Hacker,2003-06-01 Preclassical and indigenous nonwestern military institutions and methods of warfare are the chief subjects of this annotated bibliography of work published 1967 1997 Classical antiquity post Roman Europe and the westernized armed forces of the 20th century although covered receive less systematic attention Emphasis is on historical studies of military organization and the relationships between military and other social institutions rather than wars and battles Especially rich in references to the periodical literature the bibliography is divided into eight parts 1 general and comparative topics 2 the ancient world 3 Eurasia since antiquity 4 sub Saharan Africa and Oceania 5 pre Columbian America 6 postcontact America 7 the contemporary nonwestern world and 8 philosophical social scientific natural scientific and other works not primarily historical Selves at Risk Ihab Hassan,1990 In this era of supersonic jets ubiquitous McDonalds and pervasive Panasonics in our coddled jacuzzi culture our cybernetic society of acronyms and first names does the spirit of quest endure Indeed from rain forests across oceans steppes savannahs and saharas to the peaks of the Andes or Himalayas American writers still test the limits of human existence They test spirit flesh marrow and imagination in a timeless quest for meaning beyond civilization at the razor edge of mortality And they return with sun cracked skin and gazes honed on horizons to tell us the tale Ihab Hassan s new book on quests turns out to be a quest of his own He takes us through an invigorating range of today s American writers as they test themselves against the far corners of our tattered planet Hassan shows us how their quests and incidentally his own entwine risks commitments and desperate exercises in belief how their aspirations are human but uniquely American This is a book everyone interested in American culture can learn from and enjoy Hassan s voice is one of graceful wisdom and passionate elegance a refreshing landfall in today s turgid sea of criticism

Norman N Holland University of Florida Life-Writing Donald J. Winslow,1995-01-01 This text presents an introduction and a reference source of terms in the writing of biographies autobiographies and related literature The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing Terrence L. Craig,2017-03-27 The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing provides an overview of Kenyan literature by white writers in the half century before Independence in 1964 Such literature has been over shadowed by that of black writers to the point of critical ostracism It deserves attention for its own sake as the expression of a community that hoped for permanence but suffered both disappointment and dispossession It deserves attention for its articulation of an increasingly desperate colonial and Imperial situation at a time when both were being attacked and abandoned in Africa as in other colonies elsewhere and when a counter discourse was being constructed by writers in Britain as well as in Africa Kenya was likely the best known twentieth century colony for it attracted publicity for its iconic safaris and its Happy Valley scandals Yet behind such scenes were settlers who had taken over lands from the native peoples and who were trying to make a future for themselves based on the labour willing or forced of those people This situation can be seen as a microcosm of one colonial exercise and can illuminate the historical tensions of such times The bibliography is an attempt to collect the literary resources of white Kenya in this historically significant period Africa Today ,1989 The Anthropology of Religion, Magic, and Witchcraft Rebecca L. Stein,Philip L. Stein,2017-05-08 This concise and accessible textbook introduces students to the anthropological study of religion Stein and Stein examine religious expression from a cross cultural perspective and expose students to the varying complexity of world religions The chapters incorporate key theoretical concepts and a rich range of ethnographic material The fourth edition of The Anthropology of Religion Magic and Witchcraft offers increased coverage of new religious movements fundamentalism and religion and conflict violence fresh case study material with examples drawn from around the globe further resources via a comprehensive companion website This is an essential guide for students encountering anthropology of religion for the first time Promise the Night Michaela MacColl,2011 Explores the early life of Beryl Markham who grew up on a farm in Kenya and became the first person to fly solo across the Atlantic from east to west Who Am I? Yi-Fu Tuan,2009-05-15 Who Am I is the bittersweet memoir of a Chinese American who came to this country as a twenty year old graduate student and stayed to become one of America s most innovative intellectuals whose work has explored the aesthetic and moral dimensions of human relations with landscape nature and environment Warlike and Peaceful Societies Agner Fog,2017-10-13 Are humans violent or peaceful by nature We are both In this ambitious and wide ranging book Agner Fog presents a ground breaking new argument that explains the existence of differently organised societies using evolutionary theory It combines natural sciences and social sciences in a way that is rarely seen According to a concept called regality theory people show a preference for authoritarianism and strong leadership in times of war or collective danger but desire egalitarian political systems in times of peace and safety These individual impulses shape the way societies develop and organise themselves and in this book Agner argues that there is an evolutionary mechanism behind this flexible psychology Incorporating a wide range of ideas including evolutionary theory game theory and ecological theory Agner analyses the conditions that make us either strident or docile He tests this theory on data from contemporary and ancient societies and provides a detailed explanation of the applications of regality theory to issues of war and peace the rise and fall of empires the mass media economic instability ecological crisis and much more Warlike and Peaceful Societies The Interaction of Genes and Culture draws on many different fields of both the social sciences and the natural sciences It will be of interest to academics and students in these fields including anthropology political science history conflict and peace research social psychology and more as well as the natural sciences including human biology human evolution and ecology First Leaders Andrew O'Keeffe,2023-02-01 First Nations people of all continents have been refining leadership for millennia They've had from the dawn of human history to figure out what works and what doesn't By comparison the discipline of workplace leadership emerged only about 100 years ago just a few generations back First Leaders is the first book devoted to how the wisdom of First Nations leadership can benefit modern leaders Inspired by conversations with several Maasai elders Andrew O'Keeffe travelled the globe investigating the leadership knowledge of First Nation societies His search took him to the central desert of Australia to meet Arrernte and Pintupi through Africa to meet with Kalahari Bushmen Himba Maasai and Samburu to the Amazon to meet Waorani and Kichwa to New Zealand to meet Maori and North America to meet with Haida and Mohawk From his meetings with First Nations people and his focus on the practical application of the wisdom shared with him Andrew O'Keeffe has identified 11 Principles of First Leadership The principles provide concrete actions to help both individual leaders and organisations solve their major leadership challenges Best Sellers ,1986 The Environment in Contemporary Africa Laura Byrne Paquet,2016-12-15 The Environment in Contemporary Africa explores the diverse landscapes of Africa's fifty four countries and the environmental issues that threaten them The book details familiar concerns like deforestation pollution and climate change as well as issues unique to the continent The Environment in Contemporary Africa also demonstrates how the legacy of colonialism has contributed to the environmental problems of today and how creative solutions fuel hope for conservation
