China's Grandmothers Diana Lary,2022-04-21 Over the past century and a half China has experienced foreign invasion warfare political turmoil and revolution along with massive economic and technological change Through all this change there is one stable element grandmothers as child carers household managers religious devotees transmitters of culture and above all sources of love warmth and affection In this interdisciplinary and longitudinal study China s Grandmothers sheds light on the status and lives of grandmothers in China over the years from the late Qing Dynasty to the twenty first century

Combining a wide range of historical and biographical materials Diana Lary explores the changes and continuities in the lives of grandmothers through revolution wars and radical upheaval to the present phase of economic growth Informed by her own experience as a grandchild and grandmother Lary offers a fresh and compelling way of looking at gender family and ageing in modern Chinese society On History and Memory in Arab Literature and Western Poetics Bootheina Majoul, Yosra Amraoui, 2020-10-06 Texts act like receptacles for an ever present remembered past or what the French philosopher Paul Ricur calls the present representation of an absent thing They might embody an efficient remedy to forgetting but could also become a vivid testimony for exorcised traumas This volume focuses on Ricur's phenomenology of memory epistemology of history and hermeneutics of forgetting A special emphasis is laid on the dissension between individual and collective institutional memory

Writing Asian Romance Characters Rachelle Ayala, 2020-07-14 Have you wanted to enrich your romance novels by including a diverse cast of characters Do you want your stories to reflect the society around you Are you unsure how to portray Asian characters in a balanced way that does not perpetuate stereotypes If so I can be your mentor and help you develop Asian romantic heroes and heroines that are strong desirable talented and flawed in other words well rounded characters who like all romantic heroes and heroines deserve and find a happy ending I have experience in this area having grown up Asian American and have written many romance novels with Asian heroes and heroines I've also read widely in both literature and fiction areas as well as taken ethnic studies classes and researched Asian American history I can be your guide in finding resources to deepen your knowledge while pointing out areas to pay attention I will also encourage you to let your characters fly no matter what their background and to not let fear hold you back when developing your Asian characters In this book I will go over common myths and stereotypes respectful ways of describing Asian characters and the tropes to avoid I'll briefly touch on the history of the various Asian groups in America and point out to you the difference in experience based on when the Asian ancestor immigrated Interracial and multicultural romance is a thriving romance market and I will talk about some of the concerns and opportunities when writing characters who come from different backgrounds I'll include example excerpts to illustrate my points and interview questions you can use to develop your unique characters from an Asian perspective

A Second Cup O' Kapeng Barako Jesse Jose, 2014-02-06 This book leaves out the likelihood that many readers of Jesse Jose also like the way he writes My Best and Most Hated are both extremes Where best lies is where many of his admirers are those who smile at every wry comment he makes whenever he finds reason to do so which is hardly rare Most hated would be a welcome avenue for those seeking to vent their dislike and contempt for this man who commands a big following in online media for all his irreverent commentaries Bounding the most hated into a volume with the best provides a balance an insight And it is in that balance where we see the man behind the bottomless cups of Kapeng Barako The stuff he writes about are fairly everyday occurrence It is in how he writes about them that generates the loudest whispers and the hateful screams His commentaries aside Mr Kapeng Barako is a pleasant guy who is wedged between the best and the hated easily likable The book should be a good way to while the time especially when one cant make up who to like and who to hate what to like and what to scorn The book should provide the answer to that dilemma Romy Marquez Toronto Canada based journalist Poet and Author This book is worth reading because of the author s unique style of writing that a reader is constantly mesmerized regardless of what subject is being told or critiqued And it doesn t matter whether a reader agrees or disagrees with the author s take on the subject or issue because it is cleverly written that there is no room between the words to be misunderstood or bored In the end the satisfied reader walks away with a smile Ray Burdeos Galveston Texas The advent of the computer era makes everybody think they can write and opine on everything Many get the urge very few are capable Jesse Jose is capable and adroit in presenting his views on a wide range of topics they are meaningful relevant and cogent I like the passion and the fire in his columns and the way he tempers his heat with humor Doc Lee Lagda Cypress California
