Fitz, 2010-06-28 Driven by an unfulfilled desire for the unattainable ultimately indefinable Other the protagonists of the novels and stories of acclaimed Brazilian writer Clarice Lispector exemplify and humanize many of the issues central to poststructuralist thought from the nature of language truth and meaning to the unstable relationships between language being and reality In this book Earl Fitz demonstrates that in turn poststructuralism offers important and revealing insights into all aspects of Lispector s writing including her style sense of structure characters themes and socio political conscience Fitz draws on Lispector s entire oeuvre novels stories cr nicas and children s literature to argue that her writing consistently reflects the basic tenets of poststructuralist theory He shows how Lispector s characters struggle over and humanize poststructuralist dilemmas and how their essential sense of being is deeply dependent on a shifting and typically transgressive sense of desire and sexuality      Jewish Writers of Latin America Darrell B. Lockhart, 2013-08-21 Jewish writing has only recently begun to be recognized as a major cultural phenomenon in Latin American literature Nevertheless the majority of students and even Latin American literary specialists remain uninformed about this significant body of writing This Dictionary is the first comprehensive bibliographical and critical source book on Latin American Jewish literature It represents the research efforts of 50 scholars from the United States Latin America and Israel who are dedicated to the advancement of Latin American Jewish studies An introduction by the editor is followed by entries on 118 authors that provide both biographical information and a critical summary of works Argentina Brazil and Mexico home to the largest Jewish communities in Latin America are the countries with the greatest representation but there are essays on writers from Venezuela Chile Uruguay Peru Colombia Costa Rica and Cuba      Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals Federica

Bueti,2022-12-07 Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals renders a vivid portrait of the intergenerational and intersectional dialogue between influential feminist writers on how to say no to the conditions of oppression exclusion and exploitation imposed by patriarchal and systemically racist capitalist societies The book provides today s readers and writers access to the powerful inventory of concepts and techniques that two generations of feminists have assembled for refusing domination and constituting fugitive forms of sociability and writing Drawing on examples from feminist thinkers Audre Lorde Carla Lonzi H l ne Cixous Hortense Spillers Alexis Pauline Gumbs Anne Boyer and Simone White the book focuses on how the power dynamics of recognition tie the uses of language to the material conditions of discrimination in everyday life The Murmuring Coast Lídía Jorge,1995 This captivating tale is told in two parts The first presents Lidia Jorge s version of a traditional story about a series of supposed incidents set in Beira Mozambique The events take place in the final years of Portugal s colonial African wars as an undisclosed narrator describes the military wedding of a young Portuguese ensign and an equally young bride The wedding is followed by the mass poisoning of hundreds of native Africans and the arrival of a rain of locusts The story ends grimly with the groom s suicide Evita Lopo the unnamed bride from the first part narrates the remainder of the story Twenty years have gone by and she reviews the past and questions the unidentified narrator s rendering of events in the first section Evita s reminiscences destroy the credibility of the earlier story and she supplies the reader with a great deal of information that the author of the previous account had suppressed or to which he or she merely alluded It becomes apparent that betrayal and guilt have motivated all of the characters actions The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 9 Samuel D. Kassow,David G. Roskies,2020-11-24 The Posen Library s groundbreaking anthology series called a feast of Jewish culture in ten volumes by the Chronicle of Higher Education explores in Volume 9 global Jewish responses to the years 1939 to 1973 a time of unprecedented destruction dislocation agency and creativity An extensive look at Jewish civilization and culture from the eve of World War II to the Yom Kippur War It s a weighty collection to be sure but one that s consistently engaging An edifying and diverse survey of 20th century Jewish life Kirkus Reviews starred review Readers seeking primary texts documents images and artifacts constituting Jewish culture and civilization will not be disappointed More important they might even be inspired This set will serve to improve teaching and research in Jewish studies at institutions of higher learning and at the same time promote maintain and improve understanding of the Jewish population and Judaism in general Booklist starred review The ninth volume of The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization covers the years 1939 to 1973 a period that editors Kassow and Roskies call one of the most tragic and dramatic in Jewish history Organized geographically and then by genre this book details Jewish cultural and intellectual resources throughout this era particularly in political thought literature the visual and performing arts and religion This volume explores worldwide Jewish perceptions of momentous events that transpired in the mid twentieth century and how Jews redefined themselves across regions throughout an era rife with tragedy displacement and dispersion

Decolonising Governance Paul Carter,2018-09-19 Power may be globalized but Westphalian notions of sovereignty continue to determine political and legal arrangements domestically and internationally global issues the legacy of colonialism expressed in continuing human displacement and environmental destruction are thus treated parochially and ineffectually Not designed for dealing with situations of interdependence democratic institutions find themselves in crisis Reform in this case is not simply operational but conceptual political relationships need to be drawn differently the cultural illiteracy that prevents the local knowledge invested in places made after their stories needs to be recognised as a major obstacle to decolonising governance Archipelagic thinking refers to neglected dimensions of the earth s human geography but also to a geo politics of relationality where governance is understood performatively as the continuous establishment of exchange rates Insisting on the poetic literacy that must inform a decolonising politics Carter suggests a way out of the incommensurability impasse that dogs assertions of indigenous sovereignty Discussing bicultural areal management strategies located in south west Victoria Maluku Indonesia and inter regionally across the Arafura and Timor Seas Carter argues for the existence of creative regions constituted archipelagically that can intervene to rewrite the theory and practice of decolonisation A book of great stylistic elegance and deftness of analysis Decolonising Governance is an important intervention in the related fields of ecological ecocritical and environmental humanities Methodologically innovative in its foregrounding of relationality as the nexus between poetics and politics it will also be of great interest to scholars in a range of areas including communicational praxis land sea biodiversity design bicultural resource management and the constitution of post Westphalian regional jurisdictions Whatever Happened to Dulce Veiga? Caio Fernando Abreu,2010-06-04 A forty year old Brazilian journalist reduced to living in a dilapidated building inhabited by a bizarre human fauna fortune tellers transvestites tango loving Argentinean hustlers is called upon to track down and write the story of Dulce Veiga a famous singer who disappeared twenty years earlier on the eve of her first big show Thus begins a mad race through an underground nocturnal S o Paulo among rock bands with eccentric names feline reincarnations of Vita Sackville West ex revolutionaries turned junkies gay Pietas echoes of Afro Brazilian religions and intimations of AIDS Constructed like a mystery the novel unravels over a week evoking a decadent and contaminated atmosphere in which the journalist s own search for meaning finds its expression in the elusive Dulce Veiga who constantly appears to him as if in a dream her arm pointing heavenward Whatever Happened to Dulce Veiga is a descent into the underworld of contemporary megalopolises

where like the inside of a huge TV life intermingles with bits of music film clips and soap opera characters in a crazy and macabre dance moving toward a possible catharsis Re-Imagining Relationships in Education Morwenna Griffiths, Marit Honerød Hoveid, Sharon Todd, Christine Winter, 2014-11-17 Re-Imagining Relationships in Education re imagines relationships in contemporary education by bringing state of the art theoretical and philosophical insights to bear on current teaching practices Introduces theories based on various philosophical approaches into the realm of student teacher relationships Opens up innovative ways to think about teaching and new kinds of questions that can be raised Features a broad range of philosophical approaches that include Arendt Beckett Irigaray and Wollstonecraft to name but a few Includes contributors from Norway England Ireland Scotland Spain Sweden and the U S The Hélène Cixous Reader Susan Sellers, 2003-08-01 This is the first truly representative collection of texts by Helene Cixous The substantial pieces range broadly across her entire oeuvre and include essays works of fiction lectures and drama Arranged helpfully in chronological order the extracts span twenty years of intellectual thought and demonstrate clearly the development of one of the most creative and brilliant minds of the twentieth century With a foreword by Jacques Derrida a preface by Cixous herself and first class editorial material by Susan Sellers The Helene Cixous Reader is destined to become a key text of feminist writing

Theories on the Move Şebnem Susam-Sarajeva, 2006-01-01 Within translation studies books on translating conceptually dense texts such as philosophical or theoretical writings are remarkably few Although the translation of literature has been a favourite topic for many decades the translation of theories on literature has been neglected The phrase theories of translation is everywhere but translation of theories is a rare sight On the other hand the term translation has become a commonplace in literary and cultural studies yet usually as a rhetorical figure describing the fate of those who struggle between two worlds and two languages such as migrants or women Not much attention has been paid to the role of translation proper in contemporary circulation of ideas The book addresses these gaps in translation studies and in literary studies for the first time by examining two specific cases where translation strategies and patterns crucially influenced the reception of imported schools of thought By examining the importation of structuralism and semiotics into Turkish and of French feminism into English it invites the readers to think about the impact of translation on the transmission of ideas across linguistic cultural borders and power differentials It is therefore of particular interest to the scholars working in translation studies in literary and cultural theory and in gender studies A Breath of Life Clarice Lispector, 2022-07-28 A Breath of Life is Clarice Lispector's final novel written in agony which she did not live to see published Sensual and mysterious it is a mystical dialogue between a god like author and the creation he breathes life into the speaking shifting indefinable Angela Pralini As he has created Angela so eventually he must let her die for life is merely a kind of madness that death makes This is a unique elegiac meditation on the creation of life and of art The Rift V. Y. Mudimbe, 1993 The Rift explores textuality writing solitude and death in the context of contemporary African life and at the same time examines the constitution and materiality of African subjectivity V Y Mudimbe s writing is provocative demanding and distinctly modernist In its compelling exploration of the production of African knowledge within or outside the interstices of imperial space The Rift contributes significantly to contemporary debates about the liminal subject split to use Homi Bhabha s phrase between the here and the there and most important about issues of power and post colonial epistemology

Interdisciplinary/Multidisciplinary Woolf Ann Martin,Kathryn Holland,2013-06-01 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars linking inter and multidisciplinary scholarship to the intellectual and creative projects of Virginia Woolf and her modernist peers Sensorium Barbara Bolt,Felicity Colman,Graham Jones,2021-02-10 This book presents a timely reconfiguration of the relations between art philosophy ethics and aesthetics Through connection with a range of contemporary social and philosophical issues and movements this collection of essays highlights the imperative of sensorial aesthetics The book focuses on the radical philosophical approach to aesthetics enabled by the works of Jean Fran ois Lyotard and Gilles Deleuze From these philosophers an older meaning of aesthetic has been recalled Before it indicated primarily the theory of art and beauty aesthetic referred to the sensibility the capacity to receive sensations In summoning this sensorial meaning of aesthetics in their respective works Lyotard Deleuze and other recent thinkers turn the philosophical theory of aesthetics away from the dominance of cognitivist and reception theories and towards a thinking of aesthetics through considerations of the movements of matter affect and sensation This vital transformation of aesthetics in turn allows a reconfiguration of the relationship between the domains of art aesthetics and philosophy If aesthetics focuses on sensation rather than cognition then artists musicians and philosophers alike appear not only as phenomenological and empirical thinkers but as experimenters with the parameters of the sensible able to extend our perceptual interface with the world Rather than artists deferring to philosophers in regard to the meaning of their works this new understanding of aesthetics suggests that philosophers ought to defer to artists who are understood as inventors in the realm of sensibility

Retailising Space Mattias Karrholm,2016-04-08 Over the past few years there has been a proliferation of new kinds of retail space Retail space has cropped up just about everywhere in the urban landscape in libraries workplaces churches and museums In short retail is becoming a more and more manifest part of the public domain The traditional spaces of retail such as city centres and outlying shopping malls are either increasing in size or disappearing producing new urban types and whole environments totally dedicated to retail The creation of these new retail spaces has brought about a re and de territorialisation of urban public space and has also led to transformations in urban design and type of materials used and even in the logic and ways through which these design amenities meet the needs of retailers and or consumers This book describes how the retailisation of public domains affects our everyday life and our use of the built environment Taking an architectural and territorial perspective on this issue it looks specifically at how retail and consumption spaces have changed and territorialised urban life in different ways It then develops a methodology and a set of concepts to describe and understand the role of architecture in these territorial transformations      Passion, Memory and Identity Marjorie Agosin, 1999-05 A lively analysis of the major contribution of Jewish women writers in Latin America
