Pamuk's Istanbul Pallavi Narayan,2022-04-28 This book reconstructs Istanbul through the prism of Orhan Pamuk's fiction It navigates the multiple selves and layers of Istanbul to present how the city has shaped the writings of Pamuk and has in turn been shaped by it Through everyday objects and architecture it shows how Pamuk transforms the city into a living museum where different objects converse along with characters to present a rich tapestry across space and time Further the monograph explores the formation of communal and literary identity within and around nation building narratives informed by capitalism and modernization The book also examines how Pamuk uses the postmodern city to move beyond its postmodern confines and utilizes the theories and universes of Bakhtin Benjamin and Foucault to open up his fiction and radically challenge the idea of the novel The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature literary theory museum studies architecture and cultural studies and especially appeal to readers of Orhan Pamuk

Museum Making Suzanne Macleod, Laura Hourston Hanks, Jonathan Hale, 2012-03-15 Over recent decades many museums galleries and historic sites around the world have enjoyed an unprecedented level of large scale investment in their capital infrastructure in building refurbishments and new gallery displays This period has also seen the creation of countless new purpose built museums and galleries suggesting a fundamental re evaluation of the processes of designing and shaping of museums Museum Making Narratives Architectures Exhibitions examines this re making by exploring the inherently spatial character of narrative in the museum and its potential to connect on the deepest levels with human perception and imagination Through this uniting theme the chapters explore the power of narratives as structured experiences unfolding in space and time as well as the use of theatre film and other technologies of storytelling by contemporary museum makers to generate meaningful and it is argued here highly effective and affective museum spaces Contributions by an internationally diverse group of museum and heritage professionals exhibition designers architects and artists with academics from a range of disciplines including museum studies theatre studies architecture design and history cut across traditional boundaries including the historical and the contemporary and together explore the various roles and functions of narrative as a mechanism for the creation of engaging and meaningful interpretive environments Alternative Economies of Heritage

Denise Thwaites, Bethaney Turner, Tracy Ireland, 2025-02-25 Alternative Economies of Heritage is a groundbreaking edited volume that critically evaluates how the work of heritage can be reimagined as a multifarious field of thought and action to resist the reductive economies of colonial capitalism In a global context of cultural financialisation and ecological crisis where sustainable anti colonial and creative approaches are required to solve urgent problems this volume provides readers with an enriched understanding of heritage as a transforming and multidisciplinary domain which continues to question what is valued discarded or shared with future generations Bringing together researchers from the academy and industry and from varied international contexts this volume asks how does heritage as a complex intersection of contemporary practices with their own diverse histories recognise and circulate cultural value between generations and communities This volume brings together critical and creative perspectives from 29 authors showcasing diverse coexisting heritage economies across six continents that offer new horizons for cultural inheritance It also platforms perspectives from professional and grassroots community based heritage practitioners which may be of interest to non academic readers from not for profit and public sectors Readers of Alternative Economies of Heritage may include students and scholars of heritage and museum studies contemporary art urbanism environmental humanities archaeology anthropology digital humanities and Indigenous studies among other disciplines Autofiction and Cultural Memory Hywel Dix, 2022-12-22 Autofiction and Cultural Memory breaks new ground in autofiction research by showing how it gives postcolonial writers a means of bearing witness to past cultural or political struggles and hence of contributing to new forms of cultural memory Most discussion of autofiction has treated it as an individualistic form dealing with the personal growth of its authors In doing so it privileges narratives of private development over those of social commitment and accords with Western concepts of ownership and authorship By contrast Hywel Dix shows how a variety of writers outside the Western world have used the techniques of autofiction in a different way placing themselves on the side lines of their own stories to show solidarity with struggles against imperialism and tyranny Drawing on examples from Algeria Ethiopia the Caribbean the Americas India and Turkey Dix presents autofiction as a form which combines the life stories of authors with the collective struggles of their societies to restore to view historical injustices that have been marginalised and forgotten By contributing to new forms of cultural memory autofiction raises important questions about what we choose to remember and what we value in the present This book will be of interest to anyone working in postcolonial studies world literature trauma studies autobiography life writing or social justice

Logoteunison: Literary Easternization in Orhan Pamuk's Works Saman Hashemipour, 2019-10-31 This book explores the enduring European and American interest in literary works portraying Eastern themes and perspectives It examines how literary Easternization termed Logoteunison manifests in Western literary works that reflect embody or deploy Eastern values or concepts or else ape mimic parody or pay homage to various Eastern and especially Persian masterpieces Such repurposing or appropriation is frequently powered by features from the postmodern toolkit intertextuality metafiction fragmentation The novelist Orhan Pamuk has been influenced arguably unwittingly by literary Easternization In his Western style works Pamuk channels Eastern values creating texts nevertheless in the Western mold and primarily aimed at Western readers Pamuk uses Istanbul the writer's birthplace a city between two worlds a halfway land binding together Asia and Europe both as a physical setting and to symbolically mediate Eastern and Western worldviews This title has a threefold purpose by establishing a theoretical and contextual background for Eastern masterpieces and forming a distinctive review of Eastern culture as filtered through Pamuk's works it suggests a new theory in literary criticism one which aims to adopt a novel philosophical approach to the study of literary Easternization Students of comparative and Turkish literature will find in this volume detailed background information about Turkish Persian and Arabic masterpieces as well as their significant cultural correspondences and affinities especially regarding their employment of Sufi themes Any student or scholar interested in the postmodern cross fertilization of Middle Eastern and Western literature will find this work fascinating and rewarding

The Afterlife of Discarded Objects Andrei Guriianu, Natalia Andrievskikh, 2018-12-18 The Afterlife of Discarded Objects Memory and Forgetting in a Culture of Waste As one of its driving principles The Afterlife of Discarded Objects Memory and Forgetting in a Culture of Waste analyzes the double reconstitution of discarded items In this afterlife discarded objects might transform from a worthless object into a plaything or a work of art and then to an artifact marking a specific historical time period This transformation is represented through various forms of recollection stories photographs collectibles heirlooms monuments and more Shaped by nostalgia and wishful thinking discarded objects represent what is wasted desired and aestheticized existing at the intersection of individual and collective consciousness While The Afterlife of Discarded Objects constitutes a version of revisionist historiography through its engagement with alternative anthropological artifacts its ambition stretches beyond that to consider how seemingly immaterial phenomena such as memory and identity are embedded in and shaped by material networks including ephemera Guriianu and Andrievskikh create a written visual and virtual playground where transnational narratives fuse into a discourse on the persistent materiality of ephemera especially when magnified through narrative and digital embodiment The Afterlife of Discarded Objects is printed in full color and includes references an index and over seventy hi resolution color images The Afterlife of Discarded Objects Memory and Forgetting in a Culture of Waste uses contemporary theory literature popular culture and personal narratives to investigate how we assign political socio cultural and aesthetic meaning to objects The book is unique in applying personal narratives and testimonies of contributors from around the world to provide insights and critiques of Western attitudes toward these objects The Afterlife of Discarded Objects provides transformative social commentary through scrutiny and stories of discarded found objects in Eastern Europe and in the West encouraging us to reflect more critically on our relationships with things The stories and theories interwoven in Guriuianu and Andrievskikh s book turn memory into matter and aspire to teach through their exploration It s a lofty goal and the book succeeds Sohui Lee Eros and Thanatos. Love across Civilizations Alberto Castelli,2024-02-06 Eros and Thanatos is about the deadly nature of love It is remarkable that literary critics have paid so little attention to the combination between love and death in literature This book seeks to address this significant scholarly lacuna by exploring key literary texts of the last two hundred years as exemplary of a consistent tendency toward love and death Its emphasis on singular characters and close readings suggests the spectrum of an arbitrary dichotomy never fully resolved The existential discussion triggered by each plot is so intense that the erotic and the merely sexual seem inappropriate Indeed each writer chose to reduce it to the setting and background of a story that takes place elsewhere With this in mind the author intends to reflect love s paradoxical nature If love is triggered by beauty beauty can be immoral and love must die to preserve the illusion of beauty A Noble Madness James Delbourgo,2025-08-12 In this fascinating witty and provocative book Delbourgo s collectors range from emperors to scientists from shopaholics to taxonomists from bibliomaniacs to serial killers Give it to the collector in your life and watch the sparks fly Cathy Gere author of The Tomb of Agamemnon A captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient looters and idolaters to fin de si cle decadents Freudian psychos and hoarders Collectors are often praised for their taste in art or contributions to science and considered great public benefactors But collectors have also been seen as dangerous obsessives who love objects too much Why From looters and idolaters to fin de si cle decadents and Freudian psychos A Noble Madness is a captivating history of obsessive collectors from ancient times to today From Roman emperors lusting after statues to modern day hoarders award winning author James Delbourgo tells the extraordinary story of fanatical collectors throughout history He explains how the idea first emerged that when we look at someone s collection we see a portrait of their soul complex intriguing yet possibly insane What Delbourgo calls the Romantic collecting self has always lurked on the dark side of humanity But this dark side has a silver lining Because obsessive collectors are driven by passion not profit they have been countercultural heroes in the modern imagination defying respectability and taste in the name of truth to self A grand portrait gallery of collectors in all their decadent glory A Noble Madness recounts the saga of the human urge to accumulate from Caligula to Marie Antoinette Balzac to Freud Norman Bates to Andy Warhol Collectors love of objects may be mad even dangerous But we want to believe their love is a noble madness because by expressing that love they are themselves

History and Myth: Postcolonial Dimensions Arti Nirmal, Sayan Dey, 2022-02-01 This anthology History and Myth Postcolonial Dimensions seeks to interrogate and dismantle the colonially structured symmetrical interpretations of the histories and mythological narratives of the former European colonies through depolarization pluriversality and border thinking Here the concepts of history and myth have been addressed from different perspectives and spatiotemporal zones by scholars from different parts of the world which add to the global value of the book It has been argued in this volume that the understanding of postcolonial histories and myths in the contemporary era is highly influenced by the colonially fashioned binaries valid invalid civilized barbaric inclusive exclusive relevant irrelevant good bad etc which continue to preserve the epistemic citadels of coloniality and selectively promote such historical and mythological narratives that celebrate the superiority of the Global North and the inferiority of the Global South This book will be of particular interest to scholars researchers teachers and those interested in understanding history postcolonial studies decolonial studies cultural studies literature and sociology
