and state law is central. It includes sharia state encounters notably in the form of state Islamic law in the field of family law which is often asserted as the core or last stronghold of sharia. Moors 2003 2 Coulson 1969 115 6 and other substantive areas of law such as Islamic economics and Islamic philanthropy and also jinayah Islamic penal law. Regardless of their differences in their own specific context these areas somehow manage to secure an importance place in the modern days. It involves different loci of authority to interpret, legislate and enforce sharia or parts of it that not only flourish but also being challenged around the Muslim world.
