The Media and the Models of Masculinity Mark Moss, 2012-07-10 Mark Moss's The Media and the Models of Masculinity details the impact that the mass media has upon men's sense of identity style and deportment From advertising to television shows mass consumer culture defines and identifies how men select and sort what is fashionable and acceptable Utilizing a large mine of mediated imagery men and boys construct and define how to dress act and comport themselves By engaging critical discussions on everything from fashion to domestic space to sports and beyond readers are privy to a modern and fascinating account of the diverse and dominant perceptions of and on Western masculine culture Historical tropes and models are especially important in this construction and influence and impact contemporary variations Critical Survey of Short Fiction: Essays, research tools, indexes Charles Edward May, Frank Northern Magill, 2001 Profiles more than four hundred authors of short fiction from around the world presenting biographical and bibliographic information and summaries of major works Also includes a reference volume with a chronology a bibliography lists of major award winners twenty nine essays on short fiction history theory and world cultures and three indexes

Understanding and Treating Patients in Clinical Psychoanalysis Sandra Buechler, 2015-03-05 Understanding and Treating Patients in Clinical Psychoanalysis Lessons from Literature describes the problematic ways people learn to cope with life's fundamental challenges such as maintaining self esteem bearing loss and growing old People tend to deal with the challenges of being human in characteristic repetitive ways Descriptions of these patterns in diagnostic terms can be at best dry and at worst confusing especially for those starting training in any of the clinical disciplines To try to appeal to a wider audience this book illustrates each coping pattern using vivid compelling fiction whose characters express their dilemmas in easily accessible evocative language Sandra Buechler uses these examples to show some of the ways we complicate our lives and through reimagining different scenarios for these characters she illustrates how clients can achieve greater emotional health and live their lives more productively Drawing on the work of Dostoevsky Tolstoy Munro Mann James O'Connor Chopin McCullers Carver and the many other authors represented here Buechler shows how their keen observational short fiction portrays self-hurtful styles of living She explores how human beings cope using schizoid paranoid grandiose hysteric obsessive and other defensive styles Each is costly in many senses and each limits the possibility for happiness and fulfillment Understanding and Treating Patients in Clinical Psychoanalysis offers insights into what living with and working with problematic behaviors really means through a series of examples of the major personality disorders as portrayed in literature Through these fictitious examples clinicians and trainees and undergraduate and graduate students can gain a greater understanding of how someone becomes paranoid schizoid narcissistic obsessive or depressive and how that affects them and those around them including the mental health professionals who work with them

The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharudin, Joseph Boyden, Mary Rohrberger, Jaie Claudet, 2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada
