The Shockwave Rider By John Brunner:

The Shockwave Rider John Brunner, 2011-09-29 He was the most dangerous fugitive alive but he didn't exist Nickie Haflinger had lived a score of lifetimes but technically he didn't exist He was a fugitive from Tarnover the high powered government think tank that had educated him First he had broken his identity code then he escaped Now he had to find a way to restore sanity and personal freedom to the computerised masses and to save a world tottering on the brink of disaster He didn't care how he did it but the government did That's when his Tarnover teachers got him back in their labs and Nickie Haflinger was set up for a whole new education First published in 1975 John Brunner John Brunner, 2014-07-17 THE SHEEP LOOK UP Environmentalist Austin Train is on the run The Trainites environmental activists and sometime terrorists want him to lead their movement The government wants him in jail or preferably executed The media wants a circus Everyone has a plan for Train but Train has a plan of his own THE SHOCKWAVE RIDER Nickie Haflinger had lived a score of lifetimes but technically he didn't exist He was a fugitive from Tarnover the high powered government think tank that had educated him First he had broken his identity code then he escaped THE TRAVELLER IN BLACK This is a collection of stories of the Traveller in Black It is set in a world where chaos rules One man the man with many names but one nature is charged with creating order out of the warring forces of nature John Brunner Jad Smith, 2013-01-30 Under his own name and numerous pseudonyms John Brunner 1934-1995 was one of the most prolific and influential science fiction authors of the late twentieth century During his exemplary career the British author wrote with a stamina matched by only a few other great science fiction writers and with a literary quality of even fewer importing modernist techniques into his novels and stories and probing every major theme of his generation robotics racism drugs space exploration technological warfare and ecology In this first intensive review of Brunner's life and works Jad Smith carefully demonstrates how Brunner's much neglected early fiction laid the foundation for his classic Stand on Zanzibar and other major works such as The Jagged Orbit The Sheep Look Up and The Shockwave Rider Making extensive use of Brunner's letters columns speeches and interviews published in fanzines Smith approaches Brunner in the context of markets and trends that affected many writers of the time including Brunner's uneasy association with the New Wave of science fiction in the 1960s and 70s This landmark study shows how Brunner's attempts to cross fertilize the American pulp tradition with British scientific romance complicated the distinctions between genre and mainstream fiction and between hard and soft science fiction and helped carve out space for emerging modes such as cyberpunk slipstream and biopunk Unpacking My Library Leah Price, 2011-11-29 As words and stories are increasingly disseminated through digital means the significance of the book as object whether pristine collectible or battered relic is growing as well Unpacking My Library Writers and Their Books spotlights the personal libraries of thirteen favorite novelists who share their collections with readers Stunning photographs provide full views of the libraries and close ups of individual volumes first editions worn textbooks pristine hardcovers and childhood companions In her introduction Leah Price muses on the history and future of the bookshelf asking what books can tell us about their owners and what readers can tell us about their collections Supplementing the photographs are Price s interviews with each author which probe the relation of writing to reading collecting and arranging books Each writer provides a list of top ten favorite titles offering unique personal histories along with suggestions for every bibliophile Unpacking My Library Writers and Their Books features the personal libraries of Alison Bechdel Stephen Carter Junot Diaz Rebecca Goldstein and Steven Pinker Lev Grossman and Sophie Gee Jonathan Lethem Claire Messud and James Wood Philip Pullman Gary Shteyngart and Edmund White

The Cybernetic Imagination in Science Fiction Patricia S. Warrick,1980 Science fiction criticism Focuses on literary scientific material

A History of British, Irish and American Literature Hans-Peter Wagner,2021-10-04 The third revised and enlarged edition contains discussions of British Irish and American literary works up to 2020 Focussing on outstanding writings in prose poetry drama and non fiction the book covers the time from the Anglo Saxon period to the 21st century The feature that makes this literary history unique among its rivals is the coverage of television web series as a particular form of postmodern drama The chapters on recent drama now contain detailed analyses of the development of TV and web series from Britain Ireland and America with extensive discussions of those series now considered classics In addition there are several major innovative features To begin with each century is introduced by a survey of the socio political and cultural backgrounds in which the literary works are embedded Furthermore extensive visual material more than 160 engravings cartoons and paintings has been integrated This visual aspect as well as the introductory sections on art for each century give the reader an excellent idea of the symbiosis between visual and literary representations Further innovative aspects include discussions of non fictional works from literary criticism and theory travel writing historiography and the social sciences analyses of such popular genres as crime fiction science fiction fantasy the Western horror fiction and children s literature footnotes explaining technical and historical terms and events a detailed glossary of literary terms chronological tables for British Anglo Irish and American literatures an updated cut off date 2020 extensive bibliography containing suggestions for further reading

The Cross, the Plow and the Skyline Ernest J. Yanarella,2022-03-01 The apocalyptic pastoral and urban traditions have fundamentally shaped Western history and influenced American religion culture and politics This book argues that these traditions have not only been decisive in giving form and substance to classic and modern American literature but have been appropriated by contemporary science fiction As a loosely connected set of cultural narratives the Cross the Plow and the Skyline have through the medium of science fiction and fantasy provided a bold vista on the future grounded in an emergent ecological imagination In the expanded second edition of the original 2001 publication the author argues that a significant shift has taken place in contemporary Anglo American science fiction and fantasy SF F from twentieth century SF F critically analyzed in the first edition s critical inquiry Avantgarde works in twenty first century speculative fiction extensively examined in representative works in interludes separating the slightly revised original chapters have become darker in their visions of the possible future more focused on slowness over breakneck speed more amenable to gender racial and global diversity in authorship plot and subgenre creation less attached to anchor concepts like the city wilderness and the domesticated landscape in plot development more prone to dystopian and critical dystopian tropes simultaneously more open toward but critical of Young Adult fiction and more supportive of the breakdown of borders and antagonisms between science fiction and fantasy and SF F and literary fiction Ensclosed in the cultural social and political zeitgeist of the New Millennium s first two decades these features of twenty first century science fiction and fantasy may yet settle into and inform emergent and pluralistic varieties of ecological politics spreading across the globe and confronting the Earth s social and environmental crises of our times and coming decades

Spoiled Climate Andreas Ruby,2004 Architectural projects which expose the hidden contradictions of our everyday reality in a lively yet challenging way Franois Roche born in 1961 in Paris and his partner Stephanie Lavaux born in 1966 on the Reunion Island are radical advocates of an architecture which is to be perceived as a tool for increasing critical awareness as a discipline which provokes thought and inspires the imagination Their buildings and projects which include the new art museum in Bangkok and the Glacier Museum in Switzerland both of which would have been unthinkable without the latest IT methods of design strive towards designs which are unique and unmistakable in both function and appearance Franois Roche is guest professor at the London Bartlett School and the Technical University of Vienna and has made a name for himself internationally as a pioneer of a new architecture through his lecture activities and his participation in many exhibitions This monograph is the first complete overview of his work and will be published to coincide with the exhibition No Standard Architecture which opens in November at the Centre Pompidou in Paris where R Sie architects are one of the 12 invited architectural firms
