Merleau-Ponty and the Art of Perception Duane H. Davis, William S. Hamrick, 2016-03-01 This collection of essays brings together diverse but interrelated perspectives on art and perception based on the philosophy of Maurice Merleau Ponty Although Merleau Ponty focused almost exclusively on painting in his writings on aesthetics this collection also considers poetry literary works theater and relationships between art and science In addition to philosophers the contributors include a painter a photographer a musicologist and an architect This widened scope offers important philosophical benefits testing and providing evidence for the empirical applicability of Merleau Ponty s aesthetic writings The central argument is that for Merleau Ponty the account of perception is also an account of art and vice versa In the philosopher s writings art and perception thus intertwine necessarily rather than contingently such that they can only be distinguished by abstraction As a result his account of perception and his account of art are organic interdependent and dynamic The contributors examine various aspects of this intertwining across different artistic media each ingeniously revealing an original perspective on this intertwining

Daughters of the Revolution James D. Lester,1996 Swarm of Five Francis DiPietro,2006-08 Stories in Swarm of Five stand in complimentary contrast to one another united by an arc of succulent imagery and memorable characters From the wild chaotic wry and politically apocalyptic overtones of Beat Me Sweetly Heavy Jesus to the subtle complexities of retelling the life of an unknown hero in Legacy of a Teacher DiPietro strives to capture a diverse sampling from the borderlands of storytelling The pseudo autobiographical parody of Groveling Music The Soundtrack to My Remarried Life presents the most engaging glimpse yet into the mind of this longtime author and veteran of the final age of pulp magazines with DiPietro escaping to a park in Texas for six days while his new wife half his age goes to a resort spa to pamper herself at his expense Insecurities and bawdy reminiscences abound as DiPietro aging and rueful of his diminishing sexual prowess travels the lonely spaces of America in deep thought and strange mood Shorter works of The Dojo Demon and When Pickpockets Collide are experimental and wide ranging psychological fantasies which explore the oft dirty and unenviable depths of human machination Swarm of Five accomplishes the difficult task of offering engaging tales in a spectrum of tastes and textures

Unequal Learning Xin Xiang,2025 Inequality has been soaring across the globe in the past decades And the reproduction of inequality begins early in the life cycle in homes and schools In Unequal Learning Xin Xiang analyzes the different kinds of learning that goes on in four drastically different Chinese schools a rural school in a mountainous area a public school in an impoverished region of an emerging city a low cost private school serving rural migrants and a prestigious metropolitan public school that attracts the children of elite professionals and government officials As she shows the different learning opportunities available in these four communities contribute to the widening gulf between the rising metropolitan middle class and China's working classes Within classrooms children in urban elite schools experience pedagogies drastically different from those in less privileged communities despite the common preoccupation with preparing for exams Outside classrooms urban elite children learn to lead collaborate and compete through a variety of organized activities while rural children acquire competency in farm and household work Though these particular schools are located in China Xiang demonstrates how these four Chinese schools and communities reflect global trends as much as local peculiarities Ultimately addressing these pervasive and deep rooted educational inequalities requires moving beyond the paradigms of closing achievement gaps and reducing learning poverty Xiang calls for a thorough rethinking of whose knowledge and contribution counts and what good schools look like in China and beyond Powerfully argued and deeply researched this will be essential reading not just for scholars of China but anyone interested in how education systems both reproduce and exacerbate inequality

Metamorphoses of the Zoo Ralph R. Acampora, 2010-06-14 Metamorphoses of the Zoo Animal Encounter After Noah is a volume dedicated to radically transformative approaches to spaces set aside as zoological parks or gardens Historically these establishments served as symbols of power and venues for entertainment but today they have taken to portraying themselves as flagships of environmental education scientific research and wildlife conservation Along with the past century's turn in exhibition design toward increasingly naturalistic architecture such portrayals have been received by many in an uncritically positive light At the same time it remains clear that zoos are immensely popular attractions drawing hundreds of millions of visitors globally per year This level of participation is consistent with the suggestion that humans harbor a strong sense of biophilia one which moves them to seek out diverse life forms when their own territories become too biologically homogenous from such a vantage it is no accident that zoos are most often situated in urban izing areas Metamorphoses of the Zoo emphasizes creative and reconstructive analyses of zoos that do not simply advocate marginal reform or quick abolition By focusing on issues such as interspecies progress and eco psychological health this unique collection will satisfy those in disciplines ranging from ecophilosophy to humanistic psychology to environmental studies Discovering Literature, Grade 6, Student Edition McGraw-Hill,1990-06-01 English Competence Handbook Paul Kalkstein,Thomas J.
