in a coffee shop and playing guitar Over time the Lost leave behind those they love and pick up new characters along the way In twenty first century America Sonnet meets Emme a Lost young woman with a questionable line of work Luke a mysterious photographer and Israel a young doctor But no one can take the place of Sonnet s sister Rose who was left behind as a baby in the fifteenth century The ghost of her beckons from each time and place but what s real and what isn t Is Rose Gray trying to contact her before it s too late A ghost story with a sci fi Gothic romance twist Shadows Gray will keep you up at night wondering is the redemptive power of love enough to change history

Contested Territory Anna Jurkevics, 2025-04-01 Territorial sovereignty the unilateral right of states to control their land and borders is a fundamental ordering principle of contemporary politics influencing mobility settlement access to land and freedom It has long been assumed that democracies require such territorial mastery to achieve self determination without interference But what if territorial sovereignty only serves the interests of conquerors and already powerful states A sharper view of land politics in the modern era shows that territorial sovereignty has not only been established through conquest but enables and encourages further forms of land monopolization theft and colonization Contested Territory argues that the perplexities of sovereignty should prompt us to explore alternative non sovereign territorial form capable of realizing the promise of democracy in the global age To bring the potential of contested territory into focus Jurkevics explores themes central to this tradition land sharing local land autonomy legal pluralism federation cosmopolitan membership and anti colonialism and probes their compatibility with democratic politics The author then charts normative foundations for a cosmopolitan democratic theory of territory Through a critical engagement with the thought of Hannah Arendt both her conceptualization of world building and her rejection of sovereignty this volume argues that it is both possible and desirable to decouple democracy and territorial sovereignty and that by doing so we can better respond to the border defying crises of the global age

Driver,2022-11-22 Churches around the world have been confronted by shame and culpability in widespread revelations of child sexual abuse In this book Jeffrey Driver who has served the Australian Anglican Church as both a diocesan bishop and archbishop explores some of the underlying cultural and theological influences that may have predisposed the possibility of abuse as well as the defensiveness and cover ups that sometimes followed The first responses of most churches to the revelations of abuse were of necessity mostly structural and programmatic Recognizing the institutional temptation to do only enough to settle a crisis Jeffrey Driver calls for something different from the churches Drawing on the imagery of Holy Saturday he encourages a deeper journey of reflection and change for churches and church leaders to linger reflectively in the grey spaces of loss and shame long enough to hear the voice of God addressing them through the vulnerable and the wounded once more calling the church back to itself and into a deeper humbler relationship with the world it is called to serve Law and Religious Pluralism in Canada Richard J.
