Adrian Thatcher

A Healing Homiletic Preaching And Disability:

A Healing Homiletic Kathy Black, 1996-10-01 In A Healing Homiletic Preaching and Disability Kathy Black offers a unique and effective approach for preaching about disabilities By going to the heart of the gospel and drawing on the healing narratives or miracle stories Black shows how preaching affects the inclusion or exclusion of forty three million persons with disabilities from our faith communities A Healing Homiletic provides a new method of preaching about healing based on Scripture for understanding the needs of the disability community

Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

one of the most significant humanitarian crises of our time Pentecostals are uniquely positioned to respond with Spirit empowered compassion and Christlike love I Was a Stranger and You Took Me In explores Pentecostal responses to the global refugee crisis drawing from papers presented at the 53rd annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies Through an interdisciplinary lens this volume bridges biblical theological insights political and ethical challenges and practical strategies for action From reflections on peacemaking and justice to firsthand accounts of ministry at the US Mexico border these pages offer a call to action for a faith community compelled to sustain a witness of peace with justice Whether confronting war systemic injustice or climate driven displacement this book equips Pentecostals and all who care about the plight of the stranger to embody radical hospitality in personal academic and ministry contexts Written by leading Pentecostal voices it is a timely and transformative contribution to the Pentecostals Peacemaking and Social Justice series

Discover how the Spirit empowers us to welcome the stranger heal divisions and bring hope to the margins because as Pentecostals many of these strangers are us African Churches Ministering 'to and with' Persons with Disabilities Nomatter Sande, 2022-08-30 This book engages with Christian church traditions and disability issues in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe in particular It critically reflects on how the church has not done much to intentionally minister to and with persons with disabilities In the context of this volume ministering to is concerned with creating worshipping space for persons with disabilities while ministering with is connecting and identifying with persons with disabilities to meet their needs from the material life of the church The author considers a stewardship model of disability as an appropriate ministerial response to transform lives in poverty stricken postcolonial contexts The argument put forth is that the church is a living organism endowed with spiritual and material resources and that these resources should be appropriated to marginalised stakeholders The Routledge Handbook of Religion and the Body Yudit Kornberg Greenberg, George Pati, 2023-02-01 The Routledge Handbook of Religion and the Body is the first comprehensive volume to feature multireligious cross cultural perspectives on the body and embodiment Featuring multidisciplinary approaches and methodologies from the humanities and the social sciences it addresses the body and embodied religiosity in theological ethical and cultural contexts Comprised of 30 chapters by a team of international contributors the handbook is divided into four parts Theology and Embodied Religiosity Gender Sexuality and Body Regulations Ritual and Performance Religion Healing and the Future of the Body Each part examines central issues debates and problems in relation to global belief systems including embodiments of love transfiguration the secular body disability body language maternal bodies embodied emotions celibacy ecology and the body reshaping the corporal body initiation rites physiology Tantra Reiki practice religious experience technological body modifications and ethics and the body Providing a breadth of rich and innovative research it is a must read for students and scholars in religious studies theology philosophy sociology anthropology psychology history and cultural and gender studies Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Searching for Dignity John Claassens, Leslie Swartz, Len Hansen, 2013-08-01 This publication fills a unique gap in the theological and religious engagement with the issue of human disability in South Africa Combining the contributions of scholars practitioners and people living with disabilities it stands out for the way in which it promotes an interdisciplinary debate on disability and human dignity from a theological point of departure and interest The end result is a collective effort with a critical approach to the role of religion and the Christian faith tradition in particular in the social and life worlds of people living with disabilities A forceful argument is thus constructed about ways in which religion and the Christian faith tradition should change their own discourses practices and ideological presuppositions regarding the issue of human disability Cobus van Wyngaard Department of Philosophy Practical and Systematic Theology University of South Africa

Dutiful Love Elizabeth L. Hinson-Hasty, 2021-08-17 Elizabeth L Hinson Hasty pursues places where care for people with serious mental illness and their families is unraveled in the United States She picks up threads of empowerment from the Christian tradition to address the distinctive circumstances of individuals and families affected by mental illness and draws upon her own experiences as the sibling of someone with serious mental illness SMI As a scholar of theology and Christian ethics the author challenges the traditional theological explanations of disability and madness and the public policies that try to fit people with SMI into boxes and checklists made for those with minds and bodies society values as ideal Dutiful Love explores the distinctive relationship between self sacrificial love and caregiving when that duty to care extends over the course of an entire lifetime because of social limitations placed upon people with mental illness Hinson Hasty investigates how the Christian theological tradition shapes our Western understanding of normal and abnormal minds and bodies This approach to mental and physical impairment associates healing with curing but neglects the empowerment thread that is part of the gospel narrative The author encourages caregivers whether professionals friends or families to think about the concept of self giving as an alternative to self sacrifice In the context of families impacted by mental illness or degenerative disease healing is more synonymous with presence Intentional presence involves self giving listening contemplation prophetic truth telling and walking with another so that isolation stigma and shame no longer define the social realities of people with mental illness their siblings or their larger families The book includes discussion questions making it an ideal resource for individual reflection church study groups and college seminary and university classrooms Miracles : 2

Volumes Craig S. Keener, 2011-11-01 Christianity Today 2013 Book Award Winner Winner of The Foundation for Pentecostal Scholarship s 2012 Award of Excellence 2011 Book of the Year Christianbook com s Academic Blog Most modern prejudice against biblical miracle reports depends on David Hume s argument that uniform human experience precluded miracles Yet current research shows that human experience is far from uniform In fact hundreds of millions of people today claim to have experienced miracles New Testament scholar Craig Keener argues that it is time to rethink Hume s argument in light of the contemporary evidence available to us This wide ranging and meticulously researched two volume study presents the most thorough current defense of the credibility of the miracle reports in the Gospels and Acts Drawing on claims from a range of global cultures and taking a multidisciplinary approach to the topic Keener suggests that many miracle accounts throughout history and from contemporary times are best explained as genuine divine acts lending credence to the biblical miracle reports

Enabling Grace Susan Mathew, 2025-07-31 People with disabilities can face unique challenges across the globe particularly in places where there is a lack of awareness and community support for them and their families Dr Susan Mathew a distinguished biblical scholar and mother of a child with special needs presents this disability reading of the Pauline letters with a focus on 2 Corinthians 12 7b 10 in which the apostle presents a paradox of healing as he asserts that God s grace and power are made sufficient in the face of human weakness In this timely work Dr Mathew explores the theme of disability emphasizing the enabling and transformative power of grace in the lives of persons with disabilities She brings thorough biblical exegesis and theological insight together with her extensive experience in the ministry of support care and empowerment of children with special needs to present a new understanding of power in weakness Moving towards a holistic vision of grace in the context of affliction and disability Dr Mathew s reading provides encouragement to those with disabilities and their caregivers as well as highlighting the importance of our mutual response and responsibility as the church and in society

The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality, and Gender Adrian Thatcher, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Theology Sexuality and Gender presents an unrivalled overview of the theological study of sexuality and gender These topics are not merely contentious and pervasive they have escalated in importance within theology Theologians increasingly agree that even the very doctrine of God cannot be contemplated without a prior grappling with each Featuring 41 newly commissioned essays written by some of the foremost scholars in the discipline this authoritative collection presents and develops the latest thinking in these areas Divided into eight thematic sections the Handbook explores methodological approaches contributions from neighbouring disciplines sexuality and gender in the Bible and in the Christian tradition controversies within the churches and within four of the non Christian faiths and key concepts and issues The final extended section considers theology in relation to married people and families gay and lesbian people bisexual people intersex and transgender people disabled people and to friends This volume is an essential reference for students and scholars which will also stimulate further research

Receiving the Gift of Friendship Hans S. Reinders, 2008-04-14 Does what we are capable of doing define us as human beings If this basic anthropological assumption is true where can that leave those with intellectual disabilities unable to accomplish the things that we propose give us our very humanity Hans Reinders here makes an unusual claim about unusual people those who are profoundly disabled are people just like the rest of us He acknowledges that at first glance this is not an unusual claim given the steps taken within the last few decades to bring the rights of those with disabilities into line with the rights of the mainstream But he argues that cannot be the end of the matter because the disabled are human beings before they are citizens To live a human life properly he says they must not only be included in our institutions and have access to our public spaces they must also be included in other people s lives not just by natural necessity but by choice Receiving the Gift of Friendship consists of three parts 1 Profound Disability 2 Theology and 3 Ethics Overturning the commonsense view of human beings Reinders s argument for a paradigm shift in our relation to people with disabilities is founded on a groundbreaking philosophical theological consideration of humanity and of our basic human commonality Moreover Reinders gives his study human vividness and warmth with stories of the profoundly disabled from his own life and from the work of Jean Vanier and Henri Nouwen in L Arche communities

One Gospel Many Ears Ronald J. Allen, Joseph R. Jeter, Every time a congregation gathers for worship many different people from different points in life with different needs and perspectives come together each refracting messages through their own lenses Each person processes communication in ways that are influenced by age gender race personality type ethnicity education and social and economic background Jeter and Allen explore how these factors affect the ways in which members of the congregation receive and process sermons and how the preacher can optimize the opportunity for each to hear and understand the gospel and one another

Disability and Christian Theology Embodied Limits and Constructive Possibilities Deborah Beth Creamer, 2009-01-05 Attention to embodiment and the religious significance of bodies is one of the most significant shifts in contemporary theology In the midst of this however experiences of disability have received little attention This book explores possibilities for theological engagement with disability focusing on three primary alternatives challenging existing theological models to engage with the disabled body considering possibilities for a disability liberation theology and exploring new theological options based on an understanding of the unsurprisingness of human limits The overarching perspective of this book is that limits are an unavoidable aspect of being human a fact we often seem to forget or deny Yet not only do all humans experience limits most of us also experience limits that take the form of disability at some point in our lives in this way disability is more normal than non disability If we take such experiences seriously and refuse to reduce them to mere instances of suffering we discover insights that are lost when we take a perfect or generic body as our starting point for theological reflections While possible applications of this insight are vast this work focuses on two areas of particular interest theological anthropology and metaphors for God This project challenges theology to consider the undeniable diversity of human embodiment It also enriches previous disability work by providing an alternative to the dominant medical and minority models both of which fail to acknowledge the full diversity of disability experiences Most notably this project offers new images and possibilities for theological construction that attend appropriately and creatively to diversity in human embodiment

Living In-Between André Resner, 2015-11-04 The community of faith finds itself located precariously between Jesus first and second comings between the promise and fulfillment between what God has begun in the gospel and what God has yet to complete It thus finds itself proclaiming a gospel of life love hope and faith in a world more characterized by death hate despair and fear The gospel insists that Jesus death has shut the door on the age of violence and death even as his resurrection has opened the door on the Age of Shalom and life But in this tension in between time those conflicting ages overlap and the church struggles against powers and experiences that mock its message Drawing on resources from the New Testament's vision of the apocalyptic gospel Andre Resner urges the church and its preachers to engage in the linguistic practices of lament and proclamation as well as the embodied practices of justice making and justice keeping as counter testimony to those powers that have been served notice in Jesus life death and resurrection that their end is near The reflections offered here model the kind of honest speech and risk of life to which the gospel calls its adherents
