The Woman Who Fell From The Sky By Jennifer Steil:

The Woman Who Fell from the Sky Jennifer Steil, 2010-05-11 I had no idea how to find my way around this medieval city It was getting dark I was tired I didn't speak Arabic I was a little frightened But hadn't I battled scorpions in the wilds of Costa Rica and prevailed Hadn't I survived fainting in a San Jos brothel Hadn't I once arrived in Ireland with only 10 in my pocket and made it last two weeks Surely I could handle a walk through an unfamiliar town So I took a breath tightened the black scarf around my hair and headed out to take my first solitary steps through Sana'a from The Woman Who Fell From The Sky In a world fraught with suspicion between the Middle East and the West it's hard to believe that one of the most influential newspapers in Yemen the desperately poor ancestral homeland of Osama bin Laden which has made international headlines for being a terrorist breeding ground would be handed over to an agnostic Campari drinking single woman from Manhattan who had never set foot in the Middle East Yet this is exactly what happened to journalist Jennifer Steil Restless in her career and her life Jennifer a gregarious liberal New Yorker initially accepts a short term opportunity in 2006 to teach a journalism class to the staff of The Yemen Observer in Sana'a the beautiful ancient and very conservative capital of Yemen Seduced by the eager reporters and the challenging prospect of teaching a free speech model of journalism there she extends her stay to a year as the paper's editor in chief But she is quickly confronted with the realities of Yemen and their surprising advantages In teaching the basics of fair and balanced journalism to a staff that included plagiarists and polemicists she falls in love with her career again In confronting the blatant mistreatment and strict governance of women by their male counterparts she learns to appreciate the strength of Arab women in the workplace And in forging surprisingly deep friendships with women and men whose traditions and beliefs are in total opposition to her own she learns a cultural appreciation she never could have predicted What's more she just so happens to meet the love of her life With exuberance and bravery The Woman Who Fell from the Sky offers a rare intimate and often surprising look at the role of the media in Muslim culture and a fascinating cultural tour of Yemen one of the most enigmatic countries in the world

Community and Autonomy in Southern Oman Marielle Risse, 2019-06-21 This book explores how there is latitude for people to make their own choices and how the chances to assert independence change over time in a Muslim Arab tribal culture The book first gives a brief overview of day to day life in the Dhofar region of southern Oman then focuses on how the traits of self control and self respect are linked in the everyday actions of several groups of tribes who speak Gibali Jibbali also known as Shari'eret a non written Modern South Arabian language Although no work can express the totality of a culture this text describes how Gibalis are constantly shifting between preserving autonomy and signaling membership in family tribal and national communities The work reflects observations and conclusions from over ten years of research into the history and culture of the Dhofar region along with longstanding deep involvement with both men and women in the Gibali community

Yemen and the World Laurent Bonnefoy, 2018-10-05 The influence of Yemen and its people extends far beyond its nominal borders both historically and in the present day as Laurent Bonnefoy reveals We Visit Yemen Claire O'Neal, 2012 Welcome to Yemen where history comes alive Its capital Sana'a is the oldest continually inhabited city in the world The Queen of Sheba made her palace in the ruins of Marib building a wealthy kingdom from the trade of native grown frankincense and myrrh The mysterious island of Socotra is home to plants that grow nowhere else in the world like the exotic Dragon's Blood tree In this traditional Islamic country women protect their modesty with the head to toe black abaya while men wear a ceremonial dagger the jambiya at their belt Isolated by jagged mountains atop the Roof of Arabia Yemen's tribal and traditional ways have stood the test of time What happens when modern issues oil the dwindling water supply women's rights Islamic terrorism try to climb in From Chernobyl with Love Katya Cengel, 2023-05 Katya Cengel covers her time as a recent college graduate reporting from the former Soviet Union in Kyiv Ukraine and Riga Latvia shortly after the fall of Communism The Real Story of Risk Glenn Croston, 2012-11-06 We live in a world of risk It waits for us in our refrigerator and surrounds us on the freeway It's lurking in our arteries and sitting in our 401 k accounts Given that we deal with risk on a constant basis we should be good at it as it turns out though we're not We're blind to common risks like heart disease one in five deaths but we shrink in fear from rare events like shark attacks one in a million and airplane crashes one in twenty thousand What accounts for our poor ability to perceive and react to the risks that really matter Starting from an evolutionary perspective the author traces our distorted perception of risk back to our ancestors reminding readers that we are all the culmination of a long line of survivors who fought life and death threats such as attacks from wild animals starvation and disease The fact that we have covered Earth with seven billion people is a testament to our skill at overcoming these risks But our spectacular success has also produced our contemporary artificial world with new threats like climate change chili dogs and online gambling Our brains which evolved to deal with the ancient world are ill equipped to process the new threats we face Croston examines the many facets of our hazardous modern environment that we only dimly perceive He explains why we let our guard down for a beautiful face why slow moving risks like rising seas are hard to stop how a good story though false can be more persuasive than dry statistics even alarming ones what we fear even more than death and many other intriguing quirks about our built-in incompetence to adequately handle present day risks Offering a wealth of fascinating information about health sex money safety food and the environment this book illuminates an often misunderstood but crucial aspect of daily life Book Lust to Go Nancy Pearl, 2010-06-01 Adventure is just a book away as bestselling author Nancy Pearl returns with recommended reading for more than 120 destinations both worldly and imagined around the globe From Las Vegas to the Land of Oz Naples to Nigeria Philadelphia to Provence Nancy Pearl guides readers to the very best fiction and nonfiction to read about each destination Even within one country she traverses decades to suggest titles that effortlessly capture the different eras that make up a region's unique history This enthusiastic literary globetrotting guide includes stops in Korea Sweden Afghanistan Albania Parma Patagonia Texas and Timbuktu Book Lust To
