Readings in Accounting for Management Control David Otley and Kenneth Merchant Clive Emmanuel,2013-12-19 This collection contains the main journal articles necessary to complement and support the established second edition of

Accounting for Management Control The success of the text stems from the authors commitment to examining management accounting in an organizational and behavioural context Only in this way can the contribution to the management control system be evaluated The articles contained in this volume follow the structure and content of the main book providing deeper insights into those fundamental issues of accounting control systems design and indicating the direction of future developments in research The collection contains articles with a variety of perspectives and range from as early as the 1950s through to the present The inclusion of all these papers in one volume gives the student easier access to the body of work upon which the main text is based A teacher s manual to be used in conjunction with the main text is also available This book should be of interest to senior undergraduate students of accounting and finance and university and polytechnic libraries

Developing Control Concepts in the Twentieth Century (RLE Accounting) Lee Parker, 2013-12-04 This book examines the conceptual development of control in the literature of both management and accounting disciplines from 1900 to 1980 In order to portray the development of control concepts over time the chapters are organized into sections relating to the schools of thought from which they emanated and a model of control is constructed to represent each group of concepts and their hypothesised inter relationships Having traced the development of control models a comparative analysis of historical development in the two streams of management and accounting literature is undertaken This analysis reveals a pronounced lag of accounting development behind that of management literature The reasons for this are then discussed
