Cambridge Compendium of International Commercial and Investment Arbitration Stefan Kröll, Andrea K. Bjorklund, Franco Ferrari, 2023-03-02 The Compendium like an encyclopedia contains entries for most of the foundational principles and concepts underlying arbitration Each entry takes a holistic view of international arbitration as they tackle core concepts from both a commercial and an investment arbitration perspective focusing on the fundamental issues underlying the various topics rather than on the solutions adopted in any particular jurisdiction thus making the Compendium a truly cross border transnational resource This innovative approach will allow readers to identify the commonalities as well as the differences between commercial and investment arbitration whether and where cross fertilization has taken place and what consequences it can have This approach allows the Compendium to be a tool in promoting the creation of a culture of international arbitration that considers commercial arbitration and investment arbitration as part of a whole but with certain distinct features particular to each

It puts emphasis on the practitioners' needs with a careful selection of hands on topics such as fact finding in complex disputes, the role of experts and legal reasoning and persuasion. Sensitive to contemporary challenges, the book addresses both existing questions that have evolved over time and novel topics that have not yet received sufficient attention such as the impact of technology on award drafting. The Dilemma of Consent to International Arbitration in Investment Agreements without a Forum Fernando Tupa, 2023-02-17 Fernando Tupa addresses the sometimes overlooked yet fundamental principle that consent to international arbitration is forum specific and explores its significance and practical consequences for investment tribunals. The author proposes that if there is only consent in principle to international arbitration by the host State in an investment agreement due to the lack of a forum or the unavailability of the forum contemplated therein a foreign investor would not be entitled to unilaterally initiate an investment claim against the host State under said agreement absent a subsequent agreement between the foreign investor and the host State on an arbitral forum He also draws some conclusions and warns against the dangerous consequences of ignoring this basic principle

The Settlement of Disputes in International Law John Greenwood Collier, Vaughan Lowe, 2000 In the second part of the book the emerging principles of procedural law applied in these tribunals are discussed Jacket
