The Report Card By Andrew Clements:

The Report Card Andrew Clements, 2012-04-17 Nora Rose Rowley is a genius but don't tell anyone Nora's managed to make it to the fifth grade without anyone figuring out that she's not just an ordinary kid and she wants to keep it that way But then Nora gets fed up with the importance everyone attaches to test scores and grades and she purposely brings home a terrible report card just to prove a point Suddenly the attention she's successfully avoided all her life is focused on her and her secret is out And that's when things start to get really complicated Teaching by Design in Elementary Mathematics, Grades 4-5 Melinda Leong, Jennifer Stepanek, Linda Griffin, 2010-12 This professional learning programme for Key Stage 3 mathematics teaching is grounded in the latest research on the characteristics of effective professional development The materials help teachers deepen their content knowledge for important mathematical concepts in their grade increase their understanding of how students learn these mathematical ideas use their knowledge to develop effective lessons and improve instruction enhance their collaboration skills The mathematical content of Teaching by Design in Mathematics matches content topics in number and operations identified for each grade by the NCTM Curriculum Focal Points The culminating activity of the programme is the co-creation of a prototype lesson which is taught to students by team members the team then investigates the impact of the lesson on student learning The cycle of investigating planning teaching observing debriefing and revising a lesson together contributes to a climate of continuous professional learning Packaging Girlhood Sharon Lamb, Lyn Mikel Brown, 2025-06-25 The stereotype laden message delivered through clothes music books and TV is essentially a continuous plea for girls to put their energies into beauty products shopping fashion and boys This constant marketing cheapening of relationships absence of good women role models and stereotyping and sexualization of girls is something that parents need to first understand before they can take action Lamb and Brown teach parents how to understand these influences give them guidance on how to talk to their daughters about these negative images and provide the tools to help girls make positive choices about the way they are in the world In the tradition of books like Reviving Ophelia Odd Girl Out Queen Bees and Wannabes that examine the world of girls this book promises to not only spark debate but help parents to help their daughters Empowering Families Judy Bradbury, Susan E. Busch, 2015-04-24 The home school connection is important to student literacy achievement However it can be time consuming to develop and implement programming that keeps families engaged and involved Empowering Families makes it easier to accomplish these goals Chock full of step by step plans for arranging a variety of parent caregiver meetings and literacy booster events the book enables educators to get families involved in their children's learning in ways that are fun and non-intimidating By hosting these events at your school you'll be empowering families to read aloud to their children at home minimize the summer slide encourage male involvement in literacy help their children avoid homework hassles and much much more Bonus The book includes ready to use handouts for your events such as announcement sheets follow up evaluations and tipsheets that describe ways parents can reinforce literacy at home These handouts are photocopiable and the tipsheets are also available for easy download from our website at www.routledge.com 9781138803114 Spanish versions of the tipsheets are available on our website as well
