Contemporary European Crime Fiction Monica Dall'Asta, Jacques Migozzi, Federico Pagello, Andrew Pepper, 2023-04-20 This book represents the first extended consideration of contemporary crime fiction as a European phenomenon. Understanding crime fiction in its broadest sense as a transmedia practice and offering unique insights into this practice in specific European countries and as a genuinely transcontinental endeavour this book argues that the distinctiveness of the form can be found in its related historical and political inquiries. It asks how the genre's excavation of Europe's history of violence and protest in the twentieth century is informed by contemporary political questions. It also considers how the genre's progressive reimagining of new identities forged at the crossroads of ethnicity gender and sexuality is offset by its bleaker assessment of the corrosive effects of entrenched social inequalities political corruption and state violence The result is a rich vibrant collection that shows how crime fiction can help us better understand the complex relationship between Europe s past present and future Seven chapters are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com The Mapping of Love and Death Jacqueline

Winspear,2011-11-28 August 1914 When war in Europe is declared a young American cartographer Michael Clifton is compelled to fight for his father s native country and sets sail for England to serve in the British Army Three years later he is listed as missing in action April 1932 After Michael s remains are unearthed in a French field his devastated parents engage investigator Maisie Dobbs hoping she can find the unnamed nurse whose love letters were among their late son s belongings It is a quest that leads Maisie back to her own bittersweet wartime love and to the discovery that Michael Clifton may not have died in combat Suddenly an exposed web of intrigue and violence threatens to ensnare the dead soldier s family and even Maisie herself as she attempts to cope with the impending loss of her mentor and the unsettling awareness that she is once again falling in love Braille Book Review ,2013 Talking Book Topics ,2014 Braille Books Library of
