Thomas The Obscure By Maurice Blanchot:

Thomas the Obscure Maurice Blanchot, 1988 Originally published in English New York David Lewis Inc 1973 "The Passion of the Outside" Patricia Pericic, 2003 Maurice Blanchot Ullrich Haase, William Large, 2001-02-15 Without Maurice Blanchot literary theory as we know it today would have been unthinkable Jacques Derrida Paul de Man Michel Foucault Roland Barthes Gilles Deleuze all are key theorists crucially influenced by Blanchot's work This accessible guide works idea by idea through Blanchot's writings anchoring them in historical and intellectual contexts examines Blanchot's understanding of literature death ethics and politics and the relationship between these themes unravels even Blanchot's most complex ideas for the beginner sketches the lasting impact of Blanchot's work on the field of critical theory For those trying to come to grips with contemporary literary theory and modern French thought the best advice is to start at the beginning begin with Blanchot and begin with this guide Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay's reputation as one of today's premier cultural and intellectual historians

Maurice Blanchot Carolyn Bailey Gill, 2005-08-04 This timely collection of essays is the first to be written on the work of Maurice Blanchot in English One of the finest writers of our time Blanchot is a contemporary of Bataille and Levinas his writing has influenced the likes of Derrida and Foucault Eminent commentators featured here include Simon Critchley Paul Davies Christopher Fynsk Rodolphe Gasche Leslie Hill Michael Holland Jeffery Mehlman Roger Laporte Ian MacLachlan Marie Claire Ropars Willeumier Gillian Rose and Ann Smock The essays consider the political implications of Blanchot's questioning the relationship between philosophy and literature In addition the provocative issue of Blanchot's politics during the 1930s is clarified by a letter from Blanchot to one of the contributors published here for the first time Maurice Blanchot

The Demand of Writing is a crucial selection for all students of philosophy literature or French studies

Inner Experience Georges Bataille, 2014-07-22 Outlines a mystical theology and experience of the sacred founded on the absence of god Originally published in 1943 Inner Experience is the single most significant work by one of the twentieth century's most influential writers It outlines a mystical theology and experience of the sacred founded on the absence of god Bataille calls Inner Experience a narrative of despair but also describes it as a book wherein profundity and passion go tenderly hand in hand Herein he says The mind moves in a strange world where anguish and ecstasy take shape Bataille's search for experience begins where religion philosophy science and literature leave off where doctrines dogmas methods and the arts collapse His method of meditation outlined and documented here commingles horror and delight Laughter intoxication eroticism poetry and sacrifice are pursued not as ends in and of themselves but as means of access to a sovereign realm of inner experience This new translation is the first to include Method of Meditation and Post Scriptum 1953 the supplementary texts Bataille added to create the first volume of his Summa Atheologica This edition also offers the full notes and annotations from the French edition of Bataille's Oeuvres Complètes along with an incisive introductory essay by Stuart Kendall that situates the work historically biographically and philosophically

Maurice Blanchot and Fragmentary Writing Leslie Hill, 2012-07-05 The first book to provide a detailed account of fragmentary writing in the work of the French novelist critic and thinker Maurice Blanchot 1907-2003

Language and Negativity in European Modernism Shane Weller, 2019 Proposes that a distinct strain of literary modernism emerged in Europe in response to historical catastrophe

The Eroticization of Distance Joseph D. Kuzma, 2016-07-26 In The Eroticization of Distance Nietzsche Blanchot and the Legacy of Courtly Love Joseph D Kuzma explores the significance of courtly erotic themes in Friedrich Nietzsche's mature philosophy and in Maurice Blanchot's writings of the 1940s and early 1950s Rather than offering an account of erotic relationality that prioritizes reconciliation fulfillment or release Nietzsche attempts to formulate a nonteleological eroticism that aims at nothing but the perpetual intensification of desire Kuzma suggests that it is Blanchot who carries Nietzsche's courtly erotic tendencies to their most provocative point by highlighting potentials for intimate relationality that might be established through a shared experience of dispossession and loss This first monograph to engage specifically with the theme of eroticism in Blanchot's writings will be of interest not only to students and scholars of Nietzsche Blanchot or French philosophy but also anyone interested in the philosophy of sexuality the history of love theories of the emotions or nineteenth and twentieth century European thought more generally

Doubting Thomas Glenn W. Most, 2007-09-30 About the disciple known as Doubting Thomas everyone knows at least this much he stuck his finger into the risen Jesus' wounds Or did he A fresh look at the Gospel of John reveals how little we may really understand about this most perplexing of biblical figures and how much we might learn from the strange twists and turns Thomas's story has taken over time From the New Testament

Glenn W Most traces Thomas's permutations through the centuries as Gnostic saint missionary to India paragon of Christian orthodoxy hero of skepticism and negative example of doubt blasphemy stupidity and violence Rife with paradoxes and tensions these creative transformations at the hands of storytellers theologians and artists tell us a great deal about the complex relations between texts and their interpretations and about faith love personal identity the body and twins among other matters Doubting Thomas begins with a close reading of chapter 20 of the Gospel of John set against the conclusions of the other Gospels and ends with a detailed analysis of the painting of this subject by Caravaggio setting it within the pictorial traditions of late antiquity the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Along the way Most considers narrative reactions to John's account by storytellers of various religious persuasions and Christian theologians interpretations of John 20 from the second century ad until the Counter Reformation His work shows how Thomas's story in its many guises touches upon central questions of religion philosophy hermeneutics and not least life

Maurice Blanchot Christophe Bident, 2018-11-20 Maurice Blanchot 1907-2003 was one of the most important writers of the twentieth century His novels shorter narratives literary criticism and fragmentary texts exercised enormous influence over several generations of writers artists and philosophers In works such as Thomas the Obscure The Instant of my Death The Writing of the Disaster The Unavowable Community Blanchot produced some of the most incisive statements of what it meant to experience the traumas and turmoils of the twentieth century As a journalist and political activist Blanchot had a public side that coexisted uneasily with an inclination to secrecy a refusal of interviews and photographs and a reputation for mysteriousness and seclusion These public and private Blanchots came together in complicated ways at some of the twentieth century's most momentous occasions He was among the public intellectuals participating in the May 68 revolution in Paris and helped organize opposition to the Algerian war During World War II he found himself moments away from being executed by the Nazis More controversially he had been active in far right circles in the 30s Now translated into English Christophe Bident's magisterial scrupulous much praised critical biography provides the first full length account of Blanchot's itinerary drawing on unpublished letters and on interviews with the writer's close friends But the book is both a biography and far more Beyond filling out a life famous for its obscurity Bident's book will transform the way readers of Blanchot respond to this major intellectual figure by offering a genealogy of his thought a distinctive trajectory that is at once imaginative and speculative at once aligned with literary modernity and a close companion and friend to philosophy The book is also a historical work unpacking the transformation of convictions of an author who moved from the far right in the 1930s to the far left in the 1950s and after Bident's extensive archival research explores the complex ways that Blanchot's work enters into engagement with his contemporaries making the book also a portrait of the circles in which he moved which included friends such as Georges Bataille Marguerite Duras Emmanuel Levinas Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida Finally the book traces the strong links between Blanchot's life and an oeuvre that nonetheless aspires to anonymity Ultimately Bident shows how Blanchot's life itself becomes an oeuvre becomes a literature that bears the traces of that life secretly In its even handed appraisal Bident s sophisticated reading of Blanchot s life together with his work offers a much needed corrective to the range of cruder accounts whether from Blanchot s detractors or from his champions of a life too easily sensationalized This definitive biography of a seminal figure of our time will be essential reading for anyone concerned with twentieth century literature thought culture and politics

Language Without Sense Pietro Barbetta,2025-06-04 The book is about languages before or outside sense Sinn and meaning Deutung It does not concern language as a tool for digital communication but languages as expressions in children autistic persons aphasics Pentecostals and performances of glossolalia in poetry religion and delusion The book presents reference to Theatre Antonin Artaud Literature including Louis Wolfson Daniel Schreber the last days of Friedrich Hlderlin Lewis Carroll s Through the Looking Glass portmanteau words James Joyce s Finnegans Wake Maurice Blanchot s narrative and other art forms such as Meta Semantic Poetry singing voices and refrains At the same time and in connection with the literature ritual chants voices and expressions the book analyses Melanie Klein s psychoanalytic theory from a Deleuzian point of view how it works the Kleinian schizoid position in the body without organs Deleuzian theory It is a book in between psychotherapy psychoanalysis ethno clinics systemic transcultural psychotherapy and literature poetry It is a distinctive and original conceptual exploration connecting clinical psychology with literature but also with neurology psychiatric discourses ethnography and cognitive psychology

Catastrophe & Spectacle Martina Bengert,Vittoria Borsò,Davide Caliaro,Jörg Dünne,Jean-Pierre Dupuy,Jörn Etzold,Gesine Hindemith,Marie-Hélène Huet,Walburga Hülk-Althoff,Judith Kasper,Françoise Lavocat,Bettine Menke,Markus Ophälders,Giulia Palladini,Kati Röttger,Gianluca Solla,Johannes Ungelenk,2018-02-14 From epidemics in the 17th century and the Lisbon earthquake in 1755 to Guernica in World War II the essays in this volume trace the development of the catastrophic imagination relying heavily on pictorial media and different forms of staging Catastrophe in its modern sense seems to be inextricably linked to its spectacular representation be it on the stage on screen or in popular amusement parks But the modern relationship between catastrophe and spectacle is also increasingly confronting us with the unimaginable side of catastrophe particularly with regard to the Holocaust and in more recent times to the daily experience of refugees The essays in this volume elucidate images of the catastrophes that have inspired them by providing a textual commentary that makes it possible to reconsider how the spectacular and the catastrophic are interrelated Thus the essays not only deal with the emergence of the modern spectacular imagination of catastrophe in terms of the history of both discourse and media they also present themselves as a critique of catastrophe one based on close readings of the scenes and images in question

works and as an objectless hope Nancy deconstructs Christianity in search of the historical and reflective conditions that provided its initial energy Working through Blanchot and Nietzsche re reading Heidegger and Derrida Nancy turns to the Epistle of Saint James rather than those of Saint Paul discerning in it the primitive essence of Christianity as hope The religion that provided the exit from religion as he terms Christianity consists in the announcement of an end It is the announcement that counts however rather than any finality In this announcement there is a proximity to others and to what was once called parousia But parousia is no longer presence it is no longer the return of the Messiah Rather it is what is near us and does not cease to open and to close a presence deferred yet imminent In a demystified age where we are left with a vision of a self enclosed world in which humans are no longer mortals facing an immortal being but entities whose lives are accompanied by the time of their own decline parousia stands as a question Can we venture the risk of a decentered perspective such that the meaning of the world can be found both inside and outside within and without our so immanent world
