A Death of the World Harris B. Bechtol, 2025-04-01 A Death of the World offers a phenomenological description of what happens to the world for those who survive the death of someone Bringing Jacques Derrida's works into conversation with the philosophies of Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas Jean-Luc Marion Maurice Blanchot and Claude Romano the poetry and literature of Paul Celan W.H. Auden Emily Dickinson Ovid and Jonathan Safran Foer and psychological works concerning trauma mourning epigenetics and memory author Harris B. Bechtol provides interdisciplinary language for understanding the death of the other as an event He argues that such death must be understood as an event because this death is more than just the loss of the other who has died insofar as the meaning of the world to and with this other is also lost Such loss manifests itself through the transformations of both the spaces in which meaning takes place and the lived time of a survivor's world These transformations of the world culminate in his account of workless mourning which establishes the contours of the life after these deaths of the world
