The Intimacies of Conflict Daniel Y. Kim, 2020-11-03 Winner 2020 Peter C Rollins Prize given by the Northeast Popular American Culture Association Enables a reckoning with the legacy of the Forgotten War through literary and cinematic works of cultural memory Though often considered the forgotten war lost between the end of World War II and the start of the Cold War the Korean War was as Daniel Y Kim argues a watershed event that fundamentally reshaped both domestic conceptions of race and the interracial dimensions of the global empire that the United States would go on to establish He uncovers a trail of cultural artefacts that speaks to the trauma experienced by civilians during the conflict but also evokes an expansive web of complicity in the suffering that they endured Taking up a range of American popular media from the 1950s Kim offers a portrait of the Korean War as it looked to Americans while they were experiencing it in real time Kim expands this archive to read a robust host of fiction from US writers like Susan Choi Rolando Hinojosa Toni Morrison and Chang rae Lee and the Korean author Hwang Sok yong The multiple and ongoing historical trajectories presented in these works testify to the resurgent afterlife of this event in US cultural memory and of its lasting impact on multiple racialized populations both within the US and in Korea The Intimacies of Conflict offers a robust multifaceted and multidisciplinary analysis of the pivotal but often unacknowledged consequences of the Korean War in both domestic and transnational histories of race

Understanding Chang-rae Lee Amanda M. Page, 2017-09-15 The first study that traces the career of an author who pushes against formal and thematic boundaries In Understanding Chang rae Lee Amanda M Page provides the first critical survey of the work of one of America s most acclaimed contemporary novelists Chang rae Lee the Ward W and Priscilla B Woods Professor of English at Stanford University has been the recipient of numerous awards including a Hemingway Foundation PEN Award an American Book Award and the Dayton Literary Peace Prize Lee is the author of five novels including The Surrendered which was a named a Pulitzer Prize finalist in 2011 In considering the novelist s oeuvre Page examines Lee s evolving use of narrative perspective and how it attests to the power of voice by showing that storytelling can reveal hidden truths whether intended or not After a brief biography an overview of Lee s critical reception and a discussion of his nonfiction essays Page traces the trajectory of Lee s career to illustrate the ways his work continues to push against formal and thematic boundaries with each new novel In her exploration of Lee s first and best known novel Native Speaker Page introduces many of Lee s recurring themes including the pains of cultural assimilation the significant role of language in identity and emotional alienation as a result of constructs of masculinity Page then argues that Lee s second novel A Gesture Life uses evasive narration and the guise of a suburban novel to conceal a meditation on war trauma and contemporary isolation Aloft the last of Lee s novels told in the first person plays with expected conventions of American suburban fiction to critique the white privilege at the heart of this familiar form Page also explores The Surrendered Lee s ambitious historical epic that deploys third person perspective to show the variety of ways historical trauma reverberates in the present Page s final chapter focuses on Lee s dystopian novel On Such a Full Sea In his most bold experiment with narrative voice to date this novel is told from the collective perspective of an entire community reflecting on the experiences of a lone girl as she navigates a highly stratified social hierarchy Page argues that this work shows the culmination of Lee s interest in the relationship between the individual and the community and the power of a single voice to speak truth

Cold War Friendships Josephine Nock-Hee Park, 2016 Cold War Friendships explores the plight of the Asian ally of the American wars in Korea and Vietnam Enlisted into proxy warfare this figure is not a friend but a friendly a wartime convenience enlisted to serve a superpower It is through this deeply unequal relation however that the Cold War friendly secures her own integrity and insists upon her place in the neocolonial imperium This study reads a set of highly enterprising wartime subjects who make their way to the US via difficult attachments American forces ventured into newly postcolonial Korea and Vietnam both plunged into civil wars to draw the dividing line of the Cold War The strange success of containment and militarization in Korea unraveled in Vietnam but the friendly marks the significant continuity between these hot wars In both cases the friendly justified the fight she was also a political necessity who redeployed cold war alliances and remarkably made her way to America As subjects in process and indeed proto Americans these figures are prime literary subjects whose processes of becoming are on full display in Asian American novels and testimonies of these wars Literary writings on both of these conflicts are presently burgeoning and Cold War Friendships performs close analyses of key texts whose stylistic constraints and contradictions shot through with political and historical nuance present complex gestures of alliance

Inhabited by Stories Nancy A. Barta-Smith, Danette DiMarco, 2012-11-30 Intertextuality has signaled change appropriation adaptation and derivation It has focused readers on irresolvable questions of influence and origination progressive or regressive movement across continents periods and media Inhabited by Stories Critical Essays on Tales Retold takes a different approach What would a model of literary study look like that steps out of time's river and embraces not only the presence and proximity of the world to the senses but also of the past and the future to the present here and now When stories inhabit us imagination and memory extend our ability to see and feel Phenomenological experience is lived not just thought Such a perspective suggests that the past and future inhabit the present increase the depth of sensory perception itself and enrich the range of our affective and ethical responses Grounded in the lived experience of reading this perspective offers an alternative to an idea of intertextuality as simply following lines of influence and appropriation It focuses on the expansion of experience created by telling and retelling stories Ironically for literary theorists and critics perhaps the highest form of both praise and critique is a tale retold since such retellings attest to literature's instructive power and its perennial regeneration
