Two Little Savages Ernest Thompson Seton,2020-03-08 YAN was much like other twelve year old boys in having a keen interest in Indians and in wild life but he differed from most in this that he never got over it Indeed as he grew older he found a yet keener pleasure in storing up the little bits of woodcraft and Indian lore that pleased him as a boy His father was in poor circumstances He was an upright man of refined tastes but indolent a failure in business easy with the world and stern with his family He had never taken an interest in his son s wildwood pursuits and when he got the idea that they might interfere with the boy s education he forbade them altogether There was certainly no reason to accuse Yan of neglecting school He was the head boy of his class although there were many in it older than 20 himself He was fond of books in general but those that dealt with Natural Science and Indian craft were very close to his heart Not that he had many there were very few in those days and the Public Library had but a poor representation of these Lloyd s Scandinavian Sports Gray s Botany and one or two Fenimore Cooper novels these were all and Yan was devoted to them He was a timid obedient boy in most things but the unwise command to give up what was his nature merely made him a disobedient boy turned a good boy into a bad one He was too much in terror of his father to disobey openly but he used to sneak away at all opportunities to the fields and woods and at each new bird or plant he found he had an exquisite thrill of mingled pleasure and pain the pain because he had no name for it or means of learning its nature Ernest Thompson Seton David L.
