The Shock Doctrine The Rise Of Disaster Capitalism By Naomi Klein:

The Shock Doctrine Naomi Klein, 2014-10-02 Impassioned hugely informative wonderfully controversial and scary as hell John le Carr Around the world in Britain the United States Asia and the Middle East there are people with power who are cashing in on chaos exploiting bloodshed and catastrophe to brutally remake our world in their image They are the shock doctors Exposing these global profiteers Naomi Klein discovered information and connections that shocked even her about how comprehensively the shock doctors beliefs now dominate our world and how this domination has been achieved Raking in billions out of the tsunami plundering Russia exploiting Iraq this is the chilling tale of how a few are making a killing while more are getting killed Packed with thinking dynamite a book to be read everywhere John Berger If you only read one non fiction book this year make it this one Metro Books of the Year There are a few books that really help us understand the present The Shock Doctrine is one of those books John Gray Guardian A brilliant book written with a perfectly distilled anger channelled through hard fact She has indeed surpassed No Logo Independent Naomi Klein - Rise Of Disaster Capitalism, 2015 The Rise of Disaster Capitalism features Naomi Klein explaining the ideas and research behind her bestselling book The Shock Doctrine The Rise of Disaster Capitalism In this riveting lecture and interview Klein challenges and exposes the popular myth of the free market economy s peaceful global victory Around the world there are people with power who are cashing in on chaos exploiting bloodshed and catastrophe to brutally implement their policies They are the shock doctors From Chile in 1973 to Iraq today this is the chilling tale of how a few are making a killing while more are getting killed

The Unfinished Revolution Karen Salt, 2019 In The Unfinished Revolution Salt examines post revolutionary and contemporary sovereignty in Haiti noting the many international responses to the arrival of a nation born from blood fire and revolution Using blackness as a lens Salt charts the impact of Haiti s sovereignty and its blackness in the Atlantic world

Upping the Anti #6 , War on the Human Konstantinos Blatanis, Theodora Tsimpouki, 2017-05-11 The essays in this collection explore the question of the human both as a contested concept and as it relates to and functions within the wider global conjuncture The authors explore the theoretical underpinnings of the term human inviting the reader to reflect upon the contemporary human condition to identify opportunities and threats in the changes ahead and to determine what aspects of our species we should abandon or strive to maintain The volume approaches these ideas from a myriad of perspectives but the authors are united in their abstention from rejecting humanism outright or indeed fully endorsing posthumanism s teleological narrative of accelerated progress and perfectability Instead the authors argue that the term human itself is better understood as a concept perpetually undergoing revision and is necessarily subject to scrutiny The contributors here are thus concerned with investigating the following questions What does it mean to be human or to have a self What is the current place or status of the human in the contemporary world As technology is increasingly used to modify our bodies and minds to what extent should we alter and how can we improve our very understanding of human nature The authors contend that literature is the art form best placed to answer these questions In its dynamism and discursiveness literature has the capacity to both reflect dominant discourses and ideologies as well as to generate and even anticipate social change to critique and refine conventional ideas and existing cultural modes and to envision new possibilities for the future The human and its literary representation in other words are inherently intertwined

The Perfect Revolution The Very Revd. Stuart W. Lambert, 2014-01-02 In The Perfect Revolution author Stuart W Lambert examines from an ethical perspective what has been previously understood as human development and addresses the corruption of the moral good in that realm Building on Lambert's master's thesis this study demonstrates how the prevailing immoral human development policies and practices under the sway of globally entrenched Friedmanite Reaganite Revolutionary Capitalist philosophy exponentially multiplies structural inequality and represents a choice for death Lambert outlines the next generation UNDP MDG program predicated on needs based rights and points the way forward to the flowering of human development flowing from adopting an ethically centered approach together with a broader social justice methodology The Perfect Revolution communicates that the worlds of theology philosophy and academia must always be in the service of practical moral living

Stories That Bind Madhavi Murty, 2022-05-13 Stories that Bind Political Economy and Culture in New India examines the assertion of authoritarian nationalism and neoliberalism both backed by the authority of the state and argues that contemporary India should be understood as the intersection of the two More importantly the book reveals through its focus on India and its complex media landscape that this intersection has a narrative form which author Madhavi Murty labels spectacular realism The book shows that the intersection of neoliberalism with authoritarian nationalism is strengthened by the circulation of stories about emergence renewal development and mobility of the nation and its people It studies stories told through film journalism and popular non fiction along with the stories narrated by political and corporate leaders to argue that Hindu nationalism and neoliberalism are conjoined in popular culture and that consent for this political economic project is crucially won in the domain of popular culture Moving between mediascapes to create an archive of popular culture Murty advances our understanding of political economy through material that is often seen as inconsequential namely the popular cultural story These stories stoke our desires e g for wealth scaffold our instincts e g for a strong leadership and shape our values

Higher Education and Disaster Capitalism in the Age of COVID-19 Marina Vujnovic, Johanna E. Foster, 2022-11-09 This book reveals the layered effects of the corporatization of higher education situated within the phenomenon of disaster capitalism The authors argue that higher education administrators have seized on the Covid 19 pandemic as an opportunity to advance a corporate higher education agenda consistent with the principles of disaster capitalism This crisis deeply impacts what and how students in the United States learn who gets to learn and the very mission of the academy Chapters also address neoliberalism as a policy statement that has reshaped and continues to shape higher education in the United States and in much of Western societies

World Christianity and Covid-19 Chammah J. Kaunda, 2022-12-13 This volume explores how Christians around the world have made sense of the meaning of suffering in the context of and post COVID 19 It interrogates the question of God suffering and structural injustice Further it discusses the Christian response to the compounded threats of racial injustice climate injustice wildlife injustice gender injustice economic injustice political injustice unjust in the distributions of the vaccine and future challenges in the post COVID 19 era The contributions are authored by scholars students activists and clergy from various fields of inquiry and church traditions The volume seeks to deepen Christian understanding of the meaning of suffering in the context of COVID 19 pandemic It explores the fresh ways the pandemic can contribute to reconceptualizing human relations and specifically what it means to be human in the context of suffering the place of or justifications of God in suffering human place in creation and the role of the church in re articulating the theological meanings and praxes of suffering for today

A Buddha Land in This World Lajos Brons, 2022 In the early twentieth century Uchiyama Gud Seno o Gir Lin Qiuwu and others advocated a Buddhism that was radical in two respects Firstly they adopted a more or less naturalist stance with respect to Buddhist doctrine and related matters rejecting karma or other supernatural beliefs And secondly they held political and economic views that were radically anti hegemonic anti capitalist and revolutionary Taking the idea of such a radical Buddhism seriously A Buddha Land in This World Philosophy Utopia and Radical Buddhism asks whether it is possible to develop a philosophy that is simultaneously naturalist anti capitalist Buddhist and consistent Rather than a study of radical Buddhism then this book is an attempt to radicalize it The foundations of this radicalized radical Buddhism are provided by a realist interpretation of Yog c ra elucidated and elaborated with some help from thinkers in the broader Tiantai Tendai tradition and American philosophers Donald Davidson and W V O Quine A key implication of this foundation is that only this world and only this life are real from which it follows that if Buddhism aims to alleviate suffering it has to do so in this world and in this life Twentieth century radical Buddhists as well as some engaged Buddhists came to a similar conclusion often expressed in their aim to realize a Buddha land in this world Building on this foundation but also on Mah y na moral philosophy this book argues for an ethics and social philosophy based on a definition of evil as that what is or should be expected to cause death or suffering On that ground capitalism should be rejected indeed but utopianism must be treated with caution as well which raises questions about what it means from a radicalized radical Buddhist perspective to aim for a Buddha land in this world Lajos Brons is a Dutch philosopher and social scientist living in Japan After receiving a PhD from the University of Groningen in the Netherlands for a dissertation on an aspect of the history and philosophy of the social sciences he gradually moved further and further into philosophical territory Currently Lajos is teaching logic ethics and philosophy at a university in Tokyo His research interests are divided over two broad areas in philosophy one is in the overlap of meta ethics and social political philosophy the other is in the intersection of philosophy of language metaphysics and epistemology Research in the former focuses on the relations between death suffering and compassion Research in the latter concerns the relations between language thought and reality and is heavily influenced by the philosophies of Donald Davidson and W V O Quine and by Buddhist philosophy More information about publications and research interests as well as Lajos s blog can be found at www.lajosbrons.net
