White Lightning By Justin Cartwright:

White Lightning Justin Cartwright, 2020-07-23 The Whitbread shortlisted novel from the bestselling author of THE PROMISE OF HAPPINESS Brilliant dazzling unsettling subtle and haunting complex and multi layered deeply moving Independent on Sunday Cartwright is a brilliant observer and writes extremely well he has produced an X ray of modern man's soul Evening Standard A motorcycle messenger goes into a small park in London to paint the words White Lightning on the tank of his bike This is the beginning of an extraordinary novel It is told over the space of a few months and in these few months one man's whole life his failures his successes his longing for peace and fulfilment his loves and his tragedies are recounted These memories include his film Suzi Crispin Night Nurse and the darkest moment the death of his son which has haunted him He inherits a small amount of money and buys a rundown farm in South Africa where he dreams of creating an Arcadia On the farm is a captive baboon Piet who becomes startlingly involved in his new life He also has a love affair with a local woman and becomes hauntingly involved with an African family of squatters All the while the narrator contemplates his own life back in England and so the novel is also a sharp commentary on what Englishness means This is a novel about the human enterprise It is surprising tender funny and utterly original

Culture and the Rites/Rights of Grief Zbigniew Białas, Paweł Jędrzejko, Julia Szołtysek, 2013-09-20 Although generally resented and deemed unfavourable for individuals societies and nations grief grievance and grieving along with a complex list of epithets that could under varying circumstances accompany them racial grief political grievance protracted grieving chronic grief traumatic unresolved grievance nevertheless occupy a significant place in culture and its manifestations in literature art history science and politics Culture and the Rites Rights of Grief offers an intellectual excursion into realms of potentially regenerative problematics too frequently dismissed without due consideration In this light the volume constitutes a weighty contribution to the field of literary and cultural studies First and foremost however Culture and the Rites Rights of Grief is to be intellectually enjoyed by readers with an interest in present day literary cultural and political phenomena at the intersection of which grief and grieving execute an imposing presence albeit one that remains as indeterminate and flitting as the nature of contemporary cross cultural and cross disciplinary encounters

Dance of Life Gail Fincham, 2012-04-22 In recent years the work of Zakes Mda novelist painter composer theater director and filmmaker has attracted worldwide critical attention Gail Fincham's book examines the five novels Mda has written since South Africa's transition to democracy Ways of Dying 1995 The Heart of Redness 2000 The Madonna of Excelsior 2002 The Whale Caller 2005 and Cion 2007 Dance of Life explores how refigured identity is rooted in Mda's strongly painterly imagination that creates changed spaces in memory and culture Through a combination of magic realism African orature and intertextuality with the Western canon Mda rejects dualistic thinking of the past and the present the human and the nonhuman the living and the dead the rural and the urban He imbues his fictional characters with the power to orchestrate a reconfigured subjectivity that is simultaneously political social and aesthetic Local Natures, Global Responsibilities ,2010-01-01 In the New Literatures in English nature has long been a paramount issue the environmental devastation caused by colonialism has left its legacy with particularly disastrous consequences for the most vulnerable parts of the world At the same time social and cultural transformations have altered representations of nature in postcolonial cultures and literatures It is this shift of emphasis towards the ecological that is addressed by this volume A fast expanding field ecocriticism covers a wide range of theories and areas of interest particularly the relationship between literature and other texts and the environment Rather than adopting a rigid agenda the interpretations presented involve ecocritical perspectives that can be applied most fruitfully to literary and non literary texts Some are more general holistic approaches literature and other cultural forms are a living organism part of an intellectual ecosystem implemented and sustained by the interactions between the natural world both human and non human and its cultural representations Nature itself is a new interpretative category in line with other paradigms such as race class gender and identity A wide range of genres are covered from novels or films in which nature features as the main topic or protagonist to those with an ecocritical agenda as in dystopian literature Other concerns are nature as a cultural construct gendered natures and the city country dichotomy The texts treated challenge traditional Western dualisms human animal man nature woman man While such global phenomena as media old or new tourism and catastrophes permeate many of these texts there is also a dual focus on nature as the inexplicable elusive Other and the need for human agency and global responsibility Other People's Money Justin Cartwright,2011-03-07 A darkly comic novel about a rich family on the edge of ruin by the author of the Booker shortlisted In Every Face I Meet and Richard Judy selection The Promise of Happiness Other People's Money is wise droll and beautiful fiction David Mitchell What a great read this is Cartwright assembles a wonderful cast of characters in this masterpiece of a comic novel Observer A high class piece of literary entertainment Spectator The Trevelyan family is in grave trouble Their private bank of Tubal Co is on the verge of collapsing It's not the first time in its three hundred and forty year history but it may be the last A sale is under way and a number of important facts need to be kept hidden not only from the public but also from Julian Trevelyan Tubal's deeply traditional father Sir Harry who is incapacitated in the family villa in Antibes Great families great fortunes and even greater secrets collide in this gripping satirical and acutely observed story of our time To Heaven By Water Justin Cartwright,2009-07-20 Now that his wife is dead retired television news anchor David Cross believes that he is more himself than he has been for forty years When Nancy was alive he had secrets that he kept from her Now he has a secret that he must keep from his children Ed and Lucy namely that he is in some ways happier now than he was when their mother was alive To Heaven by Water is a touching and hilarious portrait of the Cross family trying in their own fashion to come to terms with their loss David knows that his children are perplexed by his increasingly compulsive behaviour while Ed's marriage to the lovely Rosalie a former ballet dancer is suffering strain and Lucy is being stalked by her ex boyfriend Both children worry that their father will soon find a new partner Over all three of them hangs the memory of Nancy The book opens as David is taking time out with his brother in the Kalahari Desert re living his tumultuous and uplifting memories of Rome where he worked on a film with Richard Burton Back home in London Ed is trying to balance his affair with a young woman in his office with his real love for his wife who is unable to conceive the child she longs for And Lucy who has just been voted No 6 in the Evening News section devoted to beautiful and brainy women is a young woman in pursuit of her real self To Heaven by Water is a wonderful story of friendship forgiveness and of love that comes from unexpected directions it is an exploration of what we might hope for from this life and in particular the possibility of transcendence Into the beautifully observed and subtly composed texture of this tale of middle class London life Justin Cartwright weaves sudden shocks that tear it apart moments of sex and revenge that appear from a cloudless sky to take the reader s breath away

Narrating our Healing Chris N van der Merwe, 2009-03-26 In the 1990 s South Africa surprised the world with a peaceful negotiated transition from armed conflict to an inclusive democracy This was followed by the ground breaking Truth and Reconciliation Commission established to confront and work through a troubled past The search for truth and reconciliation in South Africa however is far from completed the country is in many ways still burdened by unresolved individual and collective traumas In this book two academics from the University of Cape Town one a psychologist and the other a literary scholar explore the importance of narrative as a way of working through trauma Although written from within a South African context the work has a much wider relevance It offers illuminating perspectives on the process of narrating our healing the sharing of personal narratives the appropriation of literary narratives and above all the re creating of life narratives shattered by trauma It is a book about the search for meaning when all meaning seems to have been lost it deals with the overwhelming nature of traumatic suffering yet offers some hope of healing The book is remarkably overarching tailored to the needs of scientists and practitioners in the fields of psychology social work education and literature It offers a strong message to all individuals and nations who live in an atmosphere of blame shame and hopelessness Yuval Wolf Professor of Psychology and Dean of Social Sciences Bar Ilan University Narrating Our Healing is a good book in the widest sense of that adjective it is well constructed meticulously researched and likely to deepen understanding of the difficult but profoundly important subject of trauma and how to address it It is something like a handbook for living with suffering both one s own and that of others To have constructed a text that can serve such a purpose is a profoundly admirable achievement Annie Gagiano LitNet It is a timeous and exciting study that should be essential reading for anyone grappling with our present our past and our future Andr P Brink South African and international author This is one of the best books I have ever read on healing deep wounds Vam k D Volkan M D Professor Emeritus of Psychiatry at the University of Virginia We need to know the truth about what happened in South Africa during the Apartheid years Van der Merwe and Gobodo Madikizela have given us the tools to face that challenge Rolf Wolfswinkel Professor of Modern History New York University

The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature Lokangaka Losambe, Tanure Ojaide, 2024-05-16 The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature introduces world literature readers to the transnational multivocal writings of immigrant African authors Covering works produced in Europe North America and elsewhere in the world this book investigates three major aesthetic paradigms in African diasporic literature the Sankofan wave late 1960s early 1990s the Janusian wave 1990s 2020s and the Offshoots of the New Arrivants those born and growing up outside Africa Written by well established and emerging scholars of African and diasporic literatures from across the world the chapters in the book cover the works of well known and not so well known Anglophone Francophone and Lusophone writers from different theoretical positionalities and critical approaches pointing out the unique innovative artistic qualities of this major subgenre of African literature. The focus on the diasporic consciousness of the writers and their works sets this handbook apart from others that solely emphasize migration which is more of a process than the community of settled African people involved in the dynamic acts of living reflected in diasporic writings. This book will appeal to researchers and students from across the fields of Literature, Diaspora Studies, African Studies, Migration Studies and Postcolonial Studies.

Obituaries in the Performing Arts, 2018 Harris M. Lentz III, 2019-06-17 The entertainment world lost many notable talents in 2018 including movie icon Burt Reynolds, Queen of Soul Aretha Franklin, celebrity chef and food critic Anthony Bourdain, bestselling novelist Anita Shreve and influential Chicago blues artist Otis Rush. Obituaries of actors, filmmakers, musicians, producers, dancers, composers, writers, animals and others associated with the performing arts who died in 2018 are included. Date, place and cause of death are provided for each along with a career recap and a photograph. Filmographies are given for film and television performers.

The Intellectual Landscape in the Works of J. M. Coetzee Timothy J. Mehigan, Christian Moser, 2018 New essays examining the intellectual allegiances of Coetzee, arguably the most decorated and critically acclaimed writer of fiction in English today and a deeply intellectual and philosophical writer.

Post-Apartheid Gothic Mélanie Joseph-Vilain, 2021-03-19 Post-Apartheid Gothic: White South African Writers and Space analyzes the representation of space in recent works by South African writers. By combining analytical tools borrowed from Gothic studies with geocritical and postcolonial approaches, Mélanie Joseph-Vilain assesses the literary mechanisms utilized by Damon Galgut, Henrietta Rose Innes, Lauren Beukes, Justin Carwright and Lynn Freed to negotiate the complexities of post-apartheid identities in their fiction. Joseph-Vilain argues that the literary representations of emblematic places—real or imagined—the home, the farm, the city or the non-places of dystopia—express and reveal anxieties linked to the sharing of space in post-apartheid South Africa. The text successively revisits the places that have been shaping South African white writing since Olive Schreiner's African Farm; in other words, its topoi both in the etymological sense of place and in the literary sense of recurring themes or arguments. Joseph-Vilain argues that these Gothicized topoi have provided writers with tools to explore the deep anxieties generated by the redefinition of South African society as the Rainbow Nation. While focusing specifically on the South African avatars of the Gothic and their interaction with local forms and genres like the plaasroman, the text also discusses the impact of globalization on South African literary, cultural, social and political identities.
