Sita An Illustrated Retelling Of The Ramayana By Devdutt Pattanaik:

Sita Devdutt Pattanaik,2013-10-20 It is significant that the only character in Hindu mythology a king at that to be given the title of ekam patni vrata devoted to a single wife is associated with the most unjust act of abandoning her in the forest to protect family reputation This seems a deliberate souring of the narrative made even more complex by Ram s refusal to remarry despite the pressure on royalty to produce an heir The intention seems to be to provoke thought on notions of fidelity property and self image And so mythologist and illustrator Devdutt Pattanaik narrates the Ramayan drawing attention to the many oral visual and written retellings composed in different times by different poets each one trying to solve the puzzle in their own unique way This book approaches Ram by speculating on Sita her childhood with her father Janak who hosted sages mentioned in the Upanishads her stay in the forest with her husband who had to be a celibate ascetic while she was in the prime of her youth her interactions with the women of Lanka recipes she exchanged emotions they shared her connection with the earth her mother her role as the Goddess the untamed Kali as well as the demure Gauri in transforming the stoic prince of Ayodhya into God

VISION and RE-VISION Beena. G,2019-07-15 How different would mythological narratives be if women voiced their perspectives Amidst great wars superhuman heroes and their glorious victories is there a place for women Are great wars limited to armed conflicts between armies of men on the battlefields Do women have their own battles before after and beyond the confines of wars in the epic narratives of India Both the Ramayana and the Mahabharata have integrated into our social and cultural fabric and permeated into the myriad layers of life across genres and media It is a common practice to revisit mythological landscapes and realign the lenses to look at them afresh from different perspectives Re renderings often bring in multiple interpretations that are creative and critical adding variety and currency to the original narratives Vision and Re vision traces the lives of seven marginalized women from revisionist works against the central motif of war It follows the pursuits of Ganga Surpanakha Uruvi Sita Urmila Satyawati and Draupadi to understand their struggles and victories as women Analyzing textual spaces provided to women it explores their marginalized voices and their resistance patterns These in turn establish new narratives of subversion and reclaim the voices and identities of women from the margins A sound theoretical framework enables a comprehensive understanding of feminism and its distinct Indo centric identity Ancient Light to Modern Mind Ms. S.
