The Night Watch By Sarah Waters:

The Night Watch Sarah Waters,2016-07-28 I thought everything would change after the war And now no one even mentions it It is as if we all got together in private and said whatever you do don't mention that like it never happened It's the late 1940s Calm has returned to London and five people are recovering from the chaos of war In scenes set in a quiet dating agency a bombed out church and a prison cell the stories of these five lives begin to intertwine and we uncover the desire and regret that has bound them together Sarah Waters's story of illicit love and everyday heroism takes us from a dazed and shattered post war Britain back into the heart of the Blitz towards the secrets that are hidden there Olivier nominated playwright Hattie Naylor has created a thrilling and theatrically inventive adaptation of a great modern novel The stage adaptation of The Night Watch was premiered at the Royal Exchange Theatre Manchester on 16 May 2016 The Night Watch by Sarah Waters Molly Travers,2006 Lost Causes Valerie Rohy,2015 Lost Causes stages a polemical intervention in the discourse that grounds queer civil rights in etiology that is in the cause of homosexuality whether choice recruitment or biology Female Gothic Histories Diana Wallace,2013-03-30 Female Gothic Histories traces the development of women's Gothic historical fiction from Sophia Lee's The Recess in the late eighteenth century through the work of Elizabeth Gaskell Vernon Lee Daphne du Maurier and Victoria Holt to the bestselling novels of Sarah Waters in the twenty first century Often left out of traditional historical narratives women writers have turned to Gothic historical fiction as a mode of writing which can both reinsert them into history and symbolise their exclusion This study breaks new ground in bringing together thinking about the Gothic and the historical novel and in combining psychoanalytic theory with historical contextualisation Empathy and Reading Suzanne Keen,2022-06-23 This pioneering collection brings together Suzanne Keen's extensive body of work on empathy and reading charting the development of narrative empathy as an area of inquiry in its own right and extending cross disciplinary conversations about empathy evoked by reading The volume offers a brief overview of the trajectory of research following the 2007 publication of Empathy and the Novel with empathy understood as a suite of related phenomena as stimulated by representations in narratives The book is organized around three thematic sections theories empathetic readers and interdisciplinary applications each preceded by a short framing essay The volume features excerpts from the author's seminal works on narrative empathy and makes available her harder to access contributions The book brings different strands of the author's research into conversation with existing debates with the aim of inspiring future interdisciplinary research on narrative empathy This book will be of interest to students and scholars in such fields as literary studies cognitive science emotion studies affect studies and applied contexts where empathetic practitioners work Trauma in Contemporary Literature Marita Nadal,Mónica Calvo,2014-03-26 Trauma in Contemporary Literature analyzes contemporary narrative texts in English in the light of trauma theory including essays by scholars of different countries who approach trauma from a variety of perspectives The book analyzes and applies the most relevant concepts and themes discussed in trauma theory such as the relationship between individual and collective trauma historical trauma absence vs loss the roles of perpetrator and victim dissociation nachtr glichkeit transgenerational trauma the process of acting out and working through introjection and incorporation mourning and melancholia the phantom and the crypt postmemory and multidirectional memory shame and the affects and the power of resilience to overcome trauma Significantly the essays not only focus on the phenomenon of trauma and its diverse manifestations but above all consider the elements that challenge the aporias of trauma the traps of stasis and repetition in order to reach beyond the confines of the traumatic condition and explore the possibilities of survival healing and recovery

Housing, Class and Gender in Modern British Writing, 1880-2012 Emily Cuming, 2016-08-24 The author demonstrates how depictions of domestic space tell stories of class gender social belonging and exclusion

Sex, Time and Place Simon Avery, Katherine M. Graham, 2016-10-06 Sex Time and Place extensively widens the scope of what we might mean by queer London studies Incorporating multidisciplinary perspectives including social history cultural geography visual culture literary representation ethnography and social studies this collection asks new questions widens debates and opens new subject terrain Featuring essays from an international range of established scholars and emergent voices the collection is a timely contribution to this growing field Its essays cover topics such as activist and radical communities and groups AIDS and the city art and literature digital archives and technology drag and performativity lesbian Londons notions of bohemianism and deviancy sex reform and research and queer Black history Going further than the existing literature on Queer London which focuses principally on the experiences of white gay men in a limited time frame Sex Time and Place reflects the current state of this growing and important field of study It will be of great value to scholars students and general readers who have an interest in queer history London studies cultural geography visual cultures and literary criticism

Under Fire: Women and World War II Eveline Buchheim, Ralf Futselaar, 2014 Since the 1970s when the dominance of military histories of the World Wars ended and social historical histories of conflict rose to prominence women have come to play an increasingly important role in mainstream stories about the Second World War Although this is undeniably a valuable development the perspectives on women that arose have in many respects remained limiting although in new ways Women have been portrayed as carers as victims notably of sexual violence but rarely as agents of their own fate This volume focuses on this last group In spite of the undeniable suffering and victimization that befell so many women during the war for others the war also opened opportunities and awakened ambitions The articles in this volume which cover both Europe and Asia bring together some of the women who took initiatives of which they sometimes suffered the dire consequences sometimes enjoyed the fruits

Consuming History Jerome de Groot, 2016-02-08 Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media

(Re)Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Cristina Pividori,David Owen,2024-07-09 Re Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Beyond Post Memory is an exploration of war narratives through the lens of postmemory offering a critical re evaluation of how contemporary literature and cultural products reshape our understanding of past conflicts This volume presents a rich tapestry of perspectives drawing from an array of conflicts and incorporating insights from international experts across various disciplines including contemporary literature film studies visual arts and cultural studies It critically builds upon and extends Marianne Hirsch s concept of postmemory engaging with complex themes like the ethical dimensions of war writing the authenticity of representations and the creative power of art in reimagining traumatic events This study not only challenges traditional boundaries in war literature and memory studies but also resonates with contemporary concerns about societal engagement with violent pasts making it a significant addition to scholarly discourse and essential reading for those interested in the intersection of history memory and literature Culture Wars in British Literature Tracy J. Prince,2012-09-18 The past century s culture wars that Britain has been consumed by but that few North Americans seem aware of have resulted in revised notions of Britishness and British literature Yet literary anthologies remain anchored to an archaic Anglo English interpretation of British literature Conflicts have been played out over specific national vs British identity some residents prefer to describe themselves as being from Scotland England Wales or Northern Ireland instead of Britain in debates over immigration race ethnicity class and gender and in arguments over British literature These debates are strikingly detailed in such chapters as The Difficulty Defining Black British British Jewish Writers and Xenophobia and the Booker Prize Connections are also drawn between civil rights movements in the U S and UK This generalist cultural study is a lively read and a fascinating glimpse into Britain s changing identity as reflected in 20th and 21st century British literature Exoticizing the Past in Contemporary Neo-Historical Fiction E.

Rousselot,2014-11-13 This collection of essays is dedicated to examining the recent literary phenomenon of the neo historical novel a sub genre of contemporary historical fiction which critically re imagines specific periods of history History of the Gothic: Twentieth-Century Gothic Lucie Armitt, 2011-01-15 Why at a time when the majority of us no longer believe in ghosts demons or the occult does Gothic continue to have such a strong grasp upon literature cinema and popular culture This book answers this question through exploring some of the ways in which we have applied Gothic tropes to our everyday fears The book opens with The Turn of the Screw a text dealing in the dangers adults pose to children while simultaneously questioning the assumed innocence of all children As our culture becomes increasingly anxious about child safety the uncanny surfaces in the popular imagination in the form of the paedophile or the child murderer At the same time the Gothic has always brought danger home and another key focus of the book lies in the various manifestations undertaken by the haunted house during the twentieth century from the bombed out spaces of the blitz The Demon Lover and The Night Watch to the designer bathrooms of wealthy American suburbia What Lies Beneath Gothic monsters can also be terror monsters and after a discussion of terrorism and atrocity in relation to burial alive the book examines the relationship between the human and the inhuman through the role of the beast monster as manifestation of the evil that resides in our midst The Hound of the Baskervilles and The Birds It is with the dangers of the body that the Gothic has been most closely associated and during the later twentieth century paranoia attaches itself to skeletal forms and ghosts in the wake of the HIV AIDs crisis Sexuality and as disease is one of the themes of Patrick McGrath s work Dr Haggard s Disease and The Angel and the issue of skeletons in the closet is also explored through Henry James s The Jolly Corner However sexuality is also one of the most liberating aspects of Gothic narratives After a brief discussion of camp humour in the British television drama series Jekyll the book concludes with a discussion of the apparitional lesbian through the work of Sarah Waters The Books They Gave Me Jen Adams, 2012-11-06 THE BOOKS THEY GAVE ME collects stories of books given and books received by loved ones The gift of a book can be surprisingly intimate revealing much about a relationship An ill chosen book can serve as a harbinger of doom while a perfect selection can fill one with hope for the future Together these stories form a revealing look at love loss and our literary tastes Originally focusing on romantic gifts THE BOOKS THEY GAVE ME quickly expanded to gifts from parents and grandparents siblings and friends There s the couple who tried to read Ulysses together over the course of their long distance relationship and ultimately never finished it There s the guy who bristled when he received Joy of Cooking from his boyfriend until he realized that the gift didn t represent a demand for better meals but a dream for a beautiful life together throwing cocktail parties for a warm group of friends These are stories of people falling in love regretting mistakes and finding hope through books Youth Subcultures in Postwar and Contemporary Fiction Nick Bentley, 2025-04-30 This book offers a unique interdisciplinary examination of how youth subcultures have been articulated and constructed in selected fiction from the post war period to the twenty first century It provides a theoretical underpinning for the analysis of subcultures and scenes in literary fiction identifying approaches set against key theories from subcultural studies sociology and criminology as well as paying close attention to issues of literary form genre and narrative technique As well as identifying an overlooked

body of work in postwar and contemporary fiction it shows how literary fiction can offer a distinctive contribution to our understanding of youth and marginalized cultures It offers close analysis of a range of novels organized around key themes and contexts including teenagers Teds and jazz scenes in the 1950s Beat writing and the counterculture punk fiction dystopian and cyberpunk fiction as well as the examination of works that foreground class race gender and sexuality

Contemporary Irish and Welsh Women's Fiction Linden Peach,2020-10-01 Presents a comparative study of fiction by late twentieth and twenty first century women writers from Ireland Northern Ireland and Wales This work is of interest to students interested in women s studies gender studies and cultural studies as well as Welsh Irish and Celtic studies The Promise of Welfare in the Postwar British and Anglophone Novel Kelly M. Rich,2023 A study of the literature of the Second World War and its aftermath focusing on the welfare state and wartime visions of rebuilding Britain History's Queer Stories Natalie Marena Nobitz,2018-10-04 Critical analysis of the dramatisation of homosexuality in British fiction about the Second World War is noticeable only by its relative absence from the field Whereas feminist literary criticism has broadened the canon of war fiction to include narratives by and about women queer scholars have seldom focused on literary representations of homosexuality during the war Natalie Marena Nobitz closes a glaring gap in the critical attention of four novels dealing with the disruption of gender roles and institutionalised heteronormativity Walter Baxter s Look Down in Mercy 1951 Mary Renault s The Charioteer 1953 Sarah Waters The Night Watch 2006 and Adam Fitzroy s Make Do and Mend 2012 Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley,2017-11-15 This essential guide provides a comprehensive survey of the most important debates in the criticism and research of contemporary British fiction Nick Bentley analyses the criticism surrounding a range of British novelists including Monica Ali Martin Amis Pat Barker Alan Hollinghurst Kazuo Ishiguro Ian McEwan David Mitchell Ali Smith Zadie Smith Sarah Waters and Jeanette Winterson Exploring experiments with literary form this authoritative book considers cutting edge concerns relating to the neo historical novel the relationship between literature and science literary geographies and trauma narratives Engaging with key literary theories and identifying present trends and future directions in the literary criticism of contemporary British fiction this is an invaluable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of English literature teachers researchers and scholars
