Thirst Of The Salt Mountain Trilogy Of Plays By Marin Sorescu:

The Thirst of the Salt Mountain Marin Sorescu, 1985 Translated from the Romanian by Andrea Deletant Brenda Walker Jonah The Verger and The Matrix are existential plays in surrealist poetry A mixture of poetry metaphysics and common sense they are ideal for the imaginative director and are easily adapted for radio or small acting areas East Central Europe and Communism Sabrina P. Ramet, 2023-03-23 The communists of East Central Europe came to power promising to bring about genuine equality paying special attention to achieving gender equality to build up industry and create prosperous societies and to use music art and literature to promote socialist ideals Instead they never succeeded in filling more than a third of their legislatures with women and were unable to make significant headway against entrenched patriarchal views they considered it necessary with the sole exception of Albania to rely heavily on credits to build up their economies eventually driving them into bankruptcy and the effort to instrumentalize the arts ran aground in most of the region already by 1956 and in Yugoslavia by 1949 Communism was all about planning control and politicization Except for Yugoslavia after 1949 the communists sought to plan and control not only politics and the economy but also the media and information religious organizations culture and the promotion of women which they understood in the first place as involving putting women to work Inspired by the groundbreaking work of Robert K Merton on functionalist theory this book shows how communist policies were repeatedly undermined by unintended consequences and outright dysfunctions Ceausescu and the Securitate Dennis Deletant, 2016-12-05 First Published in 2017 This book contains Deletant s research and view that an inescapable feature of life in Romania under Ceausescu was the ubiquity of the Securitate or the security police known officially for much of the period as the Department of State Security of the Ministry of the Interior He seeks to right the omission in Romanian literature until now of the mechanism of terror which Stalin used in Romania to enforce his will and about the organisation of the Department of State Security Romania Peter Siani-Davies, Mary Siani-Davies, 1998 The Revolution of 1989 dramatically brought Romania to international prominence as an absorbed world watched the bloody aftermath of the overthrow of Nicolae Ceausescu live in television These pictures of violence were soon joined by others including those depicting the plight of children placed in state care which brutally revealed the extent of the country s suffering under Communism Error of being Ion Caraion, Marguerite Dorian, Elliott B. Urdang, 1994 Bilingual Romanian English Caraion was one of Romania s leading poets a major voice of the European war generation His poems have been widely translated and anthologized abroad but this is the first extensive English publication The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1979 The Comedy of Revelation Francesca Aran Murphy, 2000-01-01 A highly readable and illuminating approach to biblical scholarship from the author of Christ the Form of Beauty At a time when new approaches to biblical analysis are proliferating Francesca Murphy opens up the literary dimension of the Bible

using a lively form of narrative criticism developing a doctrine of revelation which is both original and radically traditional Murphy argues that the Bible is written imaginatively and that the best way to understand its meaning is to imagine how to perform or dramatize it She follows the sequence of heroes and heroines who carry the plot from Genesis to Revelation and presents a fresh and remarkable picture of biblical revelation as the performance of God's image in history captured by its writers moral imagination Ceaușescu and the Securitate Dennis Deletant, 1995 Young Poets of a New Romania Ion Stoica, 1991 Stand Magazine, 1985 Crosscurrent, 1986 Romanian Civilization, 1995 Drama, 1986 The Biggest Egg in the World Marin Sorescu, 1987 Hatched in Belfast by a clutch of poets egged on by the Romanian poet eight writers well up the poetry pecking order cooked up this book in tribute to the Romanian master chef These are not hard boiled translations but lightly scrambled versions and if some seem flavoured with Heaney Hughes or Constantine that's quite in keeping with the anarchic free ranging spirit of Sorescu's comic genius Our poets have poached freely from the original ingredients and whisked up a soufflé of intriguing flavour and virtuosity The translations are by Ted Hughes Seamus Heaney D J Enright David Constantine Michael Longley Paul Muldoo and William Scammell working with literal versions by Ioana Russell Gebbett and by Michael Hamburger Vlad Dracula the Impaler Marin Sorescu, 1987 What has fifteenth century Wallachia to do with twentieth century civilization Everything This play by Romania's most controversial poet and playwright shows a ravaged land a world full of whispers and spies injustice and despair where suspicion is rife ruled by martyr or madman The Bridge Marin Sorescu, 2004 Winner of the Corneliu M Popescu Prize for European Poetry in Translation The Bridge is Marin Sorescu's farewell to life a book of wryly quizzical poems composed from his sickbed over five weeks as he waited for death to take him his testament not just to human mortality and pain but to resistance and creative transformation The Bridge is unlike any other poetry book like a medieval dance of death but sombre in movement a procession of breathlessly spoken painfully comic poems Marin Sorescu was a cheerfully melancholic comic genius and one of the most original voices in Romanian literature His mischievous poetry and satirical plays earned him great popularity during the Communist era While his witty ironic parables were not directly critical of the regime Romanians used to a culture of double speak could read other meanings in his playful mockery of the human condition But later like a hapless character from one of his absurdist dramas the peasant born people's poet was made Minister of Culture Rumanian Review, 1982
