Writing in Times of Displacement

Mbuh Tenu Mbuh, Meera Chakravorty, John Clammer, 2022-12-23 This book presents diverse composite non exclusive and non hierarchical perspectives on displacement of people as represented in literature It examines the experiences of migration as a result of wars natural disasters religious strife loss of livelihoods and shifts in local and global economies and the vulnerabilities they expose Bringing together scholarly insights into literature about displacement and migration from Africa Europe Asia and the Middle East the book interrogates the development frames of Western modernity and situates displacement within the discourse of disenfranchisement of citizens by nation states It explores the experiences memories and expressions of displacement in literature and how literary works critique ethical and moral responsibilities of states and communities that often do not account for the loss which displacement causes to the health education career or relationships of displaced people The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature philosophy migration and diaspora studies development studies African studies and Asian studies Current Issues in Descriptive Linguistics and Digital Humanities Moses Effiong Ekpenyong, Imelda Icheji Udoh, 2022-11-30 This book is a convergence of heterogeneous insights from languages and literature history music media and communications computer science and information studies which previously went their separate ways now unified under a single framework for the purpose of preserving a unique heritage the language In a growing society like ours description and documentation of human and scientific evidence resources are improving However these resources have enjoyed cost effective solutions for Western languages but are yet to flourish for African tone languages By situating discussions around a universe of discourse sufficient to engender cross border interactions within the African context this book shall break a dichotomy of challenges on adaptive processes required to unify resources to assist the development of modern solutions for the African domain The Critical Imagination in African Literature Maik Nwosu, Obiwu, 2015-06-09 In African studies the Echeruoan ideal is understood as an intervention or intellectual engagement characterized by a broadness of vision as well as a depth of analysis The essays gathered in this volume celebrate that ideal and honor Echeruo s contribution to the African intellectual tradition Editors Nwosu and Obiwu explore the driving forces in the literature of Africa and the African diaspora Contributors examine such themes as migration and exile trauma and repression violence and rebellion and gender and human rights Showcasing a rich diversity of cultural and academic backgrounds this volume inaugurates a new paradigm for further examination of African literature as world literature and for analysis of African literature through the lens of psychoanalytic semiotics While varied in modes of inquiry the essays are unified in their ambition to explore new theoretical directions reinvigorating the conversation around how African literature is read and studied The Cambridge Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Novel and Politics Bryan M. Santin, 2023-10-12 Surveying the relationship between American politics and the twentieth century novel this volume analyzes how political movements ideas and events shaped the American novel It also shows how those political phenomena were shaped in turn by long form prose fiction The book is made up of three major sections The first section considers philosophical ideologies and broad political movements that were both politically and literarily significant in the twentieth century United States including progressive liberalism conservatism socialism and communism feminism and Black liberation movements The second section analyzes the evolving political valences of key popular genres and literary forms in the twentieth century American novel focusing on crime fiction science fiction postmodern metafiction and immigrant fiction The third section examines ten diverse politically minded novels that serve as exemplary case studies across the century Combining detailed literary analysis with innovative political theory this Companion provides a groundbreaking study of the politics of twentieth century American fiction

Postcolonial Representation of the African Woman in the Selected Works of Ngugi and Adichie Eren Bolat, 2022-03-07 Until the lives and issues of African women arrived on the agenda of postcolonial writers African women who continued their lives under double colonization by patriarchy and dominant powers did not have much standing in literary works and in the world of literature Postcolonial African women have often been represented as weak subaltern and speechless by western writers and have even been underrepresented by some postcolonial writers This book shows how the African woman who is usually represented in cliché and stereotyped forms is depicted a versatile way in Ngugi and Adichie's novels

Writing Africa in the Short Story Ernest Emenyonu, 2013 The success of the Caine Prize for African Writing and the growth of online publishing have played key roles in putting the short story in its rightful place within the study and criticism of African literature African writers have much more than the critics recognized the beauty and potency of the short story Always the least studied in African literature classrooms and the most critically overlooked genre in African literature today the African short story is now given the attention it deserves Contributors here take a close look at the African short story to re-define its own peculiar pedigree chart its trajectory critique its present state and examine its creative possibilities They examine how the short story and the novel complement each other or exist in contradistinction within the context of culture and politics history and public memory legends myths and folklore Ernest Emenyonu is Professor of Africana Studies at the University of Michigan Flint USA the editorial board is composed of scholars from US UK and African universities Nigeria HEBN

Reframing the Black Atlantic Aretha Phiri, 2024-08-09 Commemorating the thirtieth anniversary of Paul Gilroy's seminal text The Black Atlantic Modernity and Double Consciousness this book offers fresh interpretations of established black Atlantic scholarship from the perspective of those typically elided from its ideological purview and existential narrative The application of queer and/or feminist lenses in each essay attempts to mediate these elisions and to advance potentially transformative democratising readings of the black

Atlantic from both complex and complicating African and diasporic viewpoints With the aim of realigning black Atlantic scholarship in this way the edited volume proposes an interventionist approach that is concerned with problematizing ethnic cultural universalisms and challenging geographic and gendered hierarchizations Underlining the importance of aesthetic and creative cultural archives Reframing the Black Atlantic s focus on transnational African diasporic literature and other intersecting popular cultural forms probes the imaginative limits and possibilities of the black Atlantic conventionally conceived To this end this book intends not just to complicate and enhance established views of black Africa inviting the reader to locate and perceive black life lived otherwise it points towards more inclusive and expansive global understandings and visions of blackness This volume will be of particular use to researchers and students in the fields of race gender diaspora transnational literary and cultural studies The chapters of this book were originally published in Cultural Studies

Lonely Planet The World Lonely Planet, Reframing Translators, Translators as Reframers Dominique Faria,Marta Pacheco Pinto,Joana Moura,2022-07-29 This collection explores the notion of reframing as a framework for better understanding the multi agent and multi level nature of the translation process generating new conversations in current debates on translational agency authority and power The volume puts forward reframing as an alternative metaphor to traditional conceptualizations and descriptions of translation which often position the process in such terms as transformation reproduction transposition and transfer Chapters in the book reflect on the translator figure as a central agent in actively moving a translated text to a new context and the translation process as shaped by different forces and subjectivities when translational agency comes into play The book brings together cross disciplinary perspectives for viewing translation through the lens of agents drawing on a wide range of examples across geographic settings historical eras and language pairs The volume integrates analyses from the translated texts themselves as well as their paratexts to offer unique insights into the different layers of mediation in translation and the new frame s created for those texts This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies comparative studies reception studies and cultural studies A Companion to Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Ernest Emenyonu,2017 Frontcover Contents Notes on Contributors Acknowledgements Introduction 1 Narrating the Past Orality History the Production of Knowledge in the Works of Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie 2 Deconstructing Binary Oppositions of Gender in Purple Hibiscus A Review of Religious Traditional Superiority Silence 3 Adichie the West African Voice Women Power in Purple Hibiscus 4 Reconstructing Motherhood A Mutative Reality in Purple Hibiscus 5 Ritualized Abuse in Purple Hibiscus 6 Dining Room Kitchen Food Related Spaces their Interfaces with the Female Body in Purple Hibiscus 7 The Paradox of Vulnerability The Child Voice in Purple Hibiscus 8 Fragile Negotiations Olanna s Melancholia in Half of a Yellow Sun 9 The Biafran War the Evolution of Domestic Space in Half of a Yellow Sun 10 Corruption in Post Independence Politics Half of a Yellow Sun as a Reflection of A Man of the People 11 Contrasting Gender Roles in Male Crafted Fiction with Half of a Yellow Sun 12 A Kind of Paradise Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie s Claim to Agency
