Conversations with Dorothy Allison Dorothy Allison, 2012-05-09 Since the publication of her groundbreaking novel Bastard Out of Carolina 1992 Dorothy Allison b 1949 has been known as with Larry Brown and Lee Smith as a purveyor of the gritty contemporary South that in many ways is worlds away from prevailing Southern Gothic representations of the region Allison has frequently used her position through passionate lectures and enthusiastic interviews to give voice to issues dear to her poverty working class life domestic violence feminism and women s relationships the contemporary South and gay lesbian life Often called a writer rock star and a cult icon Allison is a true performer of the written word At the same time Allison also takes the craft of writing very seriously In this collection spanning almost two decades Allison the performer and Allison the careful craftsman both emerge creating a portrait of a complex woman The interviews detail Allison s working class background in Greenville South Carolina as the daughter of a waitress Allison discusses with candor and quick wit her upbringing her work in a variety of modes novels short stories essays poetry and her active participation in the women s movement of the 1970s In the absence of a biography of Allison s life Conversations with Dorothy Allison presents Allison s perspectives on her life literature and her confessions over her role as a public figure Linking her work with African American writers such as Zora Neale Hurston and Toni Morrison Allison pioneered the genre of working class literature writing a world that is often overlooked and understudied

Turning Points in Qualitative Research Yvonna S. Lincoln, Norman K. Denzin, 2004-09-08 This is a book of signposts of key turning points of Gregory Bateson s knots tied in a handkerchief Each article reproduced in this volume edited by leading qualitative methodologists Lincoln and Denzin represents one of these turning points in qualitative research a revolution in the way research is conceptualized and practiced Authority representation legitimation ethics methods presentation even the purpose of qualitative research have all been transformed by these articles and the authors who penned them Bringing together the work of scholars from Haraway to Geertz Mead to Mishler Clifford to Conquergood Laurel Richardson to Miles Richardson the editors are able trace the changes in the discipline over the past five decades A necessary addition to the shelf of all researchers it will also be a key textbook for training the next generation of scholars in the history and trajectory of qualitative research

Sharing Breath Sheila Batacharya, Yuk-Lin Renita Wong, 2018-10-31 Treating bodies as more than discursive in social research can feel out of place in academia As a result embodiment studies remain on the outside of academic knowledge construction and critical scholarship However embodiment scholars suggest that investigations into the profound division created by privileging the mind intellect over the body spirit are integral to the project of decolonization The field of embodiment theorizes bodies as knowledgeable in ways that include but are not solely cognitive The contributors to this collection suggest developing embodied ways of teaching learning and knowing through embodied experiences such as yoga mindfulness illness and trauma Although the contributors challenge Western educational frameworks from within and beyond academic settings they also acknowledge and draw attention to the incommensurability between decolonization and aspects of social justice projects in education By addressing this tension ethically and deliberately the contributors engage thoughtfully with decolonization and make a substantial and sometimes unsettling contribution to critical studies in education Assessment in Perspective Clare Landrigan,Tammy Mulligan,2013

Assessment is an integral part of instruction For the past decade the focus on assessment particularly via high stakes mandated tests has shifted away from the classroom and left teachers feeling like they are drowning in data Assessment is and needs to be again much more than a number Assessment in Perspective is about moving beyond the numbers and using assessment to find the stories they tell This book helps teachers sort through the myriad of available assessments and use each to understand different facets of their readers It discusses how to use a range of assessment types from reading conference notes and student work to running records and state tests together to uncover the strengths and weaknesses of a reader The authors share a framework for thinking about the purpose method and types of different assessments They also address the questions they ask when choosing or analyzing assessments What type of tool do we need diagnostic formative or summative formal or informal quantitative or qualitative How do we use multiple assessments together to provide an in depth picture of a reader When and how are we giving the assessment Do we want to be able to compare our readers to a standard score or do we need to diagnose a reader s needs Which area of reading does this tool assess How can we use the information from assessments to inform our instruction What information does a particular assessment tell us and what doesn t it tell us What additional information do we need about a reader to understand his or her learning needs The book emphasizes the importance of triangulating data by using varied sources both formal and informal and across multiple intervals It explains the power of looking at different types of assessments side by side with displays to find patterns or inconsistencies What s more students are included as valuable sources of data Letting students in on the process of assessment is key to helping them set goals monitor their own progress and celebrate growth When assessment is viewed in this way instruction can meet high standards and still be developmentally appropriate The Emperor Has No Clothes

Tema Okun,2010-10-01 The Emperor Has No Clothes Teaching About Race and Racism to People Who Don t Want to Know offers theoretical grounding and practical approaches for leaders and teachers interested in effectively addressing racism and other oppressive constructs The book draws both on the author s extensive experience teaching about race and racism in classroom and community settings and from the theory and practice of a wide range of educators activists and researchers committed to social justice The first chapter looks at the toxic consequences of our western cultural insistence on profit binary thinking and individualism to establish the theoretical framework for teaching about race and racism Chapter two investigates privileged resistance offering a psycho social history of denial particularly as a product of racist culture Chapter three reviews the research on the construction and reconstruction of dominant culture both historically and now in order to establish sound strategic approaches that educators teachers facilitators and activists can take as we work together to move from a culture of profit and fear to one of shared hope and love Chapter four lays out the stages of a process that supports teaching about racist white supremacy culture explaining how students can be taken through an iterative process of relationshipbuilding analysis planning action and reflection The final chapter borrows from the brilliant brave and incisive writer Dorothy Allison to discuss the things the author knows for sure about how to teach people to see that which we have been conditioned to fear knowing The chapter concludes with how to encourage and support collective and collaborative action as a critical goal of the process

The Limits of Autobiography Leigh Gilmore,2023-07-15 In The Limits of Autobiography Leigh Gilmore analyzes texts that depict trauma by combining elements of autobiography fiction biography history and theory in ways that challenge the constraints of autobiography Astute and compelling readings of works by Michel Foucault Louis Althusser Dorothy Allison Mikal Gilmore Jamaica Kincaid and Jeanette Winterson explore how each poses the questions How have I lived and How will I live in relation to the social and psychic forms within which trauma emerges First published in 2001 this new edition of one of the foundational texts in trauma studies includes a new preface by the author that assesses the gravitational pull between life writing and trauma in the twenty first century a tension that continues to produce innovative and artful means of confronting kinship violence and self representation

Constructing the Self Carmen Rueda-Ramos,Susana Jiménez Placer,2018-06-15 This volume aims to show how southerners have faced their post and constructed a self The essays in this volume explore the different personal narratives and strategies southern authors have employed to channel the autobiographical impulse and give artistic expression to their anxieties traumas and revelations as well as their relationship with the region With the discussion of different types of memoirs this volume reflects not only the transformation that this sub genre has undergone since the 1990s boom but also its flexibility as a popular form of life writing

How Feminist Writing Shapes Personal and Political Narratives Elizabeth Mackinlay,2025-08-22 How Feminist Writing Shapes Personal and Political Narratives delves into the profound influence of female writers on the author s craft and worldview This book inspired by the blog In sister explores the evocative writings of feminist thinkers and how their work shapes personal and political narratives With a rich tapestry of memory critique and creativity the author reflects on the transformative power of women s words across generations This book offers readers a collection of essays that examine the writings of iconic female authors like Marilyn French Virginia Woolf and Hélène Cixous It underscores the value of feminist citation as a form of memory and resistance fostering a deep connection with the literary legacies that shape feminist discourse Readers will find a unique blend of memoir literary analysis and social commentary that celebrates the radical potential of writing to inspire change and cultivate solidarity among women This is an essential read for those interested in feminist literature essay writing and the intersection of personal and political narratives It is particularly relevant for scholars students and enthusiasts of women s studies literary criticism and those seeking inspiration from the powerful voices of female writers This book is a tribute to the enduring legacy of feminist writing and its ability to transform lives and societies

Skill in Action Michelle Cassandra Johnson, 2020-11-03 Transform your yoga practice into a force for creating social change with this concise eloquent guide to social justice tools and skills Skill in Action asks you to explore the deeply transformational practice of yoga as a way to become an agent of social change and work toward a just world Through yoga practices and philosophy this book explores liberation for ourselves and others while asking us to engage in our own agency whether that manifests as activism volunteer work or changing our relationships with others and ourselves To provide a strong foundation to begin this work Michelle Cassandra Johnson clearly defines power and privilege oppression liberation and suffering and invites you to make changes in your life that promote equality and freedom for all Each chapter ends with a breathwork asana meditation or interpersonal relational practice to help you incorporate this wisdom into your daily life Each of the practices extend beyond the individual to offer resources and tools to shift institutional policies and procedures in a culture that has left all of us negatively impacted by white supremacy and social inequity We must awaken to the injustice and suffering of marginalized communities and we must use our voices and actions toward the liberation of all people

Shifting Borders Jean-François Bélisle, Reid Cooper, Luke Nicholson, 2021-02-19 Shifting Borders brings together new research on visual culture by scholars located across North America This compilation of essays explores the notion of borders in a range of domains including art history architecture art theory video games performance art artistic creation and photography The authors seek to address contemporary concerns affecting larger society through the lens of visual culture The world is becoming increasingly globalized as nations and multilateral organizations advocate freer international trade the sharing of technological and political ideas and multiculturalism Yet despite a rhetorical attachment to the message of lower national barriers there has been a concomitant rise in veiled borders These barriers promise to maintain cultural exclusion and economic hegemony The essays in this volume share a desire to re-examine inherited knowledge systems to redefine the terms of debate and create spaces that more accurately reflect a just reality While this is not the unique purview of Postmodern ethics what is novel here is the willingness of the authors of these essays and the artists they investigate to identify with dwell in and expand upon the margins of their particular subject matter The essays presented in Shifting Borders have the force to open up new forms and understandings of cultural difference and initiate new perspectives in and beyond their respective domains

On the Politics of Ugliness Sara Rodrigues, Ela Przybylo, 2018-08-29 Ugliness or unsightliness is much more than a quality or property of an individual s appearance it has long functioned as a social category that demarcates access to social cultural and political spaces and capital The editors of and authors in this collection harness intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches in order to examine ugliness as a political category that is deployed to uphold established notions of worth and entitlement On the Politics of Ugliness identifies and challenges the harmful effects that labels and feelings of ugliness have on individuals and the socio political order It explores ugliness in relation to the intersectional processes of racialization colonization and settler colonialism gender making ableism heteronormativity and fatphobia On the Politics of Ugliness asks that we fight against visual injustice and imagine new ways of seeing
