The Neon Court Matthew Swift 3 By Kate Griffin:

The Neon Court Kate Griffin, 2011-02-03 When the city was founded he was the mad native spirit that waited in the dark on the edge of the torchlight When the streets were cobbled over he became the footsteps heard on stone that you cannot see When the Victorians introduced street lighting he was the shadow who always shied away from the light and when the gas went out there he was The shadow at the end of the alley the footsteps half heard in the night A daimyo of the Neon Court is dead So are two warriors of the Tribe And a freshly prophesied chosen one is missing Each side blames the other and Matthew Swift is right in the middle of it trying to keep the peace Because when magicians go to war everyone loses But Swift has even bigger problems A dead woman is trying to kill him and the city itself is under attack from a force of unimaginable power As if trying to stay one step ahead of an assassin and juggling magical politics weren't challenging enough Swift must also find a way to defeat a primal threat from humanity's darkest nightmares Or there may not be a London left to fight over
